DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Monday, October 7, 1895.

THE EISTEDDFOD IS ENDED.

Big Concert in the Tabernacle On Saturday Evening.

Thirty Six Thousand People Have Attended the Greatest Musical Festival Ever Held in the West.

"Cymru am Byth!"

The great Eisteddfod is a thing of the past as a fact, but as a pleasant memory it will always be present. On Saturday evening the grand finale was reached in the concert at the Tabernacle. The great building received a vast audience estimated at twelve thousand souls and interest was at its hite highest point—not on account of the natural fating in human beings to see a struggle for supremacy, but having seen "the best man win," the audience of Saturday night left a satisfaction in the adjudication of awards, and hearing the best efforts of the choirs.

In spite of the big parade and its thousands of spectators the Tabernacle was early filled with lovers of music, who had been witnesses of the largest Eisteddfod ever held in America with the exception of the one at the World's Fair.

This Territory can claim the distinction of having inaugurated in the West the old Welsh custom of holding an annual Eisteddfod, and when the next one is held a year from now in Denver the great effort which has just ended will be an example well worthy of imitation by our Colorado friends and no doubt the object of their efforts will be to excel, if possible, the results achieved by Utah's Cambrians and their associates. The program Saturday night opened with the singing of "Hen Wlad fy Nhadau," Adjudicator Watkins rendering the solo and the vast assemblage joining in the chorus.

The Deseret band played Lemmer's "Fest," the overture upon the rendition of which the prize was won and words of praise received. Mr. Watkins then sang the baritone song, "The Watcher," and was loudly applauded. The Orpheus male chorus, the Cecelia and Bel Canto female choruses rendered their contest pieces and the Denver mixed chorus gave a fine rendition of "Hark, Hark, My Soul," which had not been sung by them before in this city. Solos were sung by Mrs. Scott and Messrs. J. Gordon Jones and Yuille, of Denver, Mr. Charles Kent, of Ogden, and Mrs. Nellie Dunn-Pugsley and Miss Maude Cooper of Salt Lake. All were given magnificent applause, but as no encores were permitted the audience was satisfied with one rendition of each. "The Star Spangled Banner" was the theme of Haydn Evans's solo on the grand organ. His masterly rendition of the piece demonstrated the musician's greatability. The Tabernacle choir sang the "Hallelujah Chorus," as a finishing touch to the greatest musical event in the history of Utah.

ADJUDICATORS SERENADED.

The Denhalter band, under Prof. Anton Cedercen's directorship and with Manager Meakin as pilot, serenaded the adjudicators at the Templeton. Mr. Watkins and Mr. Evans thanked the boys in very neat speeches and the band replied with three rousing cheers.

MAJOR AND MINOR.

"Good-by, now, whatever."

The Denver singers left for home yesterday.

The visitors have enjoyed themselves.

Adjudicator Davis visited Saltair Saturday.

Secretary James begins to feel the result of his hard work.

Treasurer Morris has been busy making out checks for the cash prizes.

Fifty cents is a cheap rate from Ogden and it brought a big crowd.

Ex-Governor Thomas dined the adjudicators at his residence yesterday evening.

Professor Stephens announces that he will have a chorus at the Denver Eisteddfod.

The Butte band gave a concert at Fort Douglas, in company with the Seventh Regiment band yesterday afternoon.

The Cambrian society of this city will hold another special meeting this evening to transact some of the unfinished business.

The greater portion of the Butte delegation, accompanied by their band, left for their homes on the 6:45 Union Pacific train this afternoon.

The adjudicators expect to leave for home this evening, but say that if they are to continue to receive the kind treatment of which they have been the recipients, they are not likely to get home this winter. As Mr. Watkins said, "We don't know where this is going to end."

It was like this:

"What is your name, please?"

"Thomas."

"Thomas what?"

"Thomas."

"But your other name?"

"Thomas."

"Yes, but both your names, I mean?"

"Thomas, Thomas twice."

"Oh! Thomas Twice."

"Dear, dear, no. My names is Thomas Thomas, look you."

High Council.

The High Council of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will convene tomorrow (Tuesday) at 1 p.m. All members of the Council are requested to be present at this meeting.

Clerk of Council.

A MISSING MAN.

Came West from His Home, Possibly as Far as Salt Lake.

G. R. Kimball, of Deadwood, South Dakota, mysteriously disappeared from his home on Sept. 7th last, while temporarily demented and it is thought he may have come west as far as Salt Lake.

He has been doing a bonding, abstract and insurance business, and left his wife and sick babe, to whom he was tenderly devoted, representing that he was going on business to some neighboring town. It is now known, says the Deadwood Times, that he was arrested on a train at Tecumseh, Nebraska, on September 11, on strange actions and appearance attracting attention and suspicion. He was held four days and released, there being no charge against him and it not being known who he was or that he was wanted. When he left home he wore a tone sack-coat business suit. He carried a large bundle of "Sliders" and "Durango" mining stocks and papers thought to be of little or no value. When at Tecumseh he signed his name "George Riley" and may possibly persist in doing so. He is 31 years of age, 5 feet 11½ inches tall, weight about 160 pounds, high cheek bones, blue or gray eyes set deep in head, dark brown hair, thin mustache and when last seen had ten days' growth of beard. Any information concerning his whereabouts will be most gratefully received by Martin & Mason, attorneys, Deadwood, South Dakota.

ROBERT DOVER'S MISFORTUNE.

He Loses Three Fingers of His Right Hand By the Explosion of a Gun.

Robert Dover, who resides at 258 Wall street, was yesterday morning the victim of a very painful and unfortunate accident. While out duck hunting in the sloughs near the Warm Springs, he fired one barrel of his muzzle-loading double-barreled shotgun, and was in the act of reloading the empty chamber, when the loaded one exploded, tearing three fingers off his right hand, which were resting on the on the muzzle, into shreds.

He was immediately taken up town, where Dr. Beer, with the assistance of Dr. McAchran, amputated the injured members, leaving the man as comfortable as possible.

Mr. Dover has the thumb and forefinger remaining, which will enable him to use his hand to some extent.

Concert Postponed.

The concert which has heretofore been advertised to be given in the Twentieth ward meeting house Thursday evening has been postponed until Friday evening, October 11, at the same place.

FALL GOODS COMING NOW.

Woolen Goods a Trifle Higher Than Last Fall, Cotton Fabrics and Sewing Silks have Also Advanced in Price.

We have selected stock this fall with the idea that we are to have an improvement in trade. And that we certainly will want better suits than they have been having for the past three years. Therefore we purchased from the most reliable manufacturers, and have stocks of the very latest patterns, without regard to the weight of the cloth or any of last year's designs. We have also made some on side change in our merchant-tailoring department. We take among these is engaging the services of one of the most reliable and best known cutters in the city, so our customers are trying to save money by placing orders with us.

With regard to prices we still adhere to our motto of giving our customers the greatest value possible for their money. Being satisfied with very small profits.

We have also looked after the interests of our less fortunate customers, who do not feel that they can afford to invest $25.00 or more in a suit, but still like to dress in well fitting, well made, tasteful appearing clothes, and for this trade have purchased a very carefully selected line of American made goods. These goods are equal in neatness of pattern and general appearance to those of foreign manufacture, and are of similar wearing qualities and are equally free of many unscrupulous dealers as imported, and offered for sale by them at prices much lower than the imported goods can be sold for, but at much higher prices than we are offering the same goods for. From these goods we are ready to fill orders at from $12.50 to $22.50 and give the customers the benefit of having them cut and made by the best skilled workmen in the city, a privilege we trust will be appreciated.
