YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Salt Lake, 11; Spokane, 1; first game.
Salt Lake, 9; Spokane, 0; second game.
Butte, 8; Boise, 11.

There was trouble at Walker's field yesterday afternoon during the double-header between Spokane and Salt Lake.

In the eighth inning of the second game, Umpire Flannery rendered a decision not to the liking of Standing Elk Reilly, boss of the Spokane redskins, and he kicked. He kicked good and hard, and umpire and manager waged a wordy war. Flannery fined Reilly five, and the dispute continued with increased fury. Then Flannery yelled for the police, and a big bluecoat pounced on the chief scalp-seeker and gently but firmly took him to the gate, where he was thrust ruthlessly outside and permitted to gaze up and down the street but not upon the game.

His braves felt awfully bad, doncherknow, and in the next inning they quit cold. Flannery promptly gave the game to Salt Lake by a score of 9 to 0.

Before we go any further, and lest we forget, let us chronicle the fact that we won both games.

Oh joy!

The trouble aforesaid came about thusly: It was the eighth inning of the second game with a score of 1 to 1. One was gone when Clark came to bat and smashed one out to Murdock which the latter dropped. Clark was safe on first and Weed, who followed, sent a liner to right. Clark tried to stretch it to third, but Frary made a fine throw to Reilly, and it looked as if the big chief had Dad a yard off the base. Flannery was within a short distance of third when Reilly tried to tag Clark, and it looked like he succeeded but Flannery held that Clark was safe. Then came the wrangle, a fine of five, more wrangling and—

Exit Reilly.

Clark made the winning run on Gimlin's single. This broke the redskins' hearts, and when they came up for the next inning, after two men were out, they promptly quit. Score, 9 to 0.

The first game was highly entertaining. Titus pitched for Spokane and was doing well until the third when two reached bases on errors and then he went into the blue ether. With two runs in and bases all occupied, Harmon was sent into the box, but he was not effective. Seven hits were made, and eight runs were chalked up.

The final score was 11 to 1. Tozer pitched for our side, and while he was touched up for nine safe ones, they were well scattered and did little damage.

SATURDAY'S BALL GAME.

There Is Nothing New to Chronicle—Salt Lake Lost of Course.

It is only necessary to state that Salt Lake lost the Saturday game to Spokane. The reason is obvious. The home team failed to come out of its comatose state. Willie Hogg did the pitching for Reilly and that's about all there was to it. The detailed score is given for the benefit of those who delight in studying figures:

PARK BEAT UTAH.

Game Played at Park City Yesterday Witnessed by Big Crowd.

Yesterday afternoon's ball game between Eureka and Park City, on the latter's home grounds, was won by the Park City team by a score of nine to six. Nearly 2,000 persons, including a big delegation from Eureka, witnessed the struggle, which was a sort of hair-raiser. There were brass bands on the grounds, and the game was called in order to give the miners a chance to witness it.

The Park City team secured the services of Drinkwater to pitch, and he held the Eurekaites at his mercy, allowing one hit per inning.

There was considerable betting on the result, and it is estimated that fully $1,000, if not more, changed hands. The detailed score follows:

NELSON AND HERRERA.

What the Butte Papers Have to Say About Coming Fight.

This from the Buute Miner:

Aurelio Herrera, accompanied by his brother Mauro, arrived in Butte yesterday and will commence work today for his bout with Batiling Nelson, which will take place in the arena of the Montana Athletic club on the afternoon of Labor day, September 5. Herrera is in first-class condition and says that he never felt better in his life. He will go through a careful course of training and will be as fit as possible for the coming fight, which will be the most important in his career.

"I am in first class shape,' said Herrera last night, "In fact, I do not know that I ever felt better in my life. I realize that if I win over Nelson I will be up among the champions, and I will be prepared to make the fight of my life when I meet Nelson. I will start training immediately. In fact, if everything can be arranged I wil commence work tomorrow afternoon.

"In reference to the Goodman matter I will say that I am ready to fight Goodman at any time. I want him to post a forfeit of $1,000. I have my money in the safe at the Butte hotel. A great many people think that I sidestepped Goodman. I was offered no guarantee to come here and fight him. The match with Nelson was under way and of course I would rather fight Nelson than Goodman. There is more money in the fight with Nelson and if I defeat him I get a better reputation than if I defeated Goodman. As for promising any club to fight before them, I never do that. I will go to the club that can make me the best offer.

"I was at the ringside of the Hanlon-Nelson go and in my opinion Hanlon never had a lookin. At the most Hanlon only had a shade of a couple of rounds and these were in the first part of the fight. Nelson outfought him, outboxed him and had him breaking ground all the time.

"I fully realize what a hard man Nelson is and know that this is the most important match in my career."

Battling Nelson will arrive in Butte today and will probably start training immediately.

Herrera will train at the Olympia brewery. He will work out with his brother Mauro and Maurice Thompson. His manager, Lou Woods, will arrive in a few days.

Herrera and Nelson will fight at 130 pounds.

The Inter-Mountain has the following:

"Battling" Nelson will arrive in Butte today and go into training immediately for his battle with Herrera on Labor day. Nelson announces his coming in the following letter to the sporting editor;

"Meester Sports Editor:

"PENNY" GOSSIP.

Salt Lake leaves today for Butte where the team will play with the Miners for a week. They next go to Spokane and then to Boise. After that Butte will come for a week, and then—exit baseball.

When Reilly's redskins left the field yesterday afternoon, like a lot of rank quitters, they made themselves liable to a fine from President Lucas. Puzzle question: "Will he fine 'em?" The team did not have much chance to win, but it should not quit.

There were only three crack shots of the Salt Lake Rifle club out to the range yesterday afternoon for the regular weekly shoot, but they held the contest just the same. Johnson held high gun, making 92. He also made the best average. The score:

Yeager	79	72	70	71	78	79	84	78—76	3-8
Johnson	85	83	77	82	79	89	92	..—83	6-7
Letchfield	77	79	83	87	84	74	73	85—80	1-4

Although Reilly of the Spokane redskins was fined $5 yesterday afternoon by Umpire Flannery for disputing a decision and "sassing" back, the money will not come out of Reilly's pockets. The crowd was apparently with Reilly, and a collection was taken up in the grandstand to raise the amount of the fine.

Speaking of Munroe's chances to win, Kid McCoy, who was here recently, is quoted as saying: "Don't quote me as saying that Jack will win in a walk and that he wil knock Jeff out in a punch," says Kid McCoy, "Jeff is a great fighter, a wonderful man, and knows all the tricks of the trade. Whether he has seen his best days remains to be decided, but, at any rate, I think Munroe has the making of a champion. He has everything that Jeffries had when he started. He is big, strong and game. I saw him make his first fight with Sharkey, and before it came off I thought Sharkey would win; but Munroe surprised me. He beat the sailor fairly and squarely. But he is going to improve."

Hats off to Pulliam.

He stands pat for the umpire.

Both the New York and Cincinnati managements have filed complaint with him against Umpire Emslie for putting four men out of one game recently at the Polo grounds.

Pulliam went out and investigated and then sustained Emslie in every particular and poured oil on the fire by suspending Manager Kelly indefinitely and McGraw, McGan and Breshnehan three days.

Pulliam is to be admired for his pluck in going against John T. Brush. While we must admit that at times we have umpires that are "rotten," yet at the same time nothing hurts the game as much as the kicking, rowdy ball player.

The president of the National league has now given it out that he will back up his umpires in any argument as against the ball player, and that he will suspend any player that acts unruly on the ball field.

The Butte News says:

Mark this prediction: Herrera will stop Battling Nelson in less than 12 rounds.

That may sound queer.

It is sure to make a few smile.

But it's better than an even bet the prediction will come true.

Why

Simply because Nelson is made for Herrera, so to speak.

Nelson is a slugger; so much the better of Herrera.

Nelson never blocks a blow; that makes it a cinch he'll lose.

You can bet your bottom dollar that if Hanlon had Nelson in distress time after time and lacked the steam to drop him, the Dane won't last long before those terrific smashes the Mexican carries in either hand.

The writer picked Jeffords to lose and also Lafontise.

The writer on the Butte News has always been sweet on Herrera. He has picked the Mexican to win in almost every battle Herrera has had for the past two years, so it is but natural that he picks him to beat Nelson. But here's another prediction: If Herrera does not take Nelson's measure within the 12 rounds, the dark skinnned lad will get the worst beating he ever received, and he will be beaten, too.

There will be a six-round bout at Philadelphia on Tuesday evening, Sept., 9, that will be well worth a long journey to see. The men who will meet on that occasion are James J. Corbett, former champion of the world, and Joe Hagan, better known as "Philadelphia Jack O'Brien,' a past-master of the art of boxing. The two men met in New York the other day and after the usual line of talk regarding weight, forfeits and so on, they came to an understanding and signed articles of agreement for a six-round bout, to take place on the date stated. If the club that secures the match cares to have it come off a few days sooner the men will agree to a shift in the date. The contest is open for bids, and the men expect to get a nice fat purse from one of the three big clubs now doing busines in the Quaker City.

Both boxers have decided to go into training at once. Corbett will prepare himself at his summer home on Long Island, and O'Briend will likely get in shape at Atlantic Vity, where he trained for his recent bout with Bob Fitzsimmons.

As both boxers are after the almighty dolar as well as honors pugilistically, they have agreed to split the money. The contest will be at catch weights, although O'Brien at first held out for 130 pounds. The match has awakened lively interest among the sports, and a great crowd will go over to the Quaker City to see the men clash.
