MRS. BERGE, an Icelandic impersonator of Icelandic sentiment, was mulcted in the sum of $25 in the Police court this afternoon.

The alleged conspiracies will come up for hearing before Justice Anderson this morning, according to prior arrangement. Our Gunner, the "Mag" of the county, who was a worm of note year in the penitentiary, and his wife, will be among the principal witnesses.

It is reported that Colonel Russell A. Alger will arrive in this city on his way home from the Pacific coast, tomorrow. The Republicans are prepared to give the distinguished soldier a royal reception. The affair will come off at the Tabernacle parlors between 12 o'clock noon and 1:30 p. m.

The filing of further evidence in the Northern Star flower mining suit is going on before Judge Zane and a jury at the City Hall today. It is the same old story over again that was told on the occasion of the first trial, the monotony being now and again relieved by forensic sparks of humor.

PROFESSOR CHARLEMAGNE LAYTON, of Thatcher, Oneida county, Idaho, formerly of Kaysville, has come up from his southern home to visit his relatives in this city until after conference. He will be remembered as one of the first men who made a success of growing and manufacturing sugar beets in this Territory.

YESTERDAY it was published in the NEWS that an officer stood in a register that every saloon in the city was open last Sunday except one, which was named. Mr. Phil Margotte objects to this statement as incorrect, as his establishment is run in strict accordance with law, and never was in any time been open on a Sunday.

On and after today no garbage will be received at the Hunter Water-work depot. Persons having dead animals, garbage or refuse of any kind should call upon the health officer at the City Hall before attempting to remove it. A new dumping ground will have to be secured by the city on account of the action of the grand jury indicting the sanitary inspector for assuming a nuisance near Bingham.

The following letter has been received by Ex-Secretary Maloy of the Chamber of Commerce, dated Jacksonville, Ill., March 14, 1892: "Memorials are prepared of January 11th, inviting the National Editorial Association of the United States to meet in your city, and the committee having decided to go to San Francisco, I write to inform you that it is probable that a large part of the delegates will be 200 or more, will return via Salt Lake City and stop at for a day or two.

"SHE DIDN'T COME BACK."

The Young Lady who was Victimized by a Pickpocket Fails to Appear in Court.

Every inch of available space in Justice Gee's sanctum was occupied today at the examination of Henry Hadden, on a charge of grand larceny. Hadden is the individual who was so deftly robbed of his pocketbook Gillespie, of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday afternoon near Geller's corner, at the instigation of Lucy E. DeBoisblanc, a young lady, whose home is at 151 East Fifth South street. Miss DeBoisblanc alleged that Hadden had deliberately put her hand in her pocket and disembarked with her purse and she went to police headquarters and swore out a complaint to that effect before Justice Gee.

When the case came up for hearing today, Miss DeBoisblanc did not put in an appearance. An officer was sent to her home with a summons for her attendance, but she could not be found. The prosecution, which was conducted by Mr. Richter, intimated that she had been induced to absent herself. The impeachment was emphatically but unflagly denied by Attorney Newton, who appeared for the defendant.

Mr. Gillespie was first put on the stand and testified as to the nature of the case, as detailed in last evening's NEWS. His wily rejoinder to Mr. Newton's pertinent questions were the source of considerable merriment.

Mrs. Rizer, a disinterested witness, testified to having seen the accused running off with Miss DeBoisblanc's purse.

Several witnesses were placed on the stand and testified as to the good character of the defendant.

The Court, in reviewing the testimony, considered that a strong case had been made out and that there was sufficient evidence to warrant the holding of the defendant, notwithstanding that the prosecuting witness had failed to appear.

He was bound in $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Amusement Notes.

The performance by the Jefferson Comedy Company of "The Hebrew" tonight at the Theatre will be an enjoyable event to all who are fortunate enough to obtain a ticket.

THE CONFERENCE CONCERT.

The programme for the coming grand Conference concert is all arranged, and a better one, Prof. Siegfr. ens says, he has never prepared, not even for his Festival concerts. The chorus is the largest and best he has had, including every active singer in all the choirs of Salt Lake and surroundings near enough to attend rehearsals. Until lately he has engaged the Salt Lake Symphony Orchestra organization comprising thirty-two men, who have been rehearsing for months, and at this time the session make their first appearance. This orchestra as well as the great organ will accompany the immense chorus and fairly shake the building with harmonious sounds. A harp solo and a zither duet will be enjoyable novelties also, while most of our standard favorites including Weber, Easton, Pyper, Goddard, Thomas, Mr. Agnes Thomas, Bessie Dean, Louie Poulton and the Harmony Glee Club make up a list that ensures success to the undertaking, leaving out the object of the concert, which alone would fill the house. It is the Tabernacle choir extending a strong arm to aid the weaker organizations, the ward choirs, and all concerned will realize the force of the motto, "In union there is strength."

"REMEMBRANCE."

The Home Dramatic Club have prepared a bill of decided interest for the coming conference week. They have secured from the author, Mr. Gillette, the right to perform the noted play "Dramania," and in conjunction with Belle Gillette, late of the Madison Square Theatre Emerald Company, they will present the play on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 4th, 5th and 6th. Thursday they close their season with an elaborate revival of "Held by the Enemy." Besides Mrs. Gillette, the full strength of the well-known company, Mr. Wells, Mr. Spencer, Mr. Young, Mr. Pierce, Mr. Evans, Mr. Barlow, Birdie Cummings, Lotta Claridge and Nettie Hoall will appear.

THE EUREKA TOWNSITE.

Rebuttal Testimony Taken This Morning at the Land Office.

M. L. POWERS AND THE "CENTENNIAL."

The Inquiry Will Probably Come to a Final Conclusion this Week.

When the hearing of the Eureka townsite case was resumed at the United States Land Office this morning, P. N. Petersen was recalled on the part of the townsite applicants and added one or two additional questions, after which Judge Sutherland said—We have met with the reservation of the right to recall witnesses, before the hearing is closed, the order of the First District court for inspection of the Wells Tunnel and the contract of McCrystal and others relative to the excluded ground.

Rebutting testimony was then called by Major Bird, counsel for the protestants.

John Q. Packard first went on the stand.

Major Bird—A number of witnesses, among them Prof. James E. Jones, James E. Stallings and O. A. Peterson, have testified in this case for the townsite applicants. They have sworn that the formation within the townsite application is porphyry, some terming it trachyte. Now I will ask you if in your writings of the Eureka and of the Keystone and the Gemini you have mentioned this porphyry and trachyte?

A.—The Gemini would be more appropriate. The Keystone is to the west.

Q.—Did you find mineral in paying quantities everything or underlying the trachyte or porphyry?

A.—Underlying.

Q.—About what was the thickness of the deposit of porphyry or trachyte that you went through before striking mineral in paying quantities?

A.—We probably didn't sink through the porphyry.

Q.—Did you find the porphyry located as to the mineral?

A.—Anywhere as flow over.

Q.—Have you seen the witness said he did not know that he ever saw any porphyry on the main street of Eureka.

Q.—But, taking the street as your guide, the porphyry ran in a north and south direction?

A.—I have no hesitation in saying that one or two hundred feet below it crossed the porphyry I mean crosses north or south.

Witness was acquainted with the location of the Snowflake but not with its workings.

Q.—Does this same formation of porphyry cross that country?

A.—We have traced it from north to south to the Colliers, and there it turned distinctly some three hundred or four hundred feet to the south and east.

Q.—Has mineral been discovered in the Colliers?

A.—Yes; we might say beyond it there is a great deal of porphyry there and quartz together.

Q.—Now, from your actual knowledge and experience in the working of the different claims surrounding the townsite application or adjoining it, I will ask you if, in your opinion, the veins of ore that you have testified to have a general direction of north and south and shooting into and across the townsite application?

Judge Sutherland objected to the question as not being rebuttal. Besides, it was not a subject matter which any witness could give his opinion.

Major Bird insisted that it was rebutting. The witness, he said, was already shown to be thoroughly acquainted with the country and its geological formation.

Witness then answered the question by saying—I know it from the developing work.

Q.—Does the vein of ore that you are writing in the gunpowder under or in the centre of the ground that is covered by the townsite application?

Witness replied yes.

Q.—Is that ore found in paying quantities?

A.—We have taken out over 1000 tons.

Q.—Such ore as would pay to mine and market?

A.—Averaged over $100 to the ton.

Q.—Mr. Stallings has stated that no one could be mined successfully in the town of Eureka unless it was worth at least $50 a ton. Couldn't ores of less value be concentrated and made marketable?

A.—That would depend upon circumstances.

M. L. Powers, re-called on the part of the Gem claim, in rebuttal, asked how long it was since any portion of the W. W. C. bullion had been used for water or other purposes, and witness two and three years.

Q.—State, if you know, why they stopped using water from that claim and taking water from it.

A.—Well, I can't state why they stopped taking water from it, but I can say why they stopped work. They drifted from the shaft over into the Diable. When they drifted into the Diable I served the notice on them, and was going to serve an injunction on them and they quit.

Judge Sutherland—I object to that part of the answer where the witness says, "I was going to serve an injunction on them and they quit." It implies that the Centennial Eureka Company was guilty to his thoughts.

After some few questions in cross-examination the witness was disposed of, and a recess was taken till 2 p. m.

Sunday School Union.

The meeting of the Sunday School officers and teachers of this Stake, held last evening, was very well attended. Nearly all the city schools were represented save of less universality, as also the schools of Big Cottonwood south district, Deer Mill Creek, South Cottonwood and Union.

The musical exercises were excellently rendered by the Ninth Ward Sunday School choir, led by Brother A. M. Woolley.

Superintendent Tims, Garrard opened the meeting with prayer.

Elder George Reynolds gave a very instructive lecture on the subject of "The Book of Mormon and text book." The speaker briefly outlined the character of the different parts of that book, the manner of its compilation and translation, and, inasmuch as its sacred classes, explained some troubles the necessity of using it in such a way as to create a liking and interest in the minds of their class. To use it briefly, easily and as the best exposition has been should be authority, whether with the several parts of the book and to be able to detect and explain the quotations it contains and the documents of the compiler.

Elder G. E. Stevens, of the previous committee, in a speech of ten following class exercises, stated that the subject sought was the instruction of the scholars, not the training of the organizations. He also outlined how teachers might become influential as to the use instead of monitoring pupils exercises in such a manner as to interest as well as instruct the children.

Brother B. W. Allen then concluded a very pleasing exercise with a number of boys and girls from the Nineteenth and Seventh Ward Sunday schools. Prof. Stallings with Assistant Superintendent D. R. Stevens, then spoke a short address on the joy of "teaching and be cultivated." The great work is supported by a library, and money was a good investment. Good results from examinations showed in the mind could be made forth when required. Examples of remarkable memory were displayed by the speaker, who stated that the power to train the memory attention was the first requisite, and was obtained should be maintained by exercising that memory. Ask questions, after a class instruction, and questions only should be propounded as would cause the children to think.

Major Stevenson and George again called attention to the "Sunday School Guide," which was described as a handbook for the general use and guidance of teachers and Sunday Schools, that treatment would receive the attention it deserved.

At the Sunday School Union were present representatives from one of this hall, for publishing the "Guide," and other residential expenses, those Sunday schools which had not already report of so to the financial circular recently issued were requested to give the matter early attention.

After singing, the benediction was pronounced by President General Superintendent George Goddard.

The Tenth Ward will furnish the music at the next meeting of the Union.

J. H. PARRY, Secretary.

EARLY MORNING FIRE.

Sam. Calder Arrested and Jailed on a Charge of Arson.

But for the timely discovery of an incipient blaze in the basement of Calder's Music Palace, at 320 o'clock this morning, by Nightwatchman Burgess, that structure might now have been seriously damaged. The fire alarm was sounded and the department responded with commendable alacrity. The blaze was soon located and extinguished by the use of the chemical engine in a very short time and with but little harm.

Chief Stanford is authority for the statement that a member had been out upon a spree and had in ignorance mere materials of a similar kind that was near by. A short time before the fire was discovered Sam Calder is said to have broken in at the rear door, by demolishing a large pane of glass, and descended into the basement. The interest of the department was that he had fired the premises and he was arrested and taken to jail on a charge of arson. The case will probably be heard tomorrow. Calder, it is claimed, was drunk at the time.

A DESPERATE ACT.

Ex-City Assessor and Collector Sammons, of Provo, Cuts His Throat With a Knife.

The usually quiet city of Provo was thrown into a flurry of excitement last night by the rapidly circulated news that ex-City Assessor and Collector Thomas H. Sammons had ended his earthly existence by cutting his throat with a knife.

The terrible deed was committed at the family residence, and death was almost instantaneous. It seems that Mrs. Sammons, who has long been an invalid, heard strange sounds emanating from an adjoining apartment. She entered it hurriedly, and was horrified at finding her husband gasping and writhing in a pool of blood upon the floor. A Salt Lake City man, who was with him on his last stroll, saw a knife, with which he had almost severed his windpipe.

The deed was sudden, and wholly unexpected. Sammons was an old and respected resident and was possessed of much natural as well as acquired ability. It is said that his last, for some time past, has resulted in his impoverishment, superintended by financial difficulties and the protracted illness of his wife. He was a Democrat, aged 45 years, and was highly respected in Provo, as well as in other parts of the Territory. His bereavement will be a matter of profound regret wherever he is known.

INTERESTING WATER MEETING

Held in Sugar House Ward Last Night —Right to the Water Discussed.

A meeting of the residents of the southeastern suburbs was held in the Sugar House school building last evening. The attendance was one on which those interested in the waters of what is known as the Kennedy ditch were called upon to state their grievances, by being deprived of the water they are entitled to, and to suggest some practical means of securing and defending their rights.

There were present Mayor D. S. Bachin, Councilmen F. Evans, City Engineer Downey, Ex-Councilmen Peterson and La Grand Young.

Mr. Jas. Sutherland called the meeting to order at 7:30, Mr. M. Garrett was elected chairman, and Mr. Peter Elliot, secretary. Mr. Mattheus stated the object of the meeting, and told the time was when there were no disputes about the waters of Parley's creek, which run in the Kennedy ditch, as it was distributed at the proper time and six place three miles west of the present point of distribution, that when it was so distributed there was fully one-third more water near the present owners of the eight-inch gate, outside of the Salt Lake City jurisdiction, than there is now. The cause of the quantity of water being contended was available to some extent by the action of the City Council, and Superintendent Young with its review and inspection.

On the other hand, the proprietary rights are more than the half right, the original owners are then negatived of the water belonging to them.

When the water of Salt Lake City, the agitation of the municipal question, made an exhaustive three years ago, with the on-going Cutler's Committee, who reside west of Salt Lake City and Jordan River, of some water, for their Parley's Creek water, the city proved to defend their right to the ninety-two hundred inches of water that belong to the original owners, and further that the supply of water still held by the original owners, and that of the city and Cutler's Committee, is a constitution, and it was a fact that, in consequence of the city having failed to carry out its contract to defend their rights, that both the city and the other original owners of water rights were been defrauded. The proprietary rights had taken the place of the original owners of water belonging to the original owners.

Mr. W. C. A. Sheets was called for, and said he was not there to be heard on the Kennedy ditch. He had on the 19th made an exchange with some of the owners of Parley's Creek water for natural water to the extent of eight-inches, for the water of Parley's Creek, Cutler's Creek, and owners had refused to the city to purchase some water that they really owned, but the great place was to the Cutler's Committee by the proprietary officers of the water. It was a wrong both to the city and to the original owners of the ditch. The city failed to keep its contract to defend the right to sell water against the proprietary people.

Mr. Sammons, who was the chief incendiary earlier, then a committee is elected to confer with Mayor Bachin and the irrigation committee to thereby take special measures for a solution of the grievance which exist.

The following named gentlemen were chosen as such committee: James Mathews, W. C. A. Sheets, La Grand Young.

Mr. Leonard Young expressed what had been stated by Mr. Mathews and Mr. Sheets, and that he did not protest their water right, and that a duplicate of said water at the month of the canyon would not be utilized. The Kennedy ditch was 3 feet 6 inches wide, and was one and a quarter (1) acres, but that they need from ten (10) to fifteen (15) acres of water. Mayor Bachin said that the city, so far as he was concerned, he would see to it that the city's right would be protected and that the city's contract with the water owners should be kept. After some other business was transacted, the meeting adjourned for one week.

PETER ELLIOT, Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—The supreme court this afternoon affirmed the decision of the court of common pleas of Philadelphia County in favor of Mrs. Delia Parnell, wife of Charles Stewart Parnell, administrator of the estate of Charlotte Stewart. Money was applied in some cases with this understanding, admittedly with good faith, but the speculations were unsuccessful, and in the year 1886, Mrs. Parnell kept the funds secret, and attempted to retrieve the losses by using her own money, benefiting over $600 in the Smith affair, allowing her to borrow the money to be the proceeds of her investment.

In Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have had recovered from a severe attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to be about the house about two days before getting 'down.' 50 cent bottles for sale by Z.
