DESERET EVENING NEWS.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Elder Albert J. Sears and President Geo. Q. Cannon the Speakers at the Tabernacle Yesterday.

Services as usual were held in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon. President of Stake Angus M. Cannon presiding.

Choir sang the hymn:

What was witnessed in the heavens?
Why, an angel embassed bound.

Prayer was offered by Elder Orson A. Woolley.

Choir sang:

Jesus, name of wonder sweet,
Now in glory comes to earth.

ELDER ALBERT J. SEARS,

a recently returned missionary from London, addressed the congregation. The people of the world, said he, generally speaking believe there is a Savior, but that is about the extent of their belief, until the Elders of the Church come into their midst preaching faith, repentance and baptism. The wonderful the humble missionary generally among thought in their minds, and then they begin to examine themselves and are led to look back upon their past career, and believe that they are fit subjects for repentance. The essentiality of baptism to salvation, however, is something that they cannot understand. Even the Baptists who baptize by immersion will not believe them. They ask what will become of the untold numbers that died without further? The answer given is a question from the Scriptures whereby it is said: "Where there is no law, there is no transgression" because transgression is the result of the disobedience of law.

The speaker was very favorably impressed with the spirit manifest amongst the people with whom he had associated. Much prejudice was allayed and great success attended his labors; in fact, the Gospel has been received so kindly by the people that other denominations became somewhat jealous and did all in their power to ridicule the Saints and to stir up prejudice by delivering illustrated lectures. Notwithstanding this opposition the Elders are kindly received and the Gospel is being introduced into houses which a few years ago were closed against the messengers of life and salvation.

PRESIDENT GEORGE Q. CANNON was the next speaker. He remarked being mainly on the conditions that were at present existing among the Laboring Saints.

The story sung the sentiment:

Rest, rest, my soul,
Angels watch are standing.

Benediction was pronounced by President Joseph F. Smith.

LAID TO REST.

All That Was Mortal of Mrs. Richard Mackintosh Consigned to Mother Earth.

A host of sympathizing friends assembled at the Mackintosh house at 2 p.m. yesterday to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased, Mrs. Richard Mackintosh, whom in life they had learned to love and honor.

The services were conducted by the Rev. M. Ridgley, of St. Paul's Cathedral, who performed the simple Episcopal rites, after which a solo, "The Beautiful City," was pathetically rendered by Mr. Hal. Brigham, accompanied by Mrs. Hamilton. The interment was private and took place at Mount Olivet cemetery, where the burial service was read by Rev. Ridgley. The following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. Charles Reed, R. C. Chambers, James Gallagher, C. C. Godwin, J. E. Dealy, John Morrisel, A. Hausser and James Gwedinning.

MERCUR BUSHING AHEAD.

Bright Prospects at the Sunshine—Golden Gate Waste Only Earried Sun.

MERCUR, Dec. 22.—This camp is making rapid strides. Hotel accommodations are meager. Several large buildings are in course of erection and will soon be opened for the traveling public. The First Bank of Mercur is about ready for occupancy. It is next door to the Mercur hotel on Main street. The lower town is growing fast—this part is in the city proper. Down the canyon is still another started by the "boomers" and it vide fair to become quite a town. Lots in Mercur that sold last spring for $75 are now sold for $500 to $2,000 each. Every indication points to this being a very lively place when spring opens.

The Sunshine, which is situated about five miles in the southeast, is getting into shape, and it is rivaling with the Old Camp; some think it has mines equally has good when properly developed.

Notice has been given by the Golden Gate people that none but married men will be employed after the first of the year.

Two men came very near losing their lives on Friday while excavating for a building at the head of Main street. A large cave struck them, and they were uncovered with some bruises on their bodies.

A great amount of assessment work is now going on along the mines. The owners of the water system have a lawsuit; hotel and livery men have a good thing; peddlers are so thick as "nasty pudding," and prices range low for all kinds of produce and merchandise. The Mercur Railway is doing a big business.

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the one mile and rack, in which McCaughey finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. Then came the trots race, Joe Lee taking second in the course, Pawtucket taking second, and Thatcher third in a close scratch, race 3, all "Ramblers" in the pole. In the half mile race, Joe Lee took second, Pawtucket third, Thatcher fourth. Race 5, Thatcher second, Joe Lee third, Pawtucket fourth. In the race a mile to a pacer, Joe Lee led and led, Pawtucket and Weber being immediately behind and hanging on the heels of Joe Lee, Pawtucket and Weber finishing in a close race, Joe Lee winning the race and the pacer. And the race left for Evans. Joe Lee in the lead, Weber second, Pawtucket third. In the second event, Joe taking first, Joe Rack second and Pawtucket third. Pawtucket gets 2c on Joe's play in good enough for one day.

There's one thing that people may not know, and that they don't know it, that Rambler Bicycles are the best. Experience of our customers proves it.

Mind—for a Rambler. Ride a wheel and you'll be a winner.
