SOMETHING ABOUT STARCH.—A poor starch is a nuisance to the laundress, to the housekeeper, and to every one who has taste enough to enjoy clean linen. Not only does the lady or gentleman who suffers common starch to intrude upon their clothes deny themselves an important luxury, but they suffer in other ways, for common starch being impure, yellow, sour, or musty, discolors or destroys their linen. To satisfy any person what a pure article really is, let them try Duryeas' "Satin Gloss Starch." It is easy to use, gives a beautiful, clear finish, is snow white, and goes further than any other starch made.

A GENERAL INVITATION is extended to Hotel Restaurant keepers and others to call and examine those beautiful fresh Bear Lake Trout and Mullet on sale at Crocheron's City Fish Market. Prices to suit the times. d129 2t a BRONCHITIS.—This is an irritation or inflammation of the bronchial tubes which carry the air we breathe into the lungs. It arises from a cold settled in the throat, from Catarrh extending to these parts, from scrofulous affections, and from severe use of the voice. The irritation from this latter cause commences in the larynx and glottis, which are the organs of the voice, and, extending downwards, produces hoarseness, coughing, and spitting mucous matter, sometimes mixed with blood. It is chiefly dangerous from its tendency to spread into the lungs, and terminate in consumption. It is in the cure of severe and obstinate cases of this disease that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has achieved unparalleled success, and won the loudest praise from all who have used it.

A Debt of Gratitude.

Mrs. Mary Tait, of Elko Point, Dakota Territory, called at the World's Dispensary, August 19th, 1873, to acknowledge a debt of gratitude due Dr. Pierce, having been entirely cured of Catarrh, complicated with Throat Disease, by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Dull.—Little or no business in the police court during the past week.

Plentiful.—Lots of wind and dust to-day.

Visitors.—The number of visitors from abroad increases daily.

Tabernacle Meetings.—Religious services at the New Tabernacle tomorrow, commencing at ten and two o'clock, and in the evening at the various Ward meeting houses.

Bekanntmachung.—Keine deutsche Versammlung morgen freuh; Alle wollen dem Meeting im Tabernacle um 10 Uhr beiwohnen.

KARL G. MAESER.

The Grange Outlook. — The Grange Outlook is a new eight page weekly, published at Knoxville, Tennessee, and devoted to the farmer's grange movement.

Supreme Court.— The Supreme Court of this Territory will meet at the Court Room, City Hall, at 10 o'clock in the morning, one week from next Monday.

From San Francisco.—Mrs. Nathan Ellis, daughter of Elder Orson Hyde, was expected to reach this City to-day, from San Francisco, on a visit to her friends in this City.

From the Country.—The streets have been lined with people from the country to-day, giving the City quite a metropolitan appearance. It is probable there will be quite an attendance from the settlements at the Tabernacle to-morrow.

Dirty Flues.—Mr. Doman, chimney sweep, continues to assert very emphatically that if people would patronize his imported English sweeper, their premises would not take fire. There is probably more truth than poetry in his statement.

Ominous.—Just as people are beginning to congratulate themselves all around that "we are going to have a spell of pleasant weather now," the air commences to feel as if another storm is near, and the sky begins to have an ominously cloudy appearance.

Warm Spring Indians.—Donald MacKay expects soon to go to the eastern States with his band of Warm Spring Indians, who figured in the Modoc war, to give some kind of performances or entertainments there, similar to those he has been regaling the citizens of Oregon with. We do not suppose he will call here, as Indians can frequently be seen capering on the streets of this City, and no charge made for the sight.

District Court To-Day.—W. D. Forster vs. Frederick Rich; motion for new trial overruled; defendant excepts; proceedings under execution stayed six days.

H. Kramer vs. U. P. R. R. Co.; judgment for defendants, for costs.

Jos. Coleman vs. John N. Dramer et al; report of master in chancery confirmed; decree granted.

J. M. Goeway & Co. vs. L. J. Whitney; default and judgment.

William Jennings vs. Robert J. Golding.

Constitution Buildings.— Several alterations to meet the wants of the Spring and Summer business, have been made in the retail grocery establishment of Z. C. M. I. The glassware and crockery goods have been removed from the main compartment and reinstated on the shelves of the south wing in a very tasteful manner. The tinware is also kept in the rear part of the same division. The stoves and hollow ware department, in the north compartment, has been turned over to the wholesale department. Other alterations, to meet the wants of the public, have recently been made there.

The Utah Northern. — From a letter addressed to a gentleman of this city by Mr. George S. Kennedy, of the firm of Creighton & Co., we are permitted to extract the following items of interest. Mr. K., writing from New York under date of March 31st, says:

"I am about through here, and start for Chicago this evening, and from there to St. Louis, and then to Franklin, where I expect to remain for the season. * * * * * We have all arrangements made now to have the Utah Northern finished twenty-five miles beyond Frankling this season. The iron is bought and paid for, and also two new engines and sixteen new freight cars. They are now running from Ogden to Franklin, which is seventy-five miles. Mr. Richardson, of New York, controls the road. We are shipping a great many goods every day to Montana. —Deer Lodge, Montana, Independent.

Theatre.—There was a large and appreciative audience at the Theatre last evening, on the occasion of the benefit of Miss Adams, and the fair beneficiare and the company generally exerted themselves commendably to make the entertainment a success. The exercises of the Agile Turners were pleasing and very creditable to Professor Leotard and his pupils. Mr. Crosbie's Schneiders Ride was "immense."

This evening the powerful sensational drama of "Quits, or the Winning Hand," will be presented, with Mr. Vinson as "Longbow, the great American Tiger Tamer," Mr. Sawtelle as "Bob Thorn," Mr. Crosbie as "Joe Dorkey," Mr. Thorne as "James Anderson," Mr. Lindsay as "Hugh Madrigan," Miss Walters as "Mrs. Allen," Miss Adams as "Clara Morton," Mrs. Douglas as "Sallie."

Mr. Sawtelle's Benefit.—Monday evening next is named for the occasion of a benefit to that able and popular actor, Mr. J. Al. Sawtelle. The programme chosen is a rare and most liberal and attractive one. It consists of the new and successful sensation drama of "Bertha, the Sewing Machine Girl, or Death at the Wheel," dramatized from Street and Smith's New York Weekly story of that name; the splendid comedy of "The Married Rake;" the great military spectacle of the "Grand Review of the National Troops before the capitol at Washington, at the close of the Rebellion;" and a series of beautiful and sublime Tableaux, designed and arranged by Gen. H. A. Morrow, and entitled "A Soldier's Dream, or the Apotheosis of Our National Heroes."

This is a bill of an extraordinary character, and surely should be sufficiently to satisfy the most exacting theatregoer, especially in regard to variety and abundance. The different pieces will be produced in that superior style characteristic of the management of the Theatre, and can hardly fail of giving great satisfaction to the public at large who may patronize Mr. Sawtelle and the Theatre on the occasion.

Of Mr. Sawtelle himself we may say that he is an earnest, able, careful, intelligent actor. He has improved noticeably during his engagement, and he has grown decidedly in favor with the drama-loving public since he made his debut upon the Salt Lake boards. There is no doubt that on Monday he will have a full and appreciative house, as an evidence of the esteem in which he is held in his professional character.

Multifarious.—A gentleman with Yankee proclivities for usefulness, an old resident of the Territory, for pastime, jotted down some of the various businesses he has been engaged in, at different times, in Utah. Here is the result:

bull-whacker,	photographer,
nail-maker,	book-keeper,
excavator,	molasses-maker,
carpenter and builder,	hod carrier,
farmer,	herdsman,
railway contractr,	preacher,
soldier,	merchant,
butcher,	bridge-builder,
speculator,	cook,
editor,	typesetter,
engraver,	artist,
gardener.	house-painter,

That man would be valuable in any community.

We have frequently heard from the "oldest inhabitant," and now comes the "most generally useful inhabitant."

That Real Estate Affair.—Yesterday we alluded to a little affair in real estate. It was a peculiar affair that. We learned to-day that the document involved was not a warrantee deed but a mortgage, and, what is more, that mortgage was duly recorded on the books of the County Recorder. It so happened, very singularly, of course, that all of the parties to this little transaction either have been or are connected with the real estate business. We will go still further and say that an attempt was made to negotiate a loan on that same mortgage, but the thing came out before the game was fully played. The bona fide owner of the lot discovered that somebody had been ostensibly mortgaging his lot to somebody else for the sum of $1,000.

We advise everybody in general to look out for land sharks. There are quite a number of them around this City, and have been for a considerable time, and we have taken occasion sometimes to allude to them and their schemes. We advise people to be exceedingly careful about whom they do business with in that line, and if anybody burns his fingers after being thus advised, it will serve him right. We believe we have all the facts connected with the affair in question, its origin, &c.

Before lending money on a mortgage or other such document they should get a transcript of the record of the property involved, and thus be assured as to the validity of the title.

Many unthinking people have borrowed money and given mortgage deeds on their homes, which is a most foolish proceeding under almost any circumstances, as the main object of many land sharks is to so involve the owners of real estate as to get their property at a small consideration. These are not in reality, bona fide, real estate agents, but land grabbers, who are after the hard earned homes of the people.

Beware of land sharks.

Adjourned.—The Third District Court adjourned this afternoon till the 18th day of May.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

In the House of Representatives, April 20, Mr. Poland offered a resolution reciting the conflict of authority between the United States courts and the Territorial courts of Utah, and that the enforcement of the laws has been delayed and obstructed, and directing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill for the regulation of legal jurisdiction of the courts and officers in Utah. Adopted.

The following are from the Washington Capital of April 19—

We are beginning to suspect that old Moses was something of a fraud. We would not dare say this had not Brother Newman of China and the chimes gone back on the patriarchs generally.

It will be recollected that the peripatetic Newman went among the Mormons with missionary views, but neither his eloquence nor eloquence could make a sinner of a single saint. He returned and told us all about them—that is, all that was fit to be told—and his wife delivered a lecture at the same time "to ladies only," which must have embraced some things not fit to be told, at least to men as modest as we are. The smiling Colfax also visited them, and he must have been contaminated, for it was afterwards that he went where the woodbine twineth.

The Hon. McKee of Illinois, but representing a peculiar African district in Mississippi, is not happy. He belongs to the modern school of statesmen who have flocked up in swarms from the sunny South and taken the places of the Calhouns, Prentisses and Bentons of the days of yore. A school whose cardinal article of faith—it has no cardinal virtue, except it make one of necessity—is greed and self-aggrandizement, and whose least concern is for the good of the commonwealth. The Hon. McKee was conspicuous, in the early days of the session, for clinging to the salary grab with a deathless grasp, and arguing how insignificant a compensation of $7,500 per annum really was for his congressional services. On Wednesday this legislative pumpkin-head disclosed the corroding grievance of his heart. The door-keeper of the House of Representatives will not respond to his demands. He can get no patronage. He wants offices for his friends and henchmen. He insists upon a division of the spoils. He darkly insinuates there is a ring, and he isn't in it. Something must be done. The Mississippi statesman must be conciliated—or he will have bi-ud.

The commissioner of Internal Revenue has received a letter from the supervisor of North Carolina containing a history of violence by a band of thirty disguised men towards a witness for the government in some revenue cases. They shot at the man and his wife, and, after driving both out of the house, tore it down. Threats were made to kill witnesses for the government "in spite of hell."—Washington Star, April 18.
