ALIEN OR CITIZEN?

The Status of Persons Born in This Country of Foreign Parentage.

CASE TO BE TESTED IN COURT.

The Government Contends that Nativity in the United States Does Not Always Confer Citizenship.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—The question as to whether a Chinese born on American soil is a citizen of the United States is to be tested in the courts. Wong Kim Ark came here recently from China, demanding a hearing on the ground that he is a native of California. The collector of the port, while admitting his nativity, refused him landing, claiming he is not an American citizen. This decision was in accordance with an arrangement already made with the attorney general, who is anxious to test the right of native born Chinese to land here. According to the contention of the government, a person born in the United States must at least be born of its little subject, owing foreign power, thus making it impossible to citizenship by birth unless the parent be an American citizen by birth, one must be born in America and of American parents. If this contention of the government is upheld, the standing of all people born of the United States of alien parents will be greatly affected. If the decision in the local courts is not favorable to the government, the case will be taken to the United States Supreme Court.

Placed in the Coffin Alive.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 30.—Charles Myers was hanged at Pomeroy today for the murder of Frank Sherry two years ago. Myers was convicted of selling fire to the Asotin Local at Asotin City, in which Sherry was burned to death. It was stated by some who witnessed the execution that life was not entirely extinct when the body was cut down, and that if an electric battery had been applied immediately the man could have been resuscitated, for a faint pulse and respiration, it is said, were perceptible when the body was placed in the coffin.

Good Government Clubs.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—There was a convention of the Good Government clubs of the city tonight to decide whether they should make a combination with the other forces opposed to Tammany Hall in the coming municipal election or put an independent ticket in the field. After much debate it was decided, by a vote of 79 to 46, each club having one vote, to make independent nominations.

The following ticket, recommended by the executive committee was placed in nomination: For county clerk, John T. Lockman; for register, Charles Hilverth; for justices of the supreme court, Hamilton Ofield and Meyer Isaacs; for judges of the court of general sessions, Thomas Allison and George H. Adams; for justices of the city court, Jonas A. Beach and Lewis L. Delafield.

Wheeler H. Peckham and Charles S. Fairchild were among those who took part in the meeting.

Harrison's Candidacy.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The recent interview with Hon. John C. New, stating that Mr. Harrison was not a candidate for the Presidency, and that the ex-President would not select Mr. McKinley or Mr. Reed if his advice were asked, has attracted marked attention in Washington among those who have been closely and officially associated with Mr. Harrison. Several of these gentlemen, including a member of the Harrison cabinet, conferred today with a view to correcting any misapprehension that may have arisen. As a result it was determined that Gen. Mortener, who with Gen. New was in charge of the interests of Mr. Harrison at the last Republican convention, would be asked to make a statement.

Gen. Mortener's statement as tonight given to the Associated Press is as follows: "I think Mr. New has been misquoted. The public certainly understands by this time that Gen. Harrison is in no sense a candidate for the nomination. Not being in the field there is nothing to withdraw from.

"That he would not select either Governor McKinley or Mr. Reed, if his advice were asked is simply the opinion of Mr. New, if correctly quoted, and it should not be taken as expressing the sentiments of the ex-President.

"The making of candidates is an art that he never practiced in the past, nor is he likely to engage in it at this time.

"The guesses or views or opinions of his friends should be treated as such, and let anything definite or accurate it would be well to await such expression or action as Gen. Harrison may see proper to give the public directly."

Southern Democrats Jeshing's Rulings.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 30.—Judge Sanborn of the United States circuit court this afternoon appointed the same receivers for the Northern Pacific road that were appointed by Judge Jenkins at Milwaukee last Friday, for the part of the road that lies in his jurisdiction. By doing so Judge Sanborn practically confirmed the rulings of Judge Jenkins on all matters that were brought before him as to the matter of primary jurisdiction, although he said he would not listen to any argument on the latter question, claiming that it was a matter for further adjudication.

A Free Wool Argument.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The adoption of free wool in the United States tariff law has resulted in advantage to the United States manufacturers, according to a report of United States Consul Gelbrenn at Uruguay. He points out that the shipments of Uruguay wools to the United States have largely increased by reason of the tariff change.

"This is greatly beneficial to the interests of the United States," he adds, "from the fact that the fine qualities raised here have never before reached the United States. As these fine wools cannot be produced in the United States, and are at the same time essential to the manufacture of various articles, it is evident that the cheaper they are made in our manufactories, the more they will be able to compete for the world's markets, as well as supply the home markets."

Important Homestead Decision.

TOPEKA, Sept. 30.—A special to the Capital from Emporia says: Judge Hazeldine of the district court handed down an important homestead decision today. He said that the homestead once acquired can be held by a single man, but was brought against A. M. Thompson, an old man whose wife is dead and whose children have left home, to seize the property of the homestead under a judgment. Judge Hazeldine has sustained an injunction in favor of Thompson. The case will be appealed.

Liquor Dealers' Revenge.

TUCKAHOE, N. J., Sept. 30.—Late last night a number of young men disinterred the corpse of a woman lying by the side of an open grave in the cemetery. On investigation it was found to be the body of Mrs. Mary Wallace, the deceased wife of a well known prohibitionist of this place. The appearance of the coffin showed that it had been roughly to died, and the body had been subjected to rough usage also. A ring was missing from one of the fingers. The news of the discovery spread like wildfire, and the town was soon in a ferment of excitement. An effort was made to learn the identity of the vandals, but without success. It is suspected that it is the work of revenge on the part of adherents of the liquor party, because of the attitude of the dead woman's husband on that question.

Victory for Religious Freedom.

BUDA PESTH, Sept. 30.—The lower house of the Hungarian Diet today adopted a bill providing for the recognition of the Jewish religion and the establishment of rights of worship.

In Favor of a Third Campaign.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The Times-Herald this morning publishes personal letters from seventy of the editors of great newspapers in all parts of the United States, the majority of whom favor a third presidential campaign. The same paper says:

"The national committeemen who will soon meet and settle this question need not go astray if they desire to record the wishes of their constituents, the people. If put to a test tomorrow 90 per cent of the voters would declare for a third campaign. The only opposition comes from the professional politicians, the professional corruptionists and their hired retainers. There are not wanting signs that the people are thoroughly tired and disgusted with the operations of these entities, who wish to patent an influence in shaping the policies of the national parties. If a long campaign and its attendant mischief is visited on the country, the blame will be placed where it belongs, and the parties will suffer the consequences."

Sympathy for Cuba.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—As much of the population as could find entrance to the auditorium of Central Music hall and the Y. M. C. A. auditorium tonight showed itself hostile to opposition of a series of resolutions, to which the United States government is asked to recognize the Cubans as belligerents. Such genuine enthusiasm has seldom been witnessed in this city.

Mayor George B. Swift presided at the main meeting in Central Music hall, while Judge William A. Vincent was chairman of the overflow meeting in the association building. Two seventy-five vice-presidents were selected twelve the patrons were chosen from among the leading business men of this city, and each one of them had previously expressed himself as in full accord with the object of the meetings.

Among telegrams from gentlemen who could not be present was one from Governor John P. Altgeld, and he ringing words called forth cheer after cheer.

Prof. L. D. Edwards, of Preston, Idaho, says: "I was all run down, weak, nervous and irritable through overwork. I suffered from headaches, mental depression, etc. I became so weak and nervous that I could not sleep. I could grow tired, discouraged and blue. I began taking
