SUICIDE IN CHURCH.

A Young Woman Takes Her Life in the Confessional Box.

WOUNDS INFLICTED WITH A RAZOR

She Was a Religious Enthusiast—No Other Cause for the Rash Act Given.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Drama proceeding from an isolated confessional took to the church of the Epiphany at 4 o'clock this morning started the parishioners. An investigation disclosed the almost lifeless body of a young woman, with blood flowing from her right wrist, and in twenty minutes after the discovery, she was dead.

Bodie her by a razor with which she had almost severed one of her hands, and her throat had been cut from ear to ear. A letter in her pocket gave her identity as Catherine Morrison. The letter was addressed to Mary Powers, the wife of an expressman.

From Mrs. Powers it was learned Miss Morrison was a religious enthusiast, but no cause for her rash act was known. She was 21 years of age, handsome and was worth $45,000, her father had been a prosperous broker. Both the women's parents have been dead several years.

The Debs Case.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—Judge Grosscup's rule in the Debs case that but one attorney for the defendants shall cross-examine witnesses led to trouble today, and should the verdict be against the defendants, it will play a leading part in an appeal.

Several firemen and engineers of the Illinois Central gave evidence against defendants Cooper and McDonald, who urged them to leave their engines and threatened them with personal violence if they did not do so.

C. O'Shea, an Illinois Central special policeman, testified to the cutting of the semaphore wires at Harvey, and the arrest of Taylor, Duffy and McMull in the act of cutting the wires.

"Colonel" Jacob S. Coxey was present at the trial and occupied a chair on the platform with the court. Coxey entered the court room about 11 o'clock, was introduced to the clerk and District Attorney Black and Judge Grosscup.

WAR NEWS.

Capture of Wei Hai Wei—China Buys Guns.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—An official dispatch received here today gives particulars of the capture of Wei Hai Wei by the Japanese. The dispatch says that the second army and the fleet attacked Wei Hai Wei on the morning of Wednesday last and by evening all the land forts were captured.

The Japanese house of representatives yesterday unanimously resolved to concur in the war expenses irrespective of time or of amount.

HONG KONG, Feb. 1.—Gen. Fung is going to march from Kwang Tung with 6,000 troops to assist Viceroy Chang in the defense of Nan King. General Fung was one of the Chinese officers who fought in Annamaigo against the French.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—A dispatch from Berlin to the Standard says it is reported there that China has bought guns and war material to the value of 6,000,000 marks from Herr Krupp. The crews of the steamers that will convey this material to China receive triple wages on account of the danger.

A dispatch from Chee Foo says the bombardment of the island of Liu Kung Tao, off Wei Hai Wei, has been resumed. The Chinese are replying steadily. The Japanese appear to avoid firing at the Chinese fleet with a view of capturing it undamaged.

Looking for the Brigands.

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 1.—The bandits who held up the westbound overland near Wilcox are still at large and the whole southern part of the territory is being scoured for them.

The amount taken from the Wells Fargo is not exactly known, but it is believed will exceed $50,000. About 5,000 of the Mexican dollars have been recovered by the Wells Fargo agent at Wilcox.

Railroad President Arrested.

SOLOMONVILLE, Ariz., Feb. 1.—P. Sullivan, who built a board sidewalk on the track of the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern railway last Monday, and another Wednesday, was before Justice Parks here today on two charges of placing obstructions on the railroad. He was held on both cases in $500 bonds, to appear at the next district court.

Yesterday Sullivan went before a justice of the peace and swore out a warrant for the arrest of President Garland of the railway company, for trespass for running trains through his lands without permission. The Garland trial comes up tomorrow.

Theft of the Fair Will.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—The grand jury is investigating the theft from the county clerk's office of the late James G. Fair's will. Several members of the grand jury believe that some deputy in the county clerk's office either committed the theft or knows the thief. The police department has been unable to discover the faintest clew and has confessed itself nonplussed.

DIED FOR THE EDITOR.

Neidher's Death Recalls a Remarkable Incident.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 1.—Moritz Neidher, founder of the first evening German newspaper in the West, died here today, aged 70 years, after a protracted illness. At the time of the breaking out of hostilities between the North and South Mr. Neidner published the State Journal, a secession paper, in this city.

For the publication of a seditious article he was arrested by the Federal troops stationed here and his paper confiscated. A court martial found him guilty of treason and sentenced him to be shot. A reporter who signed the paper gave himself up, confessed himself to be the author of the treasonable article. Neidner was released and the young man suffered death in his place.

As Seen in Europe.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The Gazette will say tomorrow: President Cleveland's message appears to be wise and statesmanlike. As the law stands it is the clear duty of a large sum should be borrowed in Europe, as there is doubt respecting the President's ability to contract to pay gold. This would be fatal to any projected loan. Money can always be had at a price, but the government of the United States can not act as it was bankrupt. Its credit would stand as high as that of any country in the world if Congress would only do its duty.

If the present Congress does not act it is greatly feared that it will in vain to appeal to the new Congress, which it is to be called together a crisis will probably have occurred.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Special Attention to Be Given to Utah Now.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 1.—The session of this morning's session of the Woman Suffragist's convention was a sharp attack on the Rev. J. R. Hawthorn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Atlanta, by the Rev. Anna Shaw, of Pittsburg. She arose in a question of personal privilege, holding in her hand a copy of a morning paper.

"I desire," she said, "to call attention to an error in this paper in the statement that I referred to Mr. Hawthorn when I mentioned that some one had said that women ought not to vote because they were not taxed. I did not refer to Mr. Hawthorn. I did not answer Dr. Hawthorn. No lady will attempt to answer him. She can't descend to that plane."

Mrs. Taylor Upton read her report as treasurer, showing a surplus on hand of over $500, and some $5000 received during the year.

In behalf of the committee on plan of work, Mrs. Caroline Chapman-Catt reported a recommendation for raising $5,000 for carrying on the work, and that special attention be given South Carolina, Utah and Tennessee, where constitutional conventions will probably soon be held, and Idaho and Michigan, where female suffrage amendments will be submitted to the people.

A course of study similar to the International Sunday school lessons was also recommended.

A subscription was at once taken up and $2,000 of the $5,000 asked for was raised.

JUDGE PHILLIPS'S COMPLAINT.

Newspapers and Stumpspeakers Usurp the Privileges of Courts.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 2.—At the annual banquet of the local association, Federal Judge F. Phillips, taking to "The Press and the Bench," complained that newspapers frequently usurped the privileges of the courts and tried cases in their columns before the facts had been heard by the jurors. He said that many irresponsible papers and blatant political stumpspeakers tried to convey the impression that judges and officials were corrupt—in other words, that they all had their price. Men sitting upon the bench were accused of being the tools of corporations because they happened to decide cases in their favor, no consideration being given to the thousands of cases in which the poor were the suitors over railway corporations.

In concluding his remarks, Judge Phillips stated that notwithstanding the criticisms of the press he would stand with one hand on the Constitution and the other on his conscience and would do his duty under the law.

Surrendered the Plant.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 2.—H. Kernochan, one of the largest planters in the state and a prominent politician, on account of financial troubles due to a failure to receive the sugar bounty, has surrendered to his mortgagees his fine sugar plant at Belmedon, a few miles from New Orleans. The plantation is one of the best in the state and made 2,000,000 pounds of sugar last year, on which bounty to the amount of $40,000 is due.

The Coin Was Genuine.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The police last night took one Jas. Hart, of Defiance, O., into custody on a charge of attempting to pass a counterfeit Mexican dollar. The coin had all the appearance of a counterfeit. When Officer Ryan brought his prisoner to Captain Pettit, of the secret service, he was surprised and the prisoner was delighted to hear the captain say that the coin was genuine.

"They have not the finished appearance of a U. S. coin," said the captain, "and there are quite a number of them circulating among Chicago at the present time. The parties who brought them here make some money out of the transaction for they were taken for 35 cents while their worth is only that of the metal, about 40 cents. I have frequent complaints of the coin being counterfeit, but I have found all genuine that have been submitted to me."

Hart says he will enter a suit against the city for false imprisonment.

For Stealing Gloves.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 2.—Six boys ranging in age from 8 to 15 years have been arrested here for stealing gloves from the firm of the Union Mercantile company's store. The leader is 15 years old and has been in jail twenty times. The boys were marched to Justice Hoit's court, where they were each sentenced to sixty days in jail.

JOHN HENO DEAD.

One of the First Train Robbers in the United States.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Feb. 2.—John Heno is dead. He was one of the first train robbers in the United States, and was a daring individual. Heno's first theft was from his father. He stole a fine horse and sold it at Jeffersonville, Ind. In September, 1866, the Adams Express company's car on the Pennsylvania road was robbed of express matter valued at $60,000. The thieves entered through a side door and pulling the bell rope, stopped the train. Heno was later arrested for robbing the Joplin, Mo., treasury of $45,000. He was for the first in the Missouri state prison for twenty years but was pardoned by Governor Brown.

Heno entered the United States service during the war and served his country well. While while in the Missouri prison he was barrelled in the receiving department for shipment to parts outside the walls of the prison but each time the scheme was detected and he was returned to prison. He never forgave the men who by force caused the existence of his brothers, who were hanged for train robbery.

Died Rich.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—Frederick Ambrose, aged 30 years, died at the county hospital last night. He was addicted to the use of opium and the habit, combined with Bright's disease, causes his death. Just before he died his sister arrived from Boston having searched for him all over the United States. She announced to him that he had been left an estate valued at $250,000 last November by his aunt, Mrs. E. Jeffreys, of Boston. He died the day after his sister's arrival, having first made over to her all his interest in the property.

The Rising in Honolulu Fully Suppressed.

HONOLULU, Jan. 19, via Auckland, N. Z., Feb. 2.—The rising here proved a fiasco. After the first sings were the rebels scattered. Wilcox, Noelio, Bertelman and the other leaders were captured while in hiding in the vicinity of Honolulu. They are being tried for treason. A search was made of the residence of ex-Queen Liliuokalani and stores of arms and a number of dynamite bombs were discovered. The ex-queen was arrested. Order has been restored.

HEART DISEASE.

Fluttering, No Appetite, Could not Sleep, Wind on Stomach.

"For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
