OBITUARY.

Sketch of the life and ministry of Bishop David Evans. David Evans' the son of Israel and Abigail Evans, was born in Cecil County Maryland, October 17th, 1804. When a small boy his parents moved to Pennsylvania, where he remained until 1826, when he was married to Mary Beck, and moved to Richland, County, Ohio. Here he bought and opened up a new farm, where he lived until he was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, April 6th, 1833. On the 11th of the same month he was ordained a Priest, and immediately commenced traveling and preaching, selling his farm to enable him to prosecute his missionary labors. He was ordained to the office of an Elder on the 21st of July, same year.

In 1834 he went in Zion's Camp from Ohio to Missouri, with Joseph Smith the Prophet, for the redemption of Zion, and received his ordination to the First Quorum of Seventies, under the hands of Joseph Smith and Sidney Rigdon, April 29th, 1835. He attended the School of the Prophets in Kirtland, in the winter of 1835 and 1836, and on May 20th, 1836, left Ohio for Missouri, in charge of a company of Saints, most of whom he baptized himself. He settled on Shoal Creek, Caldwell County, buying some land and again making him a home; was with the Saints through all their persecutions in Missouri, among which was the barbarous massacre at Haun's Mill. In December he was compelled to leave the State without his family, who shortly after followed, leaving all their property behind. Arriving at Payson, Adams County, Ill., in the spring of 1839, he commenced preaching and baptized many persons, some of whom are now prominent members in the Church. Here he lost his wife, June 20th, 1841, after which he moved to Nauvoo and married Barbara Ann Ewell, November 23d, 1841. She being a member of a family he baptized in Missouri. In 1842, when Nauvoo was organized into Wards, he was ordained a Bishop, August 21st, to preside over the Eleventh Ward. He remained there until the Saints were driven from Nauvoo, when he was appointed Captain of a company, many of the members remaining with the company until its arrival in the valleys, September 15th, 1850.

Moved to Lehi, Feb, 15, 1851, over which place he was appointed to preside as Bishop, the duties of which he faithfully performed for 28 years, tendering his resignation August 24, 1879, on account of old age and failing health. He located the city of Lehi, and laid it off in blocks and lots with a pocket compass, tape line and square. Was elected to the first Legislature in Utah, and acted for many years in connection with that body. He was Colonel of militia, served as Mayor of Lehi several terms, and held other responsible positions. His death occurred June 23rd, at 12.30 p.m. For several days he was well, and on Tuesday, June 19, at 1 p.m. he received a heavy paralytic stroke, which completely paralyzed his whole right side, rendering him helpless and speechless, in which condition he remained until his death.

The funeral services were held in the Lehi Tabernacle at 3 p.m. Sunday, June 24th. A special train was dispatched from Salt Lake City, for the benefit of his friends and acquaintances, among whom were President Woodruff, Bishop Hunter, and others; also many came from Provo and adjacent settlements. The services were conducted by President Smoot, and addresses were made by Bishop Hunter, President Woodruff, Bishops Hardy, Burton, and others. After the services the remains were carried to the cemetery, followed by a numerous procession, numbering 115 vehicles containing the relatives and friends of the deceased, this being the largest cortege ever formed in Lehi. Bishop Evans is the father of 41 children, 30 of whom are living, the grandfather of 102 children, 65 of whom are living, and the great-grandfather of 22, all living.
