Evangelical Conference.

NEW YORK, 3.—The formal opening of the great evangelical conference took place this morning in Steinway Hall, previous to which, however, prayer for its success was offered in Madison Square Church. Long before the hour for the commencement of the exercises the audience room of Steinway Hall was crowded in every part. Some Oriental delegates, wearing their turbans, were conspicuous personages in the vast assembly, and attracted general attention. Promptly at the appointed hour Wm. E. Dodge called the conference to order and made an address, in which he expressed the hope that the delegates would be able to leave the Atlantic sea board and witness for themselves the grand progress made by the country and contemplate its magnificence, its inland seas, its rivers and mountains. Mr. Dodge concluded his address by giving a cordial welcome to the delegates and invoking the divine blessing. A hymn of praise was then sung, and religious exercises followed, which were participated in by Rev. Dr. Rigg, of London, Rev. Mateo Prochet, of Italy, and the Dean of Canterbury.

A permanent organization was effected by the selection of Dr. Theo. Woolsey for president, Dr. G. Pringegent, secretary. Long lists of vice-presidents and honorary secretaries were also read.

After the address of the president, Rev. M. Prochet, of Italy, spoke of the condition of the church of Christ in that country. He said the Pope is conscientious of his diminished power, and that all the priests do not believe in his assumption, for only a few years ago 9,000 of them petitioned him to abandon his temporal claims. The people, too, he said, were only Catholics in name, but unfortunately they preferred to remain inactive in a church which they were born in, rather than to seek out the truth.

On the conclusion of the Rev. Prochet's address, an autobiographical paper, by Prof. A. Thalock, M. D., of Halle, Germany, was read by Dr. Wilke, of Kanthen, Prussia, the former having been too infirm to attend the convention. The first session was then adjourned, Bishop Odell, of Ohio, pronouncing the benediction.

At the afternoon session of the Evangelical alliance short addresses were made by a number of foreign delegates. A telegram from the Emperor of Germany was received and accepted, and a recess was taken till seven.

At the evening session the Evangelical Alliance was presided over by Lord Alfred Churchill of England. The session was held in St. Paul's M. E. church, which was crowded to repletion. The session was occupied with addresses from a number of the delegates.

Resumptions.

The National Trust Co. will resume on Monday a.m. Kidder & Co. have settled at fifty cents on the dollar and resumed.

Expelled.

The expulsion of Grinnell & Co. from the Stock Exchange was caused by a refusal to answer an important question, asked by the governing committee, relative to their bankruptcy proceedings.

Yellow Fever in New York.

At the inspection of the quarantine station to-day, by Governor Dix and the quarantine commissioners, it was stated by the health officers that the yellow fever had existed at the lower quarantine station at all times from the first of June to the first of October. Total number of cases 64, deaths 13. The information as to the actual severity of the disease had been withheld from the press to prevent alarmists injuring the commerce of the port.

Still Improving.

Affairs in financial circles continue to improve. The closing day of the three days' grace accorded to the brokers in making up their private settlements brings with it no new disaster beyond the suspension of the small broker house of Albert Cole, which has exercised no influence on the market. One thousand shares of various stocks were sold out under the rule for delinquent parties. There were considerable purchases to-day of dividend-paying securities on the European account. The savings banks and investors were free buyers of government bonds. Mercantile obligations are being met with promptness.

Victims of the Fever—More Help Wanted.

MEMPHIS.—There were twenty-one yellow fever interments to day. The Odd Fellows are treating twenty-four yellow fever patients. They have lost eight, have exhausted their supply of funds and ask help from the Odd Fellows' lodges throughout the country. The St. Andrews Society earnestly appeal to the brethren elsewhere for pecuniary aid in nursing their sick. They have had several deaths. In response to the appeal of the citizens of the executive committee contributions began coming freely by telegraph orders to-day.

The Mints Busy.

WASHINGTON, 3.—The mint at Philadelphia, under orders from Washington, is coining double eagles at the rate of ten million a month. The California mint is running at its full capacity on gold coinage, and trade dollar bullion to the amount of three million dollars has been added to the fund of the assay officers at New York, to pay promptly all deposits of sovereigns.

Dead.

BALTIMORE, 3.—Thomas King Carroll, formerly governor of this State, died at his residence in Dorchester county, to-day.

Monarchy will be Proclaimed.

BRUSSELS, 3.—The Echo department says it has private information from Paris, that a monarchy will certainly be proclaimed, on the proposition of a majority of the Assembly.

Will Pay all they Owe.

PHILADELPHIA, 3.—It is stated from the Washington, on the authority of ex-governor Cooke, that the firm of Jay Cooke & Co., will soon make a proposition to their creditors, for the purpose of enabling it to resume business. The members of the firm have pooled their private property and personal assets, and will place them at the command of their creditors in liquidation of their indebtedness. They propose to pay every cent they owe, both principal and interest. The details of the proposition will be made public in due time.

Chinese Gambling.

CHICAGO.—One of the papers this morning states that a Chinese gambling house is in existence here, the number of Chinese now in this city being quite large.

Banks Breaking.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, 3.—The financial panic appears to have reached here, just as it has everywhere else. Rickley's Bank, a small private institution, and the Commercial Bank, also a private bank, closed their doors this morning under a run of small depositors. There is some local excitement.

The report that the Commercial Bank had closed its doors was premature. It has simply stopped the payment of large checks.

Fatal Explosion.

BOSTON, 3.—The boiler of the hoisting engine on the Grand Junction wharf exploded to-day, killing one man and wounding several others.

Funeral of Admiral Winslow.

The funeral service of the late Rear Admiral Winslow took place to-day in St. John's Episcopal church, Boston Highlands. The remains were taken to Forest Hill and interred, in accordance with the wish of the family of the deceased. There was no military procession, but a long line of carriages containing professional and personal friends accompanied the body to the grave. The flags on all public and many private buildings were at half mast.

Major Pierce has received the republican nomination for Congress from the third district of Massachusetts to fill the vacancy.

WESTERN.

Execution of the Modocs.

JACKSONVILLE, OGN. 3.—Your correspondent left Fort Klamath this morning at 10.30 o'clock, and by hard riding arrived here a few moments ago. The following is a report of the execution of Jack and band; Boston Charley and Black Jim were led on the scaffold first, and Schonchin next. They trod on it with apparent indifference and iron nerve, having evidently resolved to die as brave as they have lived. Jack went easily up the stairway, but looked wretched and miserable. The manacles had been struck off, but their arms were securely pinioned with cord. At precisley 9.45 a. m., the interpreters, Capt. O. C. Applegate and David Hill, explained to the culprits the nature of the order to be read to them by the adjutant, and at 10 a. m. adjutant Kingsbury read the orders promulgating the sentence of the commission, and the President's order thereon, with the orders of the Secretary of War and the Department commander on the premises. The two reprieved prisoners, Bancho and Slolux, yet stood on the ground in front of the scaffold, shackled and under guard. During the reading the pinioned victims were seated on the platform of the scaffold, with their feet on the drop, listening anxiously, but of course not understanding a word of it. The reading occupied ten minutes, then the adjutant read the order of commutation in the case of Bancho and Slolux, and the poor fellows were taken back to the stockade, evidently happy at not accompanying the others to the happy hunting grounds. The chaplain then offered an earnest and fervent prayer for the souls of the culprits, which was listened to attentively. At 10.15 the fatal nooses were placed around the necks under the direction of Capt. Hoge. It was necessary to cut off a little of Jack's long hair, which was in the way of the rope. Capt. Hoge then bid farewell to the prisoners, and the black caps were placed over the heads of all the culprits. It must have been an awful moment. At 10.20 they stood on the drop. The rope was cut by the assistant at a signal made with Capt. Hay's handkerchief. The bodies swung round and round, Jack and Jim apparently dying easily, but Boston Charley and Schonchin suffering terrible convulsions, repeatedly drew up their legs. The two others seemed to die almost instantly. At 10.28 their pulses were felt by Captain Hoge and as I write they are swinging lifeless in the air. As the drop fell with a terrific deadly thud four poor wretched human beings fell into eternity, and a half smothered cry of horror went up from the crowd of over five hundred Klamath Indians who witnessed the awful spectacle. Wails of deep and bitter anguish went up from the stockade, where the wives and children of the poor fellows had a fair view of the shocking scene. The coffins, six in number, had been placed directly in the rear of the gallows, two of them declared to be unoccupied. As the order commuting the sentence of Bancho and Slolux only arrived at 10.30 p. m. last evening, preparations had been made for them likewise. An application was made this morning by the Sheriff of Jackson county for the custody of the Indians indicted by the grand jury to Gen. Wheaton, but it was refused.

DURING DULL TIMES we will sell our celebrated Organs and Pianos on 12 monthly installments, without interest being added.
