THE MINING MARKET.

Emerald Receives the Main Attention of the Brokers Today.

GALENA SHARES IN THE TRADING.

Swansea is Also Recognized By a Sale —Mammoth Strong and Mercur Weakening.

The only stock which elicited any degree of substantial interest on the exchange today was Emerald and this was likely caused by the reports of an exceptionally good strike in the property. Two sales of the stock were made at 11 and 11¼ cents, while Swansea came in for a transfer of 100 shares at $2.25.

Galena was the only listed stock dealt in and 100 shares found a taker at $1.15 with more of the stock offered at $1.16. The Overland stock made its appearance among the listed properties today and was on offering at 55 cents, while it received a bid of 40 cents. Mammoth continued strong but Mercur did not get a bid above $0.55.

The closing figures were as follows:

Sign and Spare.

An assay of a 100-lb. lot of high-grade Mammoth ore yesterday, shows a net value upon it of about $6,000, which will be sufficient for the payment of a dividend of 5 cents per share.

The Overland which was listed on the stock exchange today has which dawn 150 feet, and now down to 160 feet. There is a strip of 32 feet in the west, a winze of 15 feet and several open cuts. The assessment work is done on all the claims within corner of the Mary E., Mary E. No. 2, Fairmile, Fairview No. 2, Andrew, Pura, Pura No. 2, Tamar, Bethel, Bonanza, David S., Armstrong Well, silver Hill and Red Jacket all in the Camp Floyd district.

Lucania Boomerang: A mining deal which moves more toward the development of the mineral wealth of the Camp Floyd district on its west side in Utah, was consummated at Lucania yesterday. The contracting parties were H. M. Hobinson, ex-Mayor H. C. Lonny and others of Ogden and I. Kastel, a prominent merchant in Evanston. By this transaction Mr. Kastel secures 40,000 shares of stock in the Wasatch Consolidated Gold and Copper Mining company to exchange for a slice lump of Wyoming gold. The Wasatch Consolidated owns the gold-bearing property, consisting four claims, favorably situated on the west slop of the famous Lion hill, and contiguous to the Gold Dust group, upon which a fine body of pay ore is now being developed, preparatory to the erection of a reduction plant.

Visited By Burglars.

Thieves made an attempt to burglarize the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Wallace, at 875 E. First South street, last evening, but were chased off by the speedy arrival of neighbors. The lady was at the Theater at the time and there the two daughters were the only persons in the house. Detectives Stevens and Janney went out to the place but could find no trace of the intruders, nor even evidence that would indicate an attempt at housebreaking.

A Utah Boy's Advance.

Mr. Lewis T. Cannon, a son of President George Q. Cannon, has just completed a four years' course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, graduating with the degree of bachelor of science. The young man has now accepted a position in the faculty of the Agricultural College at Logan and will take his place in the institution at the opening of the school year.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, JUNE 18, 1896.

The Vernal Prisoners.

On a charge of venue E. H. Colman, Mack Warner and William Watt, who killed Dave Mitson and Dick Stanton and wounded Ike Stanton, near Vernal, Uintah county, last spring, in a dispute over mining property, were brought to Ogden by Sheriff Park and Deputy Sheriffs Morris and Pair to be tried before Judge Scragg. The prisoners claim that the shooting was done in self defense.

A Jealous Woman.

A Mrs. McClennan, who resides on Adams avenue near 31st street, was arrested for disturbing the peace. The lady is very jealous of her husband and was in the habit of making accusations against all of her lady neighbors which appears to have become chronic with her. Mr. M. A. Crocket was the complainant. Mrs. McC. drank was fined $10. All present in the court room sympathized with the woman on account of her intemperance.

High School Commencement.

The tennis opera house was crowded almost to suffocation last evening, the occasion being the commencement exercises of the High school. Prof. Lewis presented the diplomas, also the Walker-Sevaman oratorical gold medal, which was awarded to Mary Robinson as the literary scholar of the High school.

Notes.

Capt. George B. Lefavour, from San Francisco, was a short time before reaching Ogden on the Southern Pacific train this morning. He returns with him charge of the Corporal Hall, who placed them in care of Undersheriff Lindquist.

It is reported that Col. Payton will deliver his lecture, The New Woman, at the Methodist church at Salt Lake about September 15th next.

At Riverside yesterday Myron B. Cobbs died, aged 71 years. He had been an invalid for about three years and was one of our oldest settlers.

Ticket Broker Weitz and Attorney Val Greiner had a short and harmless "correct" at the Broom corner yesterday.

STATE INSTRUCTORS.

Second Annual Session at the Assembly Hall Today.

WILL BE A TWO DAYS' SESSION.

Addresses and Discussion This Forenoon and Afternoon—Governor Wells Will Speak Tonight.

The second annual session of the Utah State Teachers' association convened at 10 o'clock this morning, in the Assembly Hall. The session was opened with music, Prof. D. Jesse presided at the organ. Following came a fervent invocation by Rev. O. F. Whitney, and a brief address by the president, State Superintendent John R. Park, in which he tendered a cordial welcome to the teachers of Utah to convention assembled, and expressed the hope that the proceedings would be characterized by concerted action, and that the results of the meeting might accrue to the highest good of the educational interests of the young commonwealth.

On request, the proceedings of the meeting at Ogden during the holiday recess last winter were read by the secretary, Miss Lucy M. Van Cott, and with some corrections, approved.

Superintendent Moriah Hall of Weber county, chairman of the committee on revision of the constitution, made his report, and as the same involved considerable discussion, it was thought best to refer it back to the committee till afternoon, when provision would be made by which copies of the constitution might be obtained ready for signing, in order that greater deliberation might occur in the final adoption of the matter. A recess was then taken until afternoon, when the following program was carried out:

The Dangers that Threaten our Public Schools, Prof. Stewart, University of Utah.

Discussion, L. M. Gillan, High School, Salt Lake. The Ideal School Curriculum, Supt. Wm. Allison, Ogden schools.

Discussion, Superintendent W. H. Rice, Provo City schools.

At 8 p. m. this evening an address will be made by G. Vernor Walls, and a lecture given by Dr. Karl G. Maeser, the program to be interspersed with music.

Among the teachers of the State present were: Dr. Talmage, President Peet, Superintendent Wm. Allison, Superintendent Millstream, Superintendent Watkins, Wasatch county; Superintendent H. D. Christensen, Uintah county; Superintendent M. Hall, Weber county; Superintendent Gibson, Carbon county; Superintendent Van Cott, Salt Lake county; President Kerr, B. Y. College, Logan; President Dunn, L. D. S. College; Professor Maeser, of the Salt Lake High School; Dr. C. A. Whiting, Prof. W. M. Stewart, Surveyor Angelbert, Principal C. A. Short, Farmers wife, Instructor G. H. Brimhall, B. Y. Academy, Provo, and Mr. A. O. Clark, Salt Lake. The attendance today reaches about one hundred, and it is expected that this number will be largely increased tomorrow.
