RETRIBUTION.

Retribution follows on,
Treading surely every one.
None can shunnle "argus" eye,
None can cheat it with a lie.
It brings the pay to each man's door,
Be he rich or be he poor.
Be they high or be they low,
All must gather what they sow.

Justice some can forget—
Wrongs inflicted must be met.
Crime's true record it can trace
In the most dissembling face,
And injured innocence it sees,
Marks all merciless decrees.
Circumstances deep and dark
Cannot make it miss the mark.

Rob the laborer of his hire,
It will burn your soul like fire.
If you venture to oppress
Widow or the fatherless,
Though it be so 'gainst your will,
You will have to "foot the bill."
All such deeds are written down—
Justice yet will make them known.

If you teach the young to stray,
You for that will have to pay.
If you plant with thorns, the ground,
They will deal you many a wound.
On one other side of time
Expiation follows crime.
O'er death's river it pursues,
Claiming all unsettled dues.

If in trust you are not true,
You will find it from the clue.
Make amends, then, while you may,
Agree with all while in the way,
Ere you, with all the false and base,
Sink in sorrow and disgrace.
Seek not vainly to defeat
The retribution that must surely meet.

Virtue gains a good reward,
Vice's recompense is hard,
Righteousness will be the light,
By it seeks the close of night.
No good deed will lie concealed,
All acts and motives be revealed.
All will realize their worth
In the harvest of the earth.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 2.—The pending amendment to the bill is one making it read that the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to reserve from the Japanese indemnity fund the sum of $125,000, to be used in the manner hereinafter provided; and he is further authorized to pay over to the government of Japan the residue of said fund, etc.

Frelinghuysen spoke in favor of returning the fund, inclusive of $125,000 to be reserved to pay the officers and crews of the U.S. ships Wyoming and Jamestown for the destruction of piratical vessels in 1863, and the bombardment of hostile forts in the Straits of Shimonski in 1864. He spoke at length on the treaties with Japan, the history of the indemnity fund, etc., and argued that the money should be returned to Japan as a matter of justice.

Edmunds moved that the further consideration of the bill be postponed indefinitely.

Thurman said the action of the Wyoming and Jamestown was among the most gallant acts in the naval history of our country. He quoted from the reports of committees made heretofore to the House and Senate, and argued that it was on account of the valor displayed by the officers and crews of these vessels that the indemnity fund was paid to the U. S.

Edmunds argued that the U. S. had obtained the money upon just principles of public indemnity, and an exorbitant sum had not been exacted. Referring to the treaties made with Japan, he said that the Japanese made them without any intention of having them carried into effect. If the U. S. had not resorted to the exercise of power not one of the ports mentioned in those treaties would have been opened to the day. In conclusion he withdrew his motion to indefinitely postpone the bill.

The question then being to strike out the words—"If not compatible with the relations of the U. S. to other powers," it was agreed to.

Sargent moved to strike out the first section of the bill, which provides for the return of the fund to Japan after the deduction of $125,000 to pay the officers and crews of the Wyoming and Jamestown.

Pending the discussion the Senate adjourned.

EASTERN.

Schenck Re-examined.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 2.—General Schenck was before the committee on foreign affairs to-day. Representative Hewett placed in the hands of General Schenck the original letter he sent to the chairman of the Emma Mining Company, resigning his position as director, and also a copy of it in the handwriting of Park. Hewett said he was going to ask Park whether this was in his handwriting, but he did not do so because the gentleman admitted it. Hewitt examined General Schenck, who said he did not think that much explanation was required, but he expressed his satisfaction that these papers were published. Since the first of Dec. and before his resignation, which took place on the 6th of Dec., he had not been in communication with the directors and shareholders of the Emma Mining Company as such, and he had had no access to their papers. His letter of resignation, sent to the company, was all in his own handwriting, the date, the body and the signature, it was his own true composition, written at his own suggestion, without anybody's help. In writing out his resignation from the original draft, it seemed that he interpolated the words—"In consenting to become a director I know that I but exercised a private and individual right, in no way incompatible with my public or official duty, but I prefer to take away from some who have criticized me, even a pretext for their comments and attack."

Business in Alabama Claims.

The Court of Commissioners of the Alabama claims met to-day. The case of Joseph Brooks, of San Francisco, for the loss of merchandise by the destruction of the Louisiana, by the Shenandoah, was dismissed. In another case, for the loss of a vessel and cargo, a decision important to all shipping interests, was rendered. The Mortabibi, which was destroyed by the Alabama, was transferred to the British flag under a mortgage, really as a cover from capture, but Captain Semmes nevertheless burned the vessel. The opinion of Judge Reynor denies the validity of the mortgage, and takes the ground that the transfer was forced by the dangers incident to the reported presence of the Alabama, and that in fact it was a sham resorted to to deceive Semmes, of the confederate cruiser.

About Opening of Centennial.

The President transmitted to the House to-day the report of the president of the Centennial commission upon the ceremonies to be observed at the opening of the Exhibition on the 10th, and he calls attention to the invitation extended to the senators and representatives.

Land Office Decisions.

Copp's Landowner contains the following Land Office decisions:

Watson vs. the Missouri River and Fort Scott and Gulf R. R. Co. A pre-emptor's claim is not forfeited on account of failure to make payment within the time limited by law, there being no adverse claimant to the claim, and the tract is excepted from a grant to a railroad subsequently located.

The right to change from a pre-emption filing to a homestead entry is incident to and a part of the right given the pre-emptor at the time he initiates his claim, and upon the change being made it relates back to the date of his settlement, and such homestead entry is governed by the condition of the land at the date his pre-emption claim took effect; and if the land has become double the minimum in price he may homestead 160 acres, if the price was $1.25 per acre when settlement was made.

Queen vs. the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. The act of July 27, 1866, clearly intended to authorize the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to construct its road to San Francisco, and it gives the company the right to select the route that it should deem most suitable. The State of California could interfere if the road was built on a line not authorized by the State, but if that right were waived there was no power elsewhere to interpose. By the act of June 25, 1868, Congress treated this road as one created by its authority, and extended the time for its completion, and by a joint resolution of June 28, 1870, expressly gave its consent to the line of road indicated by the map filed in the General Land Office January 3d, 1867. The grant to this road took effect January 3d, 1867, when the map referred to above was filed in the General Land Office.

Exhibits in Place.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., 2.—It is now estimated that nine-tenths of all the exhibits for the Centennial Exhibition are now in place in the different departments.

Two Men Assassinated.

BATON ROUGE, La., 2.—A. Conquest Clarke, the governor's private secretary, received the following telegram this p.m.—

"Coushatta, May 2.

"Senator M. H. Twitchell was mortally wounded, and J. King, his brother-in-law, killed, while crossing the river at Coushatta, by an unknown party.

(Signed) "Lieut. WESHER,
"Clerk of the Court of Red River Parish."

Other dispatches state an unknown man rode through the town of Coushatta, to the river bank, and commenced firing with a repeating rifle at Twitchell and King, who were on a flat boat, being ferried over the river, with the result as above stated. The negro ferryman was also wounded. Senator Twitchell is one of the holding-over republican senators.

Going to the Black Hills.

NEW YORK, 2.—A Springfield special says—"A Black Hills party, numbering about 200 men, arrived here to-day, en route to Yankton, Dakotah, via Chicago. This expedition is part of the famous Black Hills company of last year, and has been organized at Springfield and at Austin. They will be joined by Wild Bill's expedition for the Big Horn, and Sattlel's Yellowstone colony, both from St. Louis, and by other parties along the route, and they expect to reach Yankton about 500 strong. The second detachment of the Arizona colony, 200 strong, also arrived here to-day, bound for the valley of the Colorado Chiquito, in central Arizona.

Fight with Soldiers and Indians.

OMAHA, 2.—The post trader at Ft. Hartsuff, Nebraska, reports a fight between several Indians and a small band of soldiers, twenty miles from the Fort, in which one Indian was killed, and Sergeant Dougherty, Co. A., 23d Infantry, was shot through the head and also instantly killed. The Indians retreated.

Murder.

A special dispatch from Seward, Neb., to the Herald, this morning, says that Nathan Clough, aged 49, brother of the proprietor of the Blue Valley House, was found murdered in bed this morning; his head was crushed in with three heavy blows from an axe, and a deep gash was cut in the left cheek.

Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, 2.—Chas. D. Affleck, cashier of the Bremen Savings Bank, who disappeared on Saturday last, was found in the river at the foot of Brooklyn St., this p.m.; a large rock was found buttoned inside his coat, and there is now no doubt that he committed suicide.

An Election Fight.

INDIANAPOLIS, 2.—The republicans carried the city election today, by a large majority, electing eleven out of thirteen councilmen. After the closing of the polls a serious fight was commenced near the Sixth ward voting place, which was continued northward on Illinois Street, to the vicinity of the Grand and Bates hotel, when it assumed the character of a riot, lasting for twenty or thirty minutes, resulting in the killing of one and probably the fatally injuring of two colored men. There are at present eight wounded persons at the Surgical Institute and several others, blacks and whites, are known to have been taken to their homes more or less hurt.

WESTERN.

Finance of the Comstock.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—In reference to the erroneous statements heretofore published concerning the gold and silver production of the Comstock lode, in many of which the bullion product of the entire State of Nevada has been credited to the Comstock, the Bulletin publishes, editorially, a carefully collected estimate, which shows that the total bullion product of the Comstock, from its discovery to the beginning of the present year, in round numbers, is two hundred millions, of which eighty millions is gold.

Want no More Coolies.

A dispatch from Victoria says that the question of taking steps to prevent further Chinese immigration will come up in the House on Wednesday; the subject is exciting great interest. The meeting held last night was largely attended, and strong anti-Coolie sentiments were expressed, and a petition was adopted asking the legislature to impose a capitation tax of thirty dollars on each Chinaman going to the Cassair mines.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Mutineers Indicted—Strikers Resume Work.

LONDON, 2.—The grand jury of the central criminal court have returned a true bill against the mutineers of the Lennie; the trial is set down for to-morrow, and is expected to last three or four days.

Three thousand iron workers of Sheffield, who were on strike, have resumed work at reduced wages.

A Speech by Disraeli.

In the House of Commons, to-night, Disraeli, in a vehement speech denounced as calumnious the statement by Lowe, at a liberal meeting in Retford, that the Queen had asked two previous premiers to introduce a bill changing the royal titles, but that both had refused. He denied the truth of the statement as far as it concerned himself and the late Earl of Derby, and cited a letter from Gladstone denying that the Queen ever made such a proposal. In conclusion Disraeli made a statement on behalf of the Queen that Lowe's assertion was utterly unfounded.

TURKEY.

A Big Battle.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 2.—Mukhtar Pasha reports, by telegraph, that he has returned to Gatschko, after another sanguinary engagement. He hopes that his victory will lead to the termination of the rebellion. He says that in the last battle, which was fought on Sunday while the troops were on the march to Gatschko, the insurgents numbered 16,000 and lost 1,000 killed and wounded in addition to 400 on the previous two days. The Turks throughout the expedition lost 85 killed and 161 wounded. He declares that the victory was decisive.

RAGUSA, 2.—Sclavonic accounts of the battle of Sunday assert that Mukhtar Pasha was defeated and compelled to take refuge in Gatschko, and that in four days fighting he lost 2,500 killed, while the insurgents lost only 400.

FRANCE.

Petitions for Pardon.

PARIS, 2.—McMahon, who has received many petitions for the pardon of political offences, has announced that any petition which does not emanate from the convict himself will be summarily rejected.

GERMANY.

Railway Bill Passed.

BERLIN, 2.—In the Prussian Chamber of Deputies, to-day, the railway bill passed its third reading by a vote of 216 to 160. To the bill are appended the resolutions proposed by Herr Lasker, asking the government, simultaneously with the cession of the Prussian railways, to transfer to the empire all Prussia's right of supervision over them.

SPAIN.

Cannot Have Special Privileges.

MADRID, 2.—Minister Canovas del Castillo has informed the delegates from the north, who waited upon him and urged the preservation of the Fueros, that the Basque provinces and Navarre must submit to the conscription and pay their taxes like other provinces; the delegates asked time to consider, and Canovas granted them five days.

Rocky Mountain Pills,

A VALUABLE MEDICINE,

From New and Rare Medicinal Plants recently discovered in the Rocky Mountains!

PURELY VEGETABLE.

FIFTEEN years of earnest botanical research among these mountains and valleys have resulted in the discovery, not only of many new varieties of plants, but of few species, some of which have wonderful medicinal curative properties. By continued experiments their virtues have become known—and thus from extracts of these newly discovered plants are these pills compounded.

If properly used, they will cure very many diseases, pains and aches, and are more especially valuable in DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINTS, INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE, and all cases of FEVERS, COLDS, URINARY AND KIDNEY DISEASES, RHEUMATISM, COSTIVENESS, HEARTBURN, DIARRHŒA, MUMPS, measles, for PURIFYING THE BLOOD, and for many other diseases, and all cases of BILIOUSNESS and DISORDERED STOMACH.

On orders accompanied by the cash or postal order, I will send safely by mail, postpaid, a box Pills for 25 cents, 1 dozen boxes, $2.50; 1 gross boxes, $24.00.

J. E. JOHNSON,
St. George, Utah.
