NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Chinese Laundryman Discovered Almost Decapitated at Denver.

ACCIDENT TO A COUPLE OF MINERS.

Shocking Death of a Five-Year-Old Girl.—A Salesman's Suicide.—Jealousy and Arson.

The residence of John Handman, of Mendon, Cache county, was burglarized a few days since and a valuable lot of jewelry stolen.

John H. Lambdin, a boyish salesman in the employ of Daniels & Fisher, at Denver, shot himself to death in a reception room on the main floor of the store on Tuesday afternoon.

While being drawn up in the cage at the J. C. Johnson mine at Aspen, Colo., on Tuesday evening J. Read's left arm was caught between the cage and the shaft and almost torn from the shoulder. His injuries may result fatally.

Frank Polon, a miner on the Gray Eagle mine at Leadville, Colo., was very badly hurt on Tuesday afternoon. He was crossing near a chute when he slipped and fell a distance of fifty feet, fracturing his right thigh and right arm.

At his preliminary hearing on Tuesday Jacob Witz confessed to setting fire to a house last Friday morning at Del Norte, Col., and went to jail in default of $2000 bail. His motive was jealousy of an inmate of the house, with whom he was infatuated, having taken up with another man.

Mayor Van Horn has been overwhelmed with letters advocating the stopping of the sale of city property for collection of city taxes, says the Denver Times. I. P. Porter and other prominent realty dealers are importuning the mayor to act quickly. The mayor requested the city attorney to pass upon the matter last week and got a negative opinion from him.

E. A. Bliven, the oldest locomotive engineer on the Central Pacific, visited Reno yesterday, remarks the Reno (Nevada) Journal. He took charge of an engine in January, 1868, on the Humboldt division, and ran on the road until a year ago, when his hearing became defective. He handled the lever of a locomotive for thirty-two years of his life and never had a serious accident.

On Sunday Sheriff Charles Fraser received a dispatch from Rock Springs requesting him to arrest a Chinaman on the arrival of No. 3 in the city, says the Laramie Boomerang. A deputy sheriff went down to the train, found the man and took him to the county jail. The prisoner was taken to Rock Springs on the afternoon train. The Chinaman is charged with bunkoing a white man at Rock Springs out of several hundred dollars.

On Tuesday night a fatal accident occurred near the Rio Grande Western depot at Kaysville. W. J. Barnes and W. R. Payne were returning home from Salt Lake in a wagon, and they reached the spot indicated when the team suddenly turned throwing Barnes out. He struck on his neck, and his neck was broken. He never spoke. Deceased was one of the early settlers of Kaysville, and seventy-four years of age. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss.

Lloyd Whiting, a Lupton, Colo., physician, struck town Sunday afternoon with a "jag" of fair proportions, says the Leader, and landed in the city jail. Early next morning a policeman noticed that the man was breathing profusely. A doctor was at once called in. He discovered that the prisoner had made a vicious attempt at suicide, having stabbed himself three times with a case knife, one of the wounds being quite serious.

When Governor McConnell arrived here this morning, says a dispatch from Montpelier, Idaho, of the 13th inst., he found the city council and others, with the city band, waiting to receive him. Proceeding to Bennington with a delegation from this place they found an ovation awaiting them. The platform and buildings were decorated with flags, bunting and flowers. Governor McConnell spoke upon irrigation and the matter of calling an extra session of the legislature.

Last Friday night Sam Ray, a blacksmith at the railroad shops of Carson, Nevada, received his wages and was not again heard from till Tuesday morning when he was found near Franktown, between Carson and Reno, dressed in overalls and jumper with a ticket from Reno to Carson in his pocket. It is believed that he was drugged in some saloon, robbed, driven to Reno, his good clothes taken away and then shipped to Carson. He was probably under the influence of the drug when he got off the cars at Franktown.

A fatal accident occurred at the ranch of H. Springmeyer, at Carson, Nevada, on Sunday afternoon. It seemed that the nine-year-old son of Mr. Springmeyer found a shotgun in the barn containing powder, but no shot. The boy procured some shot and placed it in the gun. While imitating men shooting at birds in the presence of his little five-year-old sister the gun was accidentally discharged, as the boy claims, and the charge of shot struck the girl in the chin, tearing away the whole side of her face. Doctors were promptly summoned but could afford no relief. The child lingered, in great agony, until 5 o'clock next morning.

On Tuesday evening ex-Sheriff "Red" Angus, proprietor of the Occidental hotel at Buffalo, Wyo., shot "Arapahoe" Brown in the left breast on the sidewalk in front of the hotel. The trouble grew out of a board bill of $2.50, which Brown repudiated, reporting he would settle by thrashing Angus. The two parties meeting, Angus demanded payment of the account, which Brown refused, and in the ensuing altercation Angus fired two shots, one taking effect. Angus gave himself up and at the preliminary hearing waived examination. He was bound over to the district court. The bullet in Brown's chest has not yet been recovered and although the wound will apparently be harmless, it may result seriously.

Li Yet Chung, a laundryman, was found on Tuesday morning lying in a pool of blood with his throat cut from ear to ear, in a room back of his brother's store in Market street, Denver, says the News of that city. He had either been fairly butchered to death by a fiendishly cold blooded assassin, or in self murder had exhibited a nerve and resolution almost incredible to the human mind. The wound was a frightful one, almost severing the head from the body, and cutting the wind pipe, jugular vein, carotid arteries and a number of smaller blood vessels. It extended nearly three-fourths of the way round the neck, and to drive the knife to such a depth along such a space required a force that it seemed almost impossible for a man to exert on himself. The matter is being investigated.
