THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The Labors of the City Convention at an End.

COL. LEFT NOMINATED FOR MAYOR.

R. P. Morris, for Recorder; J. R. Walden Treasurer; George H. Snow, Assessor and Collector; A. McLean, Marshal.

After the close of our report of the proceedings of the Democratic convention on Saturday evening the adjourned session was called to order in the Federal court room. Prior to the transaction of any business took the floor and said:

S. H. LYER

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen:

I rise to make a little explanation to a gentleman and a friend of mine. I have the greatest respect for Mr. Tarpey, respected countryman, and deeply regret that I should have to say what I am in my life who was more thoroughly deceived in the principles of Democracy than he. It is painful to me to be compelled to be in a position to be remarked upon the change whereby he referred to Mr. Arnold and I with the speech. The fact is, a short time ago I notified Mr. Lowe to my office and said to him: 'Lowe you will, and I know you are a true friend. I don't believe that Mr. Arnold is cut for the office, but we need a man who would make a good nominee for the position on the Democratic ticket. Now, if you will, take it and think over what I say to my friends in your district and let me know the result in the morning.' He said he would consider it, and then we had a long talk, and I thought, from what he said, that he was all right. However, I said to him, whatever my party wants me to do, I am ready to do it. I have been a Democrat, Mr. Chairman, for twenty years, and will remain in politics. These things should be taken into consideration in a gathering like this. But he harrassed the audience on the Liberal ticket, and I shall never in my power to defend him.

TERRITORIAL CHAIRMAN TERRONY

responded as follows:

I want to reply to what Mr. Dyer has said. I did my conscientious duty, with the talents I have and the sense I have. What has been said in the press, and I am informed that it was said in the meeting, I do not know. I was not there. I want to go home the peace. What I meant to say when I said Mr. Dyer, and I will say it, I was disappointed and surprised at the results of this convention, and when ever little from a man's tongue is laughable, I am sorry for the man. I forgive him, I do. (Applause.) The reason I brought this matter up, was because I felt at the time that the Liberal party would be true and true friends on equal rights. I felt I was entitled to know what sort of men their candidates for municipal was. (Applause.) I wanted to expect the results of the work, then, and at the time in possession of those men, all of which are in the representative today, I was disappointed in the treatment of myself.

Dyer said to Jenney: "I think I know your politics, but you are a Democrat?"

"Yes, I have always been a Democrat and am one now," was Jenney's reply.

"Are you so tied that you cannot accept the nomination on the Democratic ticket?"

"No, I am not; and if you say so, I will go home and tell my friends I have broken my promises and tell those people to go to the devil."

"I repeat this conversation in order to show what kind of a man this Dyer says is, and to say that he cannot get the nomination from this convention." (Prolonged cheers.)

RESOLUTIONS.

The committee on resolutions offered the following, which were received with enthusiastic demonstrations of applause:

The Democratic party of Salt Lake City in convention assembled with grieving hearts, recognizing in the Liberal party, which it believes will soon become its only formidable adversary, recognizes that it is now confronted by the Liberal party, dominated by its bosom, who are determined to hold, by the use of all possible means, control of the city government, that they may dispense its patronage and distribute its revenue, the money of the late Liberal corporation, determined to carry that city home to
