NEWS OF THE WEST.

Utah, Idaho and Wyoming Cattle in the Omaha Market.

WOLVES TOO MUCH FOR HOUNDS.

Removal Forger Recommended by Mabry—At Zion's Liquor Dealers —Items of Interest.

The first rails at the Florida, Tampa and Moss Bluff railway were laid on Saturday last.

Two carloads of cattle from Castleville, Utah, were placed on the Omaha market on Wednesday in first class condition.

Kate Hastie has got through with her act on the West and Northwest, and has gone as far as Minneapolis on his route trip.

Seven American young ladies reached Tacoma, Washington, today (Friday) enroute to China to engage in missionary work among the heathen.

The South Omaha Stockman says that on Wednesday David Moore, of Eden, Utah, was on the Omaha market with six carloads of Utah range cattle.

T. S. Collins, D. Dendy, L. C. Peterson, G. Peterson, W. C. Wright, J. D. Cattle, and J. M. Wright, of Western Wyoming, and Marcus & Farnsworth, of Soda Springs, Idaho, all had western range cattle in the Omaha market on Wednesday.

From the report of C. M. Shannon, internal revenue collector of the district including Arizona, it appears there are in the territory 535 saloons, seven wholesale liquor houses and eighteen wholesale and retail malt dealers, which give a revenue of $65,194.62 to the United States for the year.

A wolf hunt with greyhounds was held in South Dakota the other day. In the prairie wolves were too much for the dogs, and got away from them easily. In only one instance did a large greyhound come in contact with a wolf, and then after a short encounter was glad to give up. The hunt is to be with wolfhounds, a number of which have been sent for.

The Boise, Idaho, Statesman says that the Rev. Williams, a young man who arrived here last summer clothed in clerical garb and worked himself into the confidence of a number of church people of Boise, has been arrested in Oregon by a Missouri sheriff and taken back to be tried on the charge of forgery. Williams went to Boise in July with a letter from Dr. Mabry, pastor of the First Methodist church at Salt Lake, which entitled him to admission as a member of the Methodist church at Boise. Of course Mabry has since resigned from the Methodist church, thus practically admitting his guilt of the offense charged against him in his association with Mrs. Roley. Williams was permitted to occupy Rev. J. W. Hutton's pulpit in Boise, and induced the minister to recommend that he be taken on probation by Oregon Methodists. Then the Missouri sheriff came along and taken him.

HACKNEY MARES.

Fine Dams of the Fashionable High Stepping Breed.

The strong, firm, sweeping hind legs and rear quarters of the hackney are well illustrated in the view of the mare here presented. We give this view to show up the hackney mare's shape from the rear. This conformation is the one especially adapted for producing hackneys suitable for large coach horses. This mare is sister to Bonfire, and is of the famous Dogmarsh blood on both sides. The Dogmarsh blood, through Danegelt, has produced some of the finest hackneys ever brought to America.

FIG. I.—HACKNEY MARE.

Fig. 2 gives another distinguished dam of a great family, that of Performer. She has already made herself famous through one of her colts, a Canadian champion hackney stallion.

This is a beautiful hackney mare. Her gentle, spirited head is carried high upon her long, neat neck. She has also plenty of bone to support her strong, steady muscles. Her gaiety, trim feet and legs are especially noticeable. Both these mares are imported, and may be taken as presenting the best that has been accomplished in hackney breeding.

FIG. II.—HACKNEY MARE.

The catalogues are giving unstinted praise to the new potato "Great Divide" and the "Carman No. 1." The former originated in Iowa and the latter in New Jersey.

Fast time, fast track, good time, records smashed. Are you going? National cycle meet Friday and Saturday.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Trains for the bicycle races per G. S. L. & Hot Springs railway will run every 15 minutes. Round trip, including admission 50 cents, 40 cents in 20 cents.
