EVENING NEWS.

Friday, . Nov. 26, 1875.

By Telegraph.

Change in Programme.

WASHINGTON, 24.—The committee of arrangements to-day made a change in the order of procession to follow the remains of the Vice President on Friday, so that the President of the U. S. and the members of the Cabinet will be assigned the next place to the relatives of the deceased, and the diplomatic corps will follow the Judges of the Supreme Court of the U. S.

Indian Troubles in New Mexico.

Indian Agent Alex. G. Irvine telegraphs Mr. Smith that in an altercation which recently occurred at Comarron agency, New Mexico, he was wounded in the head by an Indian, and that the latter, attempting to escape, was shot by the guard, and hostilities might be looked for any moment. He recommends the control of affairs be placed in charge of the military.

In reply the commissioner telegraphs to put the military authorities in full control and give them hearty co-operation in bringing the Indians into subjection.

The Programme.

The Massachusetts delegation met with the official committee at the State Department to-day and agreed upon the route of the funeral procession to the railroad station. The following tunes will be performed on the bells of the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal church from 10 o'clock until after the funeral train leaves the depot—Muffled peal, Windham tune, "I would not live alway;" "O, rest in the Lord," Elijah; Pleyel's Hymn, "Thou art Gone to the Grave;" "Angels ever Bright and Fair;" "The Dying Christian;" "Vital Spark of Heavenly Flame;" "Dead March in Saul."

On arriving in Baltimore the remains will be escorted through the city by the 5th Maryland regiment, whose offer to accompany the remains to Boston the committee of arrangements felt compelled to decline. Mayor Latrobe of Baltimore has tendered the use of the Rotunda of the City Hall for the lying in state of the remains, the 5th regiment of Maryland detailing a guard of honor.

Upon arrival of the remains at Philadelphia on Friday evening they will be taken to Independence Hall, under the escort of such civil and military organizations as may proffer their services, where they will lie in state until 10 or 11 a.m. on Saturday, when they will be conveyed to New York.

The remains will not lie in state in New York city, but will be taken to Boston on the evening train.

Order for U. S. Diplomatic and Consuls.

Referring to the order of the President announcing the death of the Vice-President, the following circular of instruction is addressed by the Secretary of State to the diplomatic and consular officers of the United States—

"Department of State,
"Washington, 22.

"To the Diplomatic and Consular Officers of the United States:

"Gentlemen—Your attention is specially invited to the subjoined order of this date, announcing the death of Henry Wilson, Vice-President of the United States, and providing for appropriate honors to his memory. You will cause the flags of your several offices to be displayed at half mast on the reception of this circular, and will adopt the usual symbols of public mourning for a period of thirty days.

"I am, your obedient servant,
"HAMILTON FISH,
"Secretary of State."

Boston Preparations.

BOSTON, 24.—The arrangements in part for the reception of the remains of the late Vice President have been completed. The remains will arrive here at six o'clock on Sunday morning, and will be escorted to the State House by a company of volunteer militia, where they will lie in State in the Doric Hall. The funeral services will take place in the Representatives' Hall at 12 o'clock on Monday. The officiating clergymen and details of the military escort are yet to be named. After the services at the State House the remains will be escorted to a point on the line of the Boston and Albany Railroad, probably Cottage Farm, or Allston, and there delivered to the Natick authorities by a military committee. The city committee have tendered the use of Faneuil Hall for the remains to lie in State. The executive council will hold a meeting on Friday, when arrangements will be perfected.

A Hundred Guineas Poem Prize.

NEW YORK, 24.—A private letter received here from a literary gentleman now in London says that the Crown Perfumery Company of that city has offered a reward of one hundred guineas for the best poem by English, American or Hindoo authors, on the subject of the Prince of Wales' visit to India, to be treated with reference to the contrasts of ancient and modern civilization or the activities of modern life. The writer says that this news will be of much interest to many American authors and may induce many to send in contributions, which must arrive in London by the 20th of January.
