SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of balm, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every noxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has found its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been warmly thanked by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this preparation of Catarrh of long standing, after all else had proved useless, and personal trouble, among the good news throughout the country in which they reside. M. Tuttle, Esq., of Newark, N. J., writes in indignation and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and entitled to be classed among the standard medical specimens of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me incalculable.
HENRY WELLS, of Wells, Fargo & Co.

IT has cured me after twelve years of suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, Waltham, Mass.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., Muscatine, Iowa.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, who, like myself, were prepared to state their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 22 Pine St., St. Louis.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured of Catarrh. I recommend it to all. Send over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 129 Hanover Ave., Boston.

WE have sold Sanford's Radical Cure for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., Washington, Ind.

THE cure effected in my case by Sanford's Radical Cure was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE Y. DINSMORE, Dunstable, Boston.

Each package of Sanford's Radical Cure contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

UTAH STAKE CONFERENCE.

The Quarterly Conference of this Stake convened at 10:30 a. m. Aug. 31st, 1878. Apostles Woodruff and Albert Carrington, the Presidency and many of the bishops of the Stake were present.

After the usual devotional exercises, and a few preliminary remarks by President A. O. Smoot, the statistical report of the Wards and Stake for the quarter ending July 31st, 1878, was read. After which, Apostle Albert Carrington addressed the congregation on the weakness of the human family, their proneness to wander from the truth and the seeming dullness manifested by the Saints in learning the lessons of the Gospel.

At two p. m. meeting was resumed. Apostle Woodruff prefaced his remarks with the quotation, "straight is the gate and narrow is the way, etc.," reverting to the task of the Saints in keeping the path of the Gospel, beset with temptations, which would be overcome with the help of God and faith in his strong promises to help those who confided in him; alluded to the fact that the most honorable of the prophets of God were opposed by the wicked even to death; spoke of the rapid growth of the work. In Joseph's day special revelations were given in the cases of individual calls for missionary labor, while now, large numbers were called and set apart for missionary service, on account of the demand for their labors being so great.

Bishop Wm. Paxman followed on the true liberty the gospel gave to its followers.

Prest. A. O. Smoot, in a few remarks, pointed out the path of duty as the path of safety; referred to the unjust criticisms indulged in by many to their own hurt, which had to be met and counteracted by an active priesthood.

Apostle W. Woodruff referred to the teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith relative to warnings and impressions received at times, which should be acted upon; related incidents of impressions received and acted upon during his life which had saved his own life and the lives of others.

Sunday morning, September 1, 1878.

Singing and prayer being offered, the general Church authorities were presented and sustained unanimously, as also the local Stake officers.

Elder Albert Carrington then addressed the congregation on the great labors that were before the Saints in correcting the evils which existed in the earth; made strong appeals to the debtors to the P. E. fund for exertions to discharge their indebtedness to the Fund, as a duty they owe the suffering and poor Saints yet remaining in the Old World; reverted to the noble and praiseworthy object of the Fund in its first conception and the blessing of God upon it, realized in the safe and sure passage of the Saints across the ocean.

Apostle Wilford Woodruff followed on the blessings received by the observer of the law of Tithing. Spoke of the signs of the times proclaiming the near approach of the Son of Man; the lavish manner in which the priesthood was given to men in this our day, proclaimed the greatness of the labors expected at our hands, the American nation and others were watching this people, and their great men had expressed their surprise at our acts and progress.

At 1 p.m. meeting resumed after the administration of the sacrament.

Apostle Carrington called attention to the authority with which Christ taught the correct principles of the gospel, so much so that the Jews discerned and remarked thereon; it was so with our elders, they were marked men and differed with the religious teachers of the present day—priesthood and priestcraft were known by all lovers of the truth, one for the true coin, the other in some instances as a close counterfeit.

President David John then addressed the congregation on the necessity of the Saints having their knowledge of the truth based upon a sure foundation, and showed that the Sunday and other schools offered avenues for the engagement of all the talents the Saints possessed.

President A. O. Smoot, after quoting "A house divided against itself cannot stand," continued on the subject of unity, showing that division would say the foundation of all governments; adverted the Elders to preach and teach the simple truths of the gospel, and refrain from the marvelous and mysterious, of which they themselves knew nothing, the humbler lessons of paying tithing, P. E. Fund indebtedness, building of temples, a thorough observance of the Sabbath day, were more needed.

Meeting then adjourned sine die, with benediction by Bishop David Evans.

A. Jones, Clerk.

Child Mortality.

Salt Lake City, August 30, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

With respect for your remarks on "sickness among children" I should be pleased to add from an extensive observation and some experience, that so soon as our warm days are followed by cool nights, and the first fall rains come, if flannel garments, woollen stockings, and good shoes, are placed on the children, a large per cent of sickness will be saved.

Some time since new flannel was provided, and in this first rain of fall our little ones are clothed in it from neck to ankles.

In arguing the question of child mortality, with an eastern lady, some years since, we drove through 17 blocks, in the month of February, and counted over 25 children bare-footed, or not properly clothed. Her exclamation at the close was, Its not your climate, or polygamy, but the ways of managing.

The robustness of our children, who survive early childhood years, might suggest the question if this people pass their offspring through the old Spartan test.

Respectfully. S.

Corrections.

Mount Pleasant, Sanpete County, Utah, September 2, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

In relating the educational tour of Prof. K. G. Maeser to President John Taylor, Territorial Superintendent of District Schools, and published in Semi-weekly News of August 31, I see there is a mistake in relation to this place. In speaking of Fountain Green, Moroni, Fairview and Mount Pleasant, he says: No schools in session in those places for the summer season, except at Fairview.

I wish to say, Mount Pleasant has a very good school of 70 pupils, under the direction of Eli A. Day, a permanent resident of this place, and a graduate of the University of Deseret.

Respectfully yours,
E. Cliff,
School Trustee.

A LETTER TO THE PUBLIC!

Dear Reader:—Be not deceived by the flourishing statements of Daniel F. Beatty and others, who offer you pianos which they say are worth $800, for $300, and less; and organs worth $380, for $150; assigning as reasons for giving so large discounts—Beatty: "The offer is strictly confidential to dealers and to those who will introduce them in new localities." Others: "I have no taxes, rents, advertising or other expenses to pay." Now, this is all fraud and humbug, which must be apparent to you on reflection. The truth is that the instruments are not worth the money asked for them. They are dear at any price. Mr. Beatty is styled, in the Music Trade Review, as a swindler—"The most consummate fraud imaginable." "A most shameless fraud and barefaced falsifier," etc. Read the issues from June, 1877, to Feb., 1878, for a full exposure of his venality—they can be seen at my store.

I most respectfully ask you not to purchase a piano or organ until you have examined my large stock and prices. I think it will be to your advantage to do so, because it will be found that I am selling better instruments at much less prices than any other person in the Territory. I say this advisedly. I am selling on monthly or quarterly payments, extending from one year to three years time. Send for particulars.

Your most obedient servant,

DAVID O. CALDER.
