

PRIMARIES WILL BE HELD TONIGHT.

Meetings Are for the Purpose of Electing Delegates to the Judicial Convention.

MUCH INTEREST MANIFESTED.

Plethora of Candidates Makes the Outlook Somewhat Uncertain—List Of Meeting Places.

Primaries will be held in all the county districts this evening for the election of delegates to the Republican Judicial convention, which is to take place next Monday.

As the time draws near, the friends of the many candidates are scanning the political horizon for votes and there will be some smooth work tonight for the selection of the proper delegates.

Judges Morse and Lewis, the present incumbents, are candidates for renomination, but are not making an active campaign. The same is true of Judges Stewart and Hall for the Democratic nomination. Other Republican candidates are C. S. Kliney, C. S. Paterson, H. S. Tanner, D. H. Wenger, Geo.
F. Goodwin, George G. Armstrong, M.
L. Ritchie and Daniel Harrington. All are residents of Salt Lake.

The rivalry over the judgeships, despite the large number of candidates, will hardly equal that which exists for the district attorneyship. Benner C.
Smith, the present incumbent, will cross swords in the convention with Fred C.
Loftisworth. Both are popular young attorneys and have hosts of friends working in behalf of their candidacies.
County Attorney L. L. Harker of Toole county, and Col. M. M. Kain of also candidates for the office.

Below is the list of places where the primaries will be held:

BOTT'S ELECTION ILLEGAL.

Attorney General So Holds in Case of New Provo Councilman.

An opinion involving the office of councilman at Provo has been rendered by Attorney-General Breiden in which he declares that where a councilman is chosen by members of the council to fill a vacancy it requires the votes of the majority of the councilmen elected to legally appoint and confirm a member of that body. The council at Provo, elected at the last election, was composed of five Democrats and five Republicans. A short time ago Judge Harding, a Republican, resigned and on last Monday night, John E.
Bott, a Democrat, was elected by the council to fill the vacancy, the vote being 5 to 4.

The election of Bott is held to be illegal by the attorney-general, who cites the opinion in the Sheets case in this city where the supreme court held that a majority of the councilmen elected to take any action which creates a liability against the city. In all probability quo warranto proceedings will be instituted against the new councilman at Provo to test the legality of his election and to oust him.

PUT UP A HARD FIGHT.

Sarah Woolf Resisted Most Strenuous Ly Commitment to Reform School.

Sarah Woolf, the 17-year-old girl who was committed to the state industrial school on Saturday by Judge Morse, put up a hard fight against being taken to that institution Saturday afternoon, and had to be carried to the carriage by Deputy Sheriff Fred Butler and Jailer Bell. When the former went to the county jail to take the girl to the reform school, she informed him that she was not going with him. Mr. Butler tried to take hold of her and force her out of the cell, but she threw herself on the floor and kicked and scratched everyone who came within her reach.
Jailer Bell was called to the assistance of the deputy and the two together succeeded in getting the handcuffs on her and carried her to the carriage.
She screamed most all the way to the depot, but finally she settled down and was as quiet as could be when she entered the train with Mr. Butler. After that she gave the officer no further trouble.

PARSIFAL A GREAT MUSIC DRAMA.

Turns on a Moral Problem Full Of the Atmosphere of Reality.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS STORY.

Something of "The Meistersinger" of Nuremberg," Wagner's Only Opera.

The fourth lecture by Prof. Goldmark in Unity hall, on the Wagnerian music drama, was given Saturday night to a very fair audience, and the intense interest that marked the previous lectures continued. The subject was "The Meistersinger of Nuremberg," and the lecturer explained how this delightful and only work of comedy from Wagner's pen was based on the advancement of higher ideals, and that the mirth and humor are of the highest standards that can be conceived. It is pure, honest, elevating fun, with not even a suggestion of the sordid or the debasement of it. The theme illustrates the triumph of the higher over the lower ideals, and the former are impersonated in Walther von Stolzing, in contrast with the latter impersonated in Beckmesser, who also typifies Wagner's enemies, Hans Sachs, the genial old cobbler, is typical of that honest conservatism that accepts the new without letting go what is good of the old. The drama too is a faithful representation of the village life of the time, and as a story apart from the music, is one of amusing as well as instructive interest.

Prof. Goldmark played on the piano the principal motifs or themes, calling attention to the fact that the words of the drama showed the composer to be a great audience to listen to the Parsifal music drama which Wagner refused to call by that name, but rather a "Stage Conservation Festival Play." It is a confession of faith on the part of the composer, and turns upon a moral problem full of the atmosphere of reality and whose characters are instinct with life. It has been argued that Wagner did not intend to put Parsifal on the stage, but rather a more other Scriptural characters involved in his passion, on the stage, but the generally accepted conception of the play is that he really put them there, whether he intended to do so or not.

The lecturer explained the motifs of each of the characteristic passages, and their recurrence as instances of specific interest, and as he gave on the piano these great themes with their attendant elaboration, he told of their significance.
The legend of the Grail, the cup used at the last supper, its successive and final appearances and the accompaning and subordinate legends were involving so many tragic episodes, were brought out vividly before the minds of the listeners, and the audience entered heartily into the spirit of the entire performance.

It is safe to say that Wagner is now better understood in this city for the visit of Prof. Goldmark, and the visit of the noted composer will be listened to in public as well as private performance with more eager and intelligent interest than ever. It would be perfectly proper to call Prof. Gold-mark a Wagnerian missionary. He will remain in town for a few days before continuing his tour and will be entertained at All Hallows college.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.
"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W.
H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk.
An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all druggists.

The Modern Store—Moderate Prices For Everybody.

A few months ago a New York manufacturer shipped to the Lace House in this city two cases of women's underwear, and before their arrival it was closed. One of our buyers, when in New York City early in the season, obtained control of the shipment at a very low figure. Owing to complications with the railroad companies through the failure, we have been unable until now to get the goods released.
The reductions are your gain.

NECESSARY

People May Go Without Food for Days but Not Without Sleep.

Pastors have gone without food for many days at a time but no one can go without sleep. "For a long time I have not been sleeping well often lying awake for two or three hours during the night up to three weeks ago, but now I sleep sound every night and wake up refreshed and vigorous," says a California woman.

"Do you know why? It's because I used to drink coffee but three weeks ago I cut out the coffee and began using Postum. Twice since then I have drunk coffee and both times I passed a sleepless night, and so I am doubly convinced coffee caused the trouble and Postum removed it."

"My brother has been in the habit of drinking coffee three times a day. He has been troubled with sour stomach and I often would notice him getting soda from the can to relieve the distress in his stomach; lately hardly a day passed without a dose of soda for relief."

About two weeks ago he asked me for a cup of Postum—said he liked it well enough to give up coffee and since then has been drinking postum three times a day and says he has not once before or since passed a sleep-
Postum removed it."

Even after this lady's experience with coffee her brother did not suspect coffee was causing his sour stomach, but easily proved it.

Coffee is not suspected in thousands of cases just like this but it's easily proved. A 10 days' trial works wonders, and of course "there's a reason."

little book, "The Road to Wellville."

HAM SHOW WILL PRESENT PETITION

Press Club to Ask Certain Privileges from the Mayor and City Council.

SPECIAL PERMITS ARE SOUGHT.

Local Thespians Draw Up an Exhaustive Document Which Will be Debated Tonight.

The greater portion of the time at the city council meeting tonight will be occupied by the debate on the following petition, which will be introduced, probably, by Councilman Pennington. The petitioners have no idea whether it will be passed by the body or not, but live in hope. The "News" was furnished with this copy in advance:

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 9, 1904. To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council—Your petitioners, the undersigned, respectfully request that it be passed that a permit be granted to a play by a writer, who has shown considerable merit, although to some persons he may appear obscure, to wit—William Shakespeare.
The object of this production is the education, enlightenment, elevation, amusement, improvement, betterment, advancement, culture, aggrandizement and glorification of the public of Utah, being actuated by purely philanthropic and humanitarian motives, the Press club seeks the co-operation of the distinguished citizens who have been chosen to represent the public in the executive and legislative branches of the government of this great municipality.
Your petitioners therefore respectfully request:

1.—That a special permit be given Mr.
Race Whitney, who will impersonate Shakespeare's immortal character, Shakespeare himself, to make characteristics and other forms of inflammable material, containing nicotine on the stage of the Salt Lake theater Monday and Tuesday evenings, May 16 and 17, and that said Whitney be permitted to inject as much morphine, cocaine and other harmful drugs as may be prescribed by Dr. Watson.

2.—That the management be given full and free permission to transport through the public thoroughfares of Salt Lake City the trunks, scenery, properties and other paraphernalia appertaining to the gigantic production of "Hamlet," familiarly known as the "Ham Show," subject, of course, to the police, fire and health regulations of the municipality, provided—that this caravan shall not in any way obstruct the ordinary traffic, street cars, automobiles, funerals, religious meetings and other forms of public entertainment for a period of more than 10 minutes at any point on the line of march.

3.—Rehearsals having demonstrated that the city treasurer and city recorder, who are among the leading participants in the show, are likely to be the victims of personal violence, when the public realizes the immensity of their theatrical misadventures, that your honorable body in this crisis, in the interest of law and morality and to preserve the dignity of municipal officials, instruct the chief of police to have on hand a platoon of his most trustworthy patrolmen as a bodyguard for those distinguished thespians, with instructions to act promptly in case of emergency.

4.—That special permission be given withy to transport to absent himself from the session of the city council Monday evening, May 16, provided such a session be held in competition with this remarkable counter-attraction.

5.—That the club be permitted to introduce on the stage a dog of leonine disposition and proportions. Provided the said dog agrees to have on hand a lion-tamer in case the animal becomes violent and mistakes the scenery for a jungle.

6.—That, owing to the tremendous impact of the subject herein mentioned, this petition go to its third reading and be granted without delay, under suspension of the rules.

Respectfully submitted, PRESS CLUB OF SALT LAKE CITY,
M. F. CUNNINGHAM, Pres't.
JOEL L. PRIEST, Sec'y.

The auction sale of boxes, stalls and logs seats, which opens in the lobby of the theater on Wednesday morning promised to be a very interesting affair.
While the reserve price on these choice locations is placed at $2 there are indications that prodigious figures will be reached. The parquet and first three rows of the dress circle are held at $1.50, the balance of the ground floor being $1.
The regular sale for seats opens on Friday morning.
