SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES

H. E. Phelps has and Does Sell

A better class of goods, to patrons of limited means, than any other house in the city. He believes in giving the hard working person the benefit of his money in every sense of the word.

He has a splendid assortment of ladies', misses', and children's real beaver cloaks, which he will sell from $8 to $15 each, and warrant every one. It is certainly a good opportunity to get a good article for a small price. These are facts known by one who well understands business and the quality of goods.

If the writer of the above special notice will call around I will make him a present of a lady's nice, beaver coat. H. E. PHELPS

To the Public

We will continue to sell our goods at the low closing out prices until the 24th inst., when we will cease selling at retail, and prepare the balance then on hand for the final closing out Auction Trade sales, December 28 and 30. The stock will be put up in job lots and sold without limit or reserve.

"THERE is REASON in all THINGS."

It is reasonable to conclude, that Benson's Capcine Plasters, having received the highest and only award at the Centennial Exposition, over all other plasters, having secured the universal praise of the highest medical authority in the world, must possess unusual merit. Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster was invented to overcome the slow action of the ordinary porous plasters, the only objection ever found to this otherwise popular remedy. They relieve pain at once, and cure quickly diseases which other plasters will not even relieve. They strengthen weak backs, cure rheumatism, spinal and kidney affections, sciatica, lumbago, neuralgia, pains in the back, hips and sides. Persons easily affected by change of weather should wear these constantly during the winter season, as they are a sure preventive of colds. Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cts.

LAME BACK. Immediate relief by use of Benson's Capcine Plaster.

FRAUD—BEWARE! THERE ARE FRAUDULENT and Worthless imitations of Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster in the market. Some of them contain dangerous mineral poisons. Each genuine Benson's Capcine Plaster has the word Capcine cut through it. Take no other.

Fifteen Hundred

MASON & HAMLIN ORGANS, sold in this Territory, speak loudly of their superior excellence and great durability. All the leading musicians in the Territory have so decided, by preferring them, over all others, for their own use. The demand for them is greater than ever.

THE Professional Indorsement which has been accorded by leading medical men in various parts of the country to Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, is a sufficient guaranty of its efficacy in eradicating diseases of the breathing organs. These gentlemen have thoroughly tested the remedy, and their concurrent testimony is to the effect that it is a positive specific for lung, bronchial and throat affections of every description, and a most reliable preventive of that dreaded scourge, consumption. Druggists sell it.

A Man Walks from Newark, N.J., to New York.

Some weeks since, a man came into the store, No. 7 Sixth Avenue, New York, inquiring for Mr. Crittenton, to whom he was shown. He appeared to be very much excited, and immediately commenced to tell a story of how his wife had suffered from an affection of the lungs, and, in fact, had been given up by the physicians to die. Through some friend she was induced, as a last resort, to try Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, and using here her husband's language, he said, "Before she had used one bottle she could breathe with more ease; and by the time she had used six bottles she was up and around the house, able to do her own work." The man took the pains to come in person and thank the present proprietor of this popular article for a perfect cure of his wife. Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is for sale by all druggists, at 50 cents and $1. Large size the most economical. Depot, Crittenton's, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York City.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer.—To-day, 1 o'clock p. m., the thermometer noted 41 degrees F. in the shade. Clear.

An Old Friend.—Hon. J. C. Rich, of Bear Lake, is paying Salt Lake a brief visit, while on his way to Boise City, to represent his constituents of the north in the Idaho Legislature. We bid him welcome. "Saxey" has many friends in Salt Lake.

The Hutchison Family.—A good house greeted the second appearance of the Hutchisons, last night. The performance in merit was about on a par with that of Wednesday evening, though more variety being introduced made whole more appreciable.

Blow for Blow.—The buildings in this town should be built with extraordinary strength to withstand the assaults of the wind.—Ogden Junction.

True, O Junction; therefore, beware how ye enhance the impending danger.

From Fillmore.—Among the genial faces from the country, recognizable behind the rainbow tints spread over them by the weather, we were pleased to notice that of our old-time acquaintance, Dan Olsen, the pioneer fiddler of Utah. He reports affairs at home as quiet and peaceable. He returns next week.

The Freaks of Eolus.—Some one was trying to raise the wind, last night, and succeeded admirably. If there were no roofs raised, it will be a matter of pleasant surprise. We learn that a number of the telegraph poles between here and Ogden were laid low, by the "blustering railer." Farmington not heard from.

The Toy House.—The toy house made by Brother Walter Reynolds, is now on exhibition at Z. C. M. I., and is quite the centre of attraction. With a brilliant coating of paint, and an elegant finishing and furnishing, outside and in, it presents a unique and engaging appearance. It will be in the show window to-night.

Dramatic Entertainment.—There was rather a slim attendance at the 11th Ward School-house last night. The play of "The Serf," the olio and the farce of "Nan, the Good for Nothing," were excellently rendered by the Salt Lake Amateur Dramatic Company, every member of which acquitted himself in a most creditable manner. The audience, though small, were highly entertained.

Another of us Gone.—We are now called upon to chronicle the marriage of our esteemed friend and fellow-laborer, Brother Samuel P. Richards, of this office, who was yesterday united in the holy bonds of wedlock, to Miss E. Fredonia Alexander, daughter of Brother Horace Alexander, of Provo. Elder Joseph F. Smith performed the ceremony that made the happy twain, one. We congratulate both on the important and praiseworthy event. Health, wealth, and happiness!

The Coming Event.—The next theatrical event will take place next Tuesday evening, Dec. 17th; on which occasion a grand dramatic and variety entertainment will be given for the benefit of the New Tabernacle. The Thespian Club of the 21st Ward will present one of their favorite temperance dramas. This will be followed by an olio, in which many local favorites will appear, and it is also understood that the Sixth Ward Dramatic Association will appear in one of their laughable farces.

The purpose is a worthy one, and the performance should be well patronized.

An Opening for All.—Persons out of employment, may find an "opening" this evening, at Z. C. M. I. All day long the grocery window has been closely curtained, while preparations were going on inside, for the evening display. The fruits of an Eden, the sweets of Arcadia, and the spices of the Orient are temptingly arranged in the most ingenious and attractive manner. The window is supposed to have been dressed by St. Nicholas, but the Marks of St. Stephen are everywhere apparent. The fact is, Steve knows how to dress a window, and Z. C. M. I. knows how to provide the essentials.

Gross Exaggerations.—It would seem that there are a number of persons in this community engaged in creating needless alarm. If the remarks attributed to some medical practitioners, desirous, perhaps, of impressing their hearers with the importance of themselves and their practice, were to be credited, it would at once be inferred that our city was one vast hospital, and the very air heavy with the putrid germs of pestilence. Of one it is said, "he has 300 cases of diphtheria under treatment," of another, "he has 200," while still another has more cases on his hands than he can possibly attend to.

The city sexton's death reports have even been questioned by those who are so anxious to make the sickness and mortality of this city greater, than it really is. This is very foolish, and evinces a pitiable ambition in those whose vanity or perverseness induces them to employ such means of gaining notoriety.

Sunday School Jubilee.—From a Huntsville correspondent we learn that on Sunday afternoon, the 8th inst., a Sunday School jubilee was held in the school house at that place, at which the various schools at Huntsville were represented. Brothers Goddard, Willis, and Evans, of Salt Lake were present; also Supts. Ballantyne and Stowel, of Ogden.

After the opening exercises a few moments were occupied by Brother Willis. The following programme was then carried out: "Sabbath School Welcome," a song by the Huntsville school; Administering of the Sacrament; reading of minutes, etc.; "Articles of Faith," recited jointly by the schools of Eden and Huntsville; song "An Angel from on High," by Misses Lizzie Hislop and Adelaide Bronson, assisted by the choir; "Strong Drink," a recitation by E. H. Anderson; "Word of Wisdom," recited by a class of girls of the Huntsville school; "What it is to be a Saint," a recitation by Miss Hulda Wordon, and the "Effects of Strong Drink," a recitation by Nephi Nelson. Brothers Willis and Goddard then sang "The Good Boy's Resolve," after which Brothers Evans and Goddard addressed the schools and occupied the remainder of afternoon. The jubilee was continued in the evening, when, among other things, a class of young men recited the "Rules of the United Order;" followed by a song, "Sabbath School Army," by the Huntsville school; "Immortality," recitation by Miss Christine Peterson; "Chastity," a recitation, by Miss Matilda Felt; and "Have Courage My Boy to say No," a song by Chas. Wright.

Supts. Ballantyne and Eggleston, and Bishops Terrin and Hammond also addressed the congregation, expressing their delight with the exercises they had witnessed, and giving some very interesting instructions.

Fire near Ogden.—We learn from the Junction, the particulars of an extensive fire that occurred last night, at Mound Fort, within the corporate limits of Ogden City, about half a mile north of the river. About 8 p. m., the roof of the Mound Fort School-house was discovered to be in flames. The alarm was immediately sounded and word sent to the fire department. The brigade, arriving, could find no water in the vicinity, so, for a time their apparatus was rendered useless. The flames, in the meantime, fanned by the wind, which was blowing a perfect gale, had gained fearful headway. Blazing masses were carried into the air, and with showers of sparks distributed over the neighborhood, westward. By this means, the stacks of Mr. Simon Barker, half a block distant, took fire, and with the stables, fences and other surroundings, were soon reduced to cinders. The large barn and stacks of Mr. Ambrose Shaw were also ignited by the flying sparks, and burned to the ground. The devouring element still swept westward, and it is feared, carried destruction to the willows, trees and stacks of Mill Creek and adjacent fields.

The wind was so fierce that when water was obtained, it was blown into a spray from the nozzle of the hose and thus rendered ineffective. At midnight, the fire had abated, insomuch that no fears of a further spread were entertained.

Nothing remains of the schoolhouse but the stone walls. The entire loss by the fire has not yet been ascertained.

The cause is supposed to have been flying sparks from fire left in the schoolhouse stove, by persons who had just held a meeting in the building.

Incendiarism or What?—The Junction informs us of an incipient blaze that occurred last Wednesday night at the the house of Mrs. Larson, Spring Street, Ogden. On returning home from an entertainment, on the evening mentioned, she found one of her beds on fire. Her screams brought to the scene Mr. Hyrum Goodale, who succeeded in extinguishing the flames, before much damage was done. Mrs. Larsen had locked her door before going out, but on her return found the house open and a lamp taken therefrom standing on the gate post.

Another Union.—Yesterday, Mr. Myron Newell, of Provo, became the husband of Miss Alice Smoot, daughter of President A. O. Smoot, of that place. Elder Joseph F. Smith officiated at the marriage. We commend the bridegroom's choice, as well as the lady's. They both doubtless, reason when they were doing. Long life and prosperity.

MARRIED.

In this city on Thursday, Dec. 12, 1878, by Prest. D. H. Wells, Miss Lucy F. Smith, daughter of Job and Jane S. Smith, to Mr. William Platt of Brigham City.
