TUTT'S PILLS
TORPID BOWELS and DISORDERED LIVER.
From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, a feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work, and are a perfect ANTIDOTE to MALARIA.

CORRESPONDENCE.

BEES AND THEIR PRODUCT.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 11, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

Now is the time to look out for the

BUSY BEES,

or they will leave for parts unknown to the owners. Eight natural swarms have already been cast in one apiary in Davis County, and by the watchful owner have all been captured and made satisfied with their new homes; and, with their usual industry, have set to with a will to gather in the thousands of pounds of healthy sweets that otherwise would go to waste. Only think of from 15,000 to 20,000 of the little pets being thus engaged in each swarm—for this is the number of a good colony, including one queen, a few hundred drones, or male bees, the balance of the swarm being female workers, all of whom work for nothing and board themselves. And yet they are in very many cases.

This spring has been very favorable and early in this vicinity; hence look out for early swarming. Every watchful bee man has his hives cleaned and prepared for and has overhauled his colonies, seeing that they are not queenless, and where weak has strengthened them up with extra brood. And as now is the time when they use up supplies as food rearing their young brood, where they are short of stores they should be supplied with combs of honey from other hives where there is a surplus, by exchanging frames; or they may be fed, if found necessary, with sugar, diluted with water to the consistency of their honey. Care should be taken in feeding, so as not to drown the eager little folks. Little sticks may be placed in the sweet on a tin plate, and this arranged under the cap of the hive.

EARLY SWARMING,

Great care must be taken or

will be induced to rob even their best friends. Any opening or crack except the usual entrance, which should not be too large at present, unless the colony is quite strong, should be closed, then they can take care of themselves. Weak swarms are in the most danger. Plenty of pollen or bee bread is gathered now, and some honey from orchards and other bloom, but next month is likely to be much better.

From 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. is the most likely time for bees to cast their swarms, but often in hot weather they will issue earlier and later in the day. Almost invariably, the bees send out their scout in advance to hunt a home, which in our timberless country is difficult to find. When a swarm of bees conclude to depart they will fly around in the air in a circle, until all of them with their leader are ready, and go directly to their new location without alighting. Generally, though, they are inclined to alight, and sometimes remain for hours before they leave; and I am inclined to think that sometimes they remain or go a distance and alight, and then remain until their scouts go and hunt a home, where they have not already secured one.

This spring I took two six-quart pans full of

HONEY FROM UNDER A BEDROOM FLOOR,

on South Cottonwood, at the farm of Brother E. B. Tripp. There being an opening under the doorstep, they had selected this home last August, and when they came roaring against the flydoor the family were alarmed for a few moments, but in a short time all was over, as they soon made their way under the floor and went to work making their comb, the queen beginning her duty by laying from one to two thousand eggs in 24 hours. In 21 days from the laying of the egg it is hatched out into a young bee, which, in the height of the honey season will work itself to death in six weeks; nature has provided for the many losses by storms, birds, and swarming, by the GREAT AMOUNT OF INCREASE.

When a swarm of bees begin to issue from the parent hive the ringing of bells, rattling on tin pans, or throwing water, or sand amongst them is almost sure to fetch them down in a cluster, when they can be shaken into a new hive, and it is an excellent plan to take a frame of comb with honey and some young brood and place it in the new hive, which induces them to remain satisfied and in less than one hour they will go to work making comb, honey and bee bread until they soon fill up a hive with their luscious product.

While in Canada last year I learned of

A NOVEL WAY

of capturing an absconding colony of bees. A good-sized looking glass was so held as to throw the reflection of the sun's rays into the flying swarm, shaking it about sufficiently to confuse them, when they came down immediately.

Will some one try the experiment and report through the NEWS?

Bees have wintered well during the last season. One friend of mine kept 50 swarms without the loss of one, and the prospects are very good for an excellent honey harvest this season. I have known of a return of 150 lbs. of honey from a single swarm.

E. STEVENSON.

DEPUTY REGISTRARS.

HOYTSVILLE, Summit County, Utah, May 9, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

In your Semi-weekly of May 8th, I notice that one of our deputy registrars in Utah has been arrested and fined for flourishing a revolver in a very unbecoming manner, the fine imposed being enough to rob him of all that he is likely to get for his services, under the Commission during 1885. After due consideration of the matter, it seems entirely unfair for a court to so impose upon one of a set of men who are so innocent as are our registration officers, with but few exceptions; for, taking said officers of our county as an example, with but few, very few exceptions, they should be excused for committing such paltry offenses as the one referred to, for two reasons. First, ignorance should screen them, some being scarcely able to sign their own names to their official returns, and as a second cause for acquittal they are often taken with fits of biliousness—I guess it could be called that—the cause being an excess of drink, (water) (?). Probably the "Dep's." have taken lessons from their superior. As there are exceptions to all general rules, I take pleasure in naming one exception to this, being in the person of the deputy for our precinct. Some would describe him as "a mere boy" who is deaf, and subject to what are commonly called "fits." But as these are not disqualifications, under the Edmunds law nor in the eyes of the Commission, he might properly be recommended as one of the very best officers in the Territory, for, if let alone by an evil influence that closely surrounds him, he will at least endeavor to do right.

AN ACQUAINTANCE.

NEWS AND SENTIMENTS FROM EMERY COUNTY.

HUNTINGTON, Emery Co., Utah, May 8th, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

The farmers here are now rejoicing at the good prospects for the coming harvest.

CASTLE VALLEY

has been blessed for the last six weeks with a nice rain every few days, and the grain and all other crops have a splendid appearance. Lucern is a foot high, peach trees, plums, apricots and currants are shedding their blossoms. This place has increased in improvements and population very much in the last year. There is now about 800 inhabitants in this settlement, and room for as many more.

About three weeks ago, while our worthy Bishop was away from home, performing the marriage ceremony for Mr. Cook Drollinger and Miss Emma Cordingly, it being the Bishop's birthday his friends got up for him and assembled at the meeting house with their picnic, after which they sent for and brought the Bishop, who was surprised to see five large tables set, ready for supper. Over 200 people partook of the splendid repast prepared, after which they were entertained throughout the evening with dancing, songs, recitations, etc.

President Larson and counselors paid us last Sunday, and gave us some very good instructions, as they always do when they visit the people. We appreciate their visits and invite them to come often.

A VISIT

Surely history is repeating itself in the persecuting of the Saints, and if those who have gone ahead and obeyed the higher law of celestial marriage are tried now, those who have not, but are worthy to be called Saints, will have something to try them after a while, as the Lord will have a tried people. Those who are now striving to overthrow this church and destroy the liberty of the people, do not know they are doing the Lord's work in separating the chaff from the wheat. The line has to be drawn, and I do not know but it is being drawn in the best manner. It is also necessary that offenses should come, but woe be to that man by whom the offense cometh.

IT IS A PITY

to see men who have borne testimony hundreds of times that they knew this gospel was true, deny the covenants they have made, and promise to give them up through fear of a little earthly punishment. The Latter-day Saints have embarked in the ship Zion, and the Lord has promised eternal lives to all those who stay with it to the end of the voyage, and if some lose their lives in trying to reach the haven in the way God has directed they will find them again, while those who jump overboard or desert the ship, for fear of a little storm, lose their lives to find them no more. And now that the

COURTS AND FEDERAL OFFICIALS

of Utah are showing their true colors in what they are trying to do, it is only fair that the people of Utah do the same. Let the Latter-day Saints hold fast to the Constitution and stars and stripes, while those who hoist the white or black flag may do so and take the consequences.

I look upon life as but a moment compared with the ages and eternities that are to come, and if I am called upon to undergo persecution, or be imprisoned for the sake of my religion, I want to be able to stand the test. The majority of the Latter-day Saints will stand this test, as the Lord has established His kingdom never more to be thrown down, or given to another people. That the faithful may be encouraged to endure to the end is the prayer of yours respectfully,

W. H.

DANGEROUS
SUBSTITUTES FOR HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE
Several inferior and dangerous "substitutes" for the genuine "Horsford's Acid Phosphate" are being offered for sale; and we hereby caution the dealers and public against buying or using them, as they will not produce the same effect upon the system as the genuine "Horsford's," and the ingredients in some of them are dangerous to health.
Some of these "substitutes" or imitations are simply dilute Phosphoric Acid, which interferes with the digestion; while the genuine "Horsford's" not only causes no trouble with the digestive organs, but materially assists in their action.
One preparation that is being offered for sale, by the gallon, contains Meta- or Pyro-Phosphoric Acid, which are declared by the highest authority to be poisonous. The same preparation also contains Chloric Acid, which is a compound of Chlorine. "Horsford's" contains neither of these ingredients.
These "substitutes" are liable to be found at soda fountains, because of their cheapness.
CALL for "HORSFORD'S," and TAKE NO OTHER. NEVER SOLD IN BULK.
