LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Y. M. M. I. A. of the Fifth ward will give a character ball in the ward meeting house Thursday evening.

The city treasury was enriched just nines fare evening, the result of the usual monthly cold snap "malaria or jab."

The police register this morning bore the following legend: Money Wanted, Mary Wheeler, C. Bradley. Describing the former, "Ten Five Dollars." That is who "she" was.

The Woman's Democratic club is making arrangements for an elaborate reception to be tendered Mrs. Bryan, presidential candidate, whoever he may be.

The Salt Lake County Medical society held a meeting last evening, about twenty members being present. Dr. Robin read an interesting paper on the grip epidemic, which was listened to with rapt attention.

It is reported that a petition will be presented to the City Council at its next meeting asking for the removal of Marshal Jennings of Officers Lund and Johnson on the ground of illegal removal.

The dons will celebrate the anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns at Christensen's hall tomorrow evening, when a fine program will be rendered, an elegant spread partaken of and the dance go on till the "wee sma' hours."

A small hail-dog was run over and killed late yesterday afternoon near the corner of Third East by a Third street car. The car did not stop, on account of passengers and gathered round the scene of mangled hound which were gathered up and carried to the cemetery.

The three of the alleged members of the "Who's Who" company, after the performance last night, went out to see "Who's Who," and proceeded to take in the electric. They deserters upon the streets at such an unusually hour so alarmed a respectable family man like Officer Ralphs that he chased the thoroughfare to see who was who. He was promptly greeted with the query "how is how?" All concerned proceeded to make history at a very alarming rate.

A milk wagon came to grief on South Temple street this morning in the neighborhood of state street. There was a big dose in dairy produce unexpected on the breaking of the reef axle, and horses took to the street in a lather fashion. The driver following in the chase regarding wagon was over with milk, refreshed and ready to indulge in a few remarks that conveyed the makers of the weather, the horses accompanying and the driver at large generally.

The transportation of nausea, by which it was made to appear that in the case of the Brown Grocery company in Mt. Hunt the former confessed judgment, and which was corrected in the "News" yesterday, has a sickly sense which gave many people the idea that the grocery company was in financial trouble. But it is not a confessed judgment against Mr. Hunt, the case going altogether in favor of the temporary and substantial company which transacts transactions required to be the plaintiff in this case.

Mr. Jos. Hatch, manager of the firm of Hatch and Sons, Salt Lake City, and President Abram Hatch, is confined at the Holy Cross hospital suffering from an attack of what was thought to be appendicitis. Doctors Richards and Fisher are in attendance upon him, and it was thought on Monday evening that an operation would be necessary, as the patient took a turn for the better, however, the operation was deferred. Mr. Hatch's many friends will hear of his illness with concern, and trust that he may recover without the need of an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins, who have been residing in Alta for some time, returned to their home near the corner of Fifth East and Twelfth South yesterday and found that unknown thieves had broken in and stolen almost their entire belongings, consisting of provisions, clothes, bedding and other things of value. Neighbors noticed lights in the house one night last week, at which time the robbery undoubtedly was committed. Mr. and Mrs. Collins feel very lonely their loss and after a trip from Alta, eight miles of which was made in snow-shoes, the discovery was enough almost to overcome them.

IMPROVEMENT IN MAIL.

Tooele Gets It, and Southern Utah Asks For It.

The petition referred to by the News in which southern portions of Southern Utah ask for a new postal route from Sulphur to St. George, via Cedar City, and also from Cedar City to Paragonah, the mail to be carried by the Utah and Pacific railway to Sulphur, has been handed to Postmaster A. L. Scott. The petitioners are Robert C. Lamoreaux of St. George, Representative John Parry of Cedar City, Representative John G. Hoggan and Joseph Commissioner L. G. Hardy of St. George, Sheriff George Hooks of St. George, E. H. Worley of Kanab and William H. Seegmiller.

The petition represents that the Utah & Pacific railway has been completed to Sulphur, thirty-seven miles from Milford, and is carrying the mails of southern Utah as far as Sulphur. From Sulphur that the mail is now carried to Cedar City and St. George and all adjacent towns in Iron and Washington counties, and the southern portion of Mohave county, Ariz., in Southern Utah, by buckboard and that the distance traveled from Milford to St. George is 147 miles. The distance from Sulphur via Cedar City to St. George is ninety miles and the petitioners accordingly ask that a new route to those cities be established, and that a schedule be so arranged that the mail will leave Sulphur one hour after the arrival of the train and be due at St. George and Cedar City in twenty hours. The change requested would be a material benefit to the people affected. An improvement in the mail service at Stockton, Tooele county, has been effected through the efforts of Postmaster Thomas. Formerly the mail left Stockton immediately upon the arrival of the train, arriving in time for the distribution of mail there but one then has been a change so as to allow necessary time for the distribution, and the mail from the train will not have to lay over a day, as heretofore.

WOMAN'S RESCUE LEAGUE.

Resolutions on Marriage or Pensions for Spinsters of This Country.

Washington Correspondent.

At a regular meeting of the Woman's Rescue League, held at their hall in this city, Saturday evening, December 31st, a resolution was offered and passed approving a memorial to Congress in favor of a national board of health with stringent quarantine and regulations to save of the alarming spread of leprosy in the United States by reason of newly acquired colonies, and danger of introducing into our ports pestilence affected with infection, and some incident to Asia and the islands of the Pacific.

A lively discussion arose when the following resolution was offered:

Resolved, that Brigham H. Roberts, elected to Congress from the state of Utah, having three living wives at the time of his election to Congress, and living in adultery with each other, in violation of a law of the second kind of legislation.

A member spoke arose and desired to know if this man had three wives, and the law allowed him but one, whether it was not in the interest of morality to save two women and their offspring poverty-cursed and thrown out upon the streets. Mr. Roberts, if he has three those women whom polygamy was the law and custom in his Territory, and he is not guilty of a felony, and he is the husband of one and protector of the other two he offends in not so serious a violation the morals of his country, and his presence on the floor of the House of Representatives would surely outnumber the members of Congress. She had heard no complaint from these wives, and did not think the subject worthy of so much time as was and would vote against the resolution.

Another member rose and said she also would vote against the resolution for the Constitution of the United States made the House of Representatives the judge of the qualifications of its own members, and she would believe the league had not right to meddle with the private affairs of members of Congress, and that morality stood so high in the minds of the country, but there were two propositions before the House, one outside of Congress now of more importance. The large surplus poverty-cursed women in every state and territory but five, that could be obtained, nationally, the spread of disease was on, increasing in virulence yearly, a source to this government. What shall be done with the surplus? Fifty per cent of the State of New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts, do not marry permanently, so statistics prove, the same with Maine for Kansas, and doing the work of our young manhood, having thousands of physical wrecks, thereby increasing the chances of marriage, for in all our large cities marriages are on the increase. In Maine, a state of wholesome homes is many because of the uncertainty of marriage, and the fear of leaving the husband, so it is in New York and Massachusetts, and the thought this evening, Mr. President, that the Congressmen from New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

The few of all the, we have a standing army of spinsters, who should be pensioned by the government. When they arrive at the age of 50, or thirteen years on one of our new islands—we will—which is unlikely—when they reach fifty years of age, or thirty years of their life, "Spinsters should be kept for those to those have should be encouraged making marriages possible by a class who can afford to marry and aren't marry should be made to marry or pay a tax for support of those who have to support her in comfort during her life. The League is more than pleased with the concern and decreasing the personal tendencies of the age that it is to recommend to the Congress of the United States, in instance, if true, but we have thousands on our ranch for the special benefit of the resolution, and we offered the following:

Resolved, that Congress be requested to enter upon a special study of the subject of every unmarried woman in the United States of good character who shall have reached the age of 50 years, which position shall be forfeited in case of the marriage of the personal.

Resolved, That a vote on the Roberts resolution be postponed until a committee of the League shall study the effect of Utah and investigate the moral condition of the state in comparison with other states, such as New Jersey and Massachusetts and other states affected with the possible contagion of polygamy, and report the result of their investigation to the Congressmen of the state of Congress of the United States.

The resolutions were passed, and the League adjourned, subject to the call of the president.

President.
