DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Friday, October 7, 1892.

With the News' Compliments.

Friends and patrons of the DESERET NEWS are cordially invited, during their sojourn in the city, to call at this office and receive gratis a copy of the daily issue.

FRAGMENTS.

COUNTERFEIT silver dollars are being extensively circulated in this city. Look out for them. The police are picking them up daily.

JOYS at this particular time the city's population figures up pretty high—high enough to justify the registration list and more, too.

ALBERT H. KELLY, Councilman-elect from the Second precinct, to succeed S. C. Ewing, will take his seat in the City Council tonight.

FREIGHT Traffic Manager Monroe, of the Union Pacific, with headquarters at Omaha, Nebraska, is in the city on business.

CHARLIE ROBINSON, a colored boy of thirteen years, was landed in jail this afternoon for "sneaking" into the Fair grounds.

A. H. KIMLERT was adjudged guilty this afternoon by Justice Orr of assault and battery. As punishment an assessment of $5 was levied.

CITY COUNCIL STENOGRAPHER VANDERBROOK and wife have returned from their New York trip and "Van" has returned to his official duties.

THE City Council will hold an adjourned session tonight to consider the paving award to the Cummer-Jennings company as let by the Board of Public Works.

W. A. HIGGINS today assayed a sample from ten tons of ore from the Utah mine. It showed 49 per cent. lead and 132 ounces silver. He also had 700 tons of Horn silver in charge.

REMEMBER the meeting of the Primary Association this evening in the Assembly Hall at 7 o'clock sharp. Dr. J. E. Talmage will deliver a lecture. Everybody is invited.

A YOUNG "News" reporter trying his hand on the Fair succeeded in the manuring editor today by handing in an item reading—"The dog show is enough to make Canaan's mouth water."

GEORGE M. OTTINGER has been appointed as aid to the marshal of the Columbus Brennan, who parades on Columbus Day at the grand celebration to be held in New York on Oct. 12.

THE remains of A. M. Mowrey, who died in this city yesterday of heart disease, were forwarded to Milford by Undertaker S. D. Evans over the Union Pacific this morning. The deceased was an old resident in Southern Utah and was well and widely known.

HARRY GAYES, a cadney with an unusually black skin was arraigned before Justice Orr this afternoon on a charge of assaulting a dusky damsel on Commercial street. The complaining witness failed to appear and the case was dismissed.

SERVICES at the Jewish temple, Fourth East, between Second and Third south, will commence promptly at 7:30 this evening. Rev. Charles Fleischer, professor of the Rabbinical Hebrew Union college of Cincinnati, will occupy Rabbi Leonard's pulpit. His subject will be "True Religion."

THE JUVENILE TABERNACLE CHOIR BAND serenaded the DESERET NEWS office this afternoon, playing Hail Columbia and a couple of other selections quite creditably. The little fellows have new, natty uniforms and are well drilled by their instructor, Mr. H. C. Barrell. The band will be heard in the Tabernacle concert tomorrow night.

THE explosion of a kerosene lamp in the room of Mrs. Ada Henry caused a fire which damaged the Cullmer-Emmott block on First South street, at 10 o'clock last night, to the amount of several hundred dollars. The fire department turned out in good shape and prevented a disastrous conflagration. The building and fixtures were fully insured.

For the benefit of those interested it might be well to announce that the fall races are now in progress at the West Side Driving Park. The attendance is meager and the races rather "tame." This is in all probability due to the fact that the meeting has not been opened by Secretary Parkinson evening numbers his resignation owing to some difficulty he had with President Isaac Mahoney.

HENRY HUSGAKE, of Moab, Grand county, called at the office last evening, bringing with him some magnificent specimens of apples and grapes raised in his own orchard at that place. They were as large and well flavored as any similar fruit in the Territory and should have been placed on exhibition at the Fair. Peaches and apples weighing a pound each have been raised at Moab this year.

THE articles of incorporation of the Bluebeyes Mining company have been filed with the county clerk. The capital stock is $500,000, divided into shares of $1 each. Salt Lake is to be the principal place of business. The stockholders are: Jonathan W. Green, 65,000 shares; A. E. Hyde, 10,167; John Beck, 10,167; Truman Schenck, 10,166; E. V. Taylor, 1,000; W. J. Beatie, 5,000. Two hundred shares are set apart as treasury stock, to be disposed of as may hereafter be designated. The company owns the Victoria, Salt Lake City, Buckeye, D. H. Green, Parallel, and Prosper mines, all in the Tintic district, on the west slope of the Rising Sun mountain. A. E. Hyde is president; John Beck, vice-president; Truman Schenck, treasurer; Frank V. Taylor, Jonathan W. Green, directors; W. J. Beatie, secretary.

THE OGDEN CREMATORY.

Mayor Turner's First Report on the Operations of That Institution.

The patient public of Salt Lake are wondering how long they will have to wait for the completion and operation of the city crematory which caused so much talk in municipal circles lately. The incinerating process of disposing of garbage in Ogden seems to be an unqualified success. Regarding it Mayor William H. Turner says:

OGDEN, October 5th.

To the Hon. President and members of Ogden City Council:

Gentlemen—Below please find statement of work done by the city crematory during the month of September, 1892. This statement is compiled from daily reports made by the men in charge of the crematory made to me on my orders to him to keep correct account of all garbage and other matter burned in and put into crematory: 227 wagon loads of garbage, 25 barrels of night soil, 16 loss of butchers' meat, etc., 4 thousand of horses, 1 carcasses of cows, 11 carcasses of dogs, 1 wagon load hide clippings, 4 cases spoiled lemons, 5 kegs spoiled pigs' feet, 1 ot spoiled bologna sausage. Making an average of about 4½ cubic yards.

Cost of running crematory for September was as follows:

Thirty-six days' run, $2.50 per day for man in charge	$90.00
Six and one-half tons coal used at sunset	32.50
Total	$122.50

Average cost per cubic yard about 27¼ cents.

The cost can be materially reduced if the public will use more care in keeping the destructible garbage away from the indestructible. Cans, glass bottles, tin cans, etc., should not be put with other garbage, as these things will not burn and they clog up the furnace and make other garbage harder and longer to burn.

I have given these items to the papers and trust the information to the public may have a good effect.

I am glad to be able to state that the general health of the city is unusually good, am glad also to state that since the crematory has been running complaints to me about existing smells and nuisances have been much less frequent than before.

IN POLITICAL CIRCLES.

What Local Parties and Partisans are Doing.

Fusion talk is still rife, but nothing tangible appears.

E. E. Cowdell, W. L. H. Dotson and Louis Lessing, stalwart Democrats of Beaver county and delegates to the Provo convention, are enjoying the sights and events of the metropolis.

The Liberal precinct conventions were held in this city last evening and full delegations to the Territorial and county conventions were chosen. They also nominated precinct officers.

John M. Cannon, an attorney of Brigham City and the Republican candidate for county attorney, was in town today circulating among friends. He thinks the vote of Box Elder is close enough to make it a very interesting fight.

Republican headquarters have been established in the Guthrie block on Twenty-fourth street, Ogden, and every preparation is being made for the grand rally on Tuesday, Oct. 11. Among the features will be a band of lady riders on horseback. Republicans are to jubilate in grand style.

It seems the Standard made a mistake regarding its announcement of Mr. Kneff's candidacy, which as corrected reads as follows:

While differing with you in your conclusion that a Liberal candidate could not be elected, allow me to correct your statement that I would allow my name to be presented for the mayoralty, and say for me that under no circumstances which could arise will I accept a nomination for office.

Respectfully,

FRED J. KNEFF.

A Denial that is Creditable.

It now transpires that the statement attributed to Vice-President Mohler of the Southern Pacific, to the effect that he would not meet any committee of which Secretary S. W. Scott was a member, said committee having in hand the adjustment of differences between the railroads and the shippers of this city, and being the outgrowth of the suit instituted by the Chamber of Commerce through its transportation bureau, was made without authority and is totally without foundation. The purpose of those who circulated the story is best known to themselves; but the reflection upon Mr. Stubbs, whose friends claim him to be honorable as an enemy and courageous even in defeat, would appear to be wholly unjustifiable.

German Meeting.

There was a well attended meeting of the German Saints in the Assembly Hall last night. President Arnold Schultheis presided. Elder Karl G. Maeser was the first speaker. He exhorted the Saints to lead pure and holy lives and thus show to the world that they were saints indeed.

He was followed by Apostle Abraham Cannon, who referred to the missionary work done in Germany and the great amount of labor yet to be done. His remarks were full of interest and encouragement. Elders Edward and Frederick W. Schoenfeld and Jacob Spelt also addressed the meeting, during the course of which the life and labors of the late Adolf Haag were feelingly referred to.

Says She is a Christian.

Frankie Beal, a well dressed and apparently cultured octoroon, was in the police court this afternoon on the charge of soliciting on the streets. She quietly but firmly declared that she was innocent. She said that her husband was one of the head waiters at the Templeton. She said she was a Christian and had been well raised. When asked where she was married, she replied "At Butte, Montana, where I was also married and confirmed a member of the Episcopalian faith by Bishop Tuttle." The case was continued until tomorrow afternoon.

A Juvenile Dusky Terror.

Charles Brown, a gritty little "coon" of about thirteen or fourteen years of age, made his way into the Fair grounds this afternoon but he was detected by a watchman who followed him up and attempted to put him out. The lad swore up and down that he paid to come in and refused to go out, whereupon the watchman lathered him in his arms with the intention of putting him out. The little fellow was too much for him and the harder he tried to get his burden to the door the farther he got away. He called upon a fellow-on to help him but they got their shins barged and licked so much that it was necessary for them to call for more assistance. After a struggle of about fifteen minutes three men finally got the intruder to the door where he was put in charge of the police and taken to the City Hall in the hurry-up wagon.

Returned Missionary.

Elder S. K. McMurdie, of Paradise, Cache County, Utah, called at the NEWS office last night having recently returned from a mission to Great Britain for which part of the world he left his home September 3rd, 1890. He labored constantly in the Birmingham Conference, England, and enjoyed his ministerial duties very much. He returns in fair health and excellent spirits.

LATEST NEWS.

Dastardly Attempt to Murder Non-Union Men.

A REPORTER AMONG ROBBERS.

Report of the Commander of the French Forces in Dahomey.

SILVER CERTIFICATES ACTIVE.

Foreign Missions—Funeral of Roman—Mrs. Harrison's condition.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 7.—A dastardly attempt was made last night to murder about forty non-union men in their beds. A dynamite bomb was thrown through the window of a boarding house where many non-union men lodged, about 2 o'clock this morning. It exploded with great force, seriously damaging the building, but as the force was downward, none of the inmates, who were sleeping on the upper floor, suffered anything more serious than a bad scare.

AN ENTERPRISING REPORTER.

He Visits Two Robbers in Their Mountain Retreat.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—An Examiner reporter has visited and interviewed the fugitive train robbers, Evans and Sontag in their almost inaccessible fastness of the Sierra mountains, Fresno county. They told him of their wanderings and adventures since their fatal fight with the officers of the law at Jim Young's, August 7th. They are now comfortably situated with a full winter's supply of provisions.

BATTLE WITH SAVAGES.

Account of a Fight Between the French and Dahomeyans.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Colonel Dodds, commander of the French forces operating against King Behanzin of Dahomey, telegraphs the minister of marine an account of a battle with the Dahomeyans, October 4th. The French formed a road through the forest and attacked the Dahomeyans on the flank. The native were in a strong position, and a desperate fight followed, lasting an hour, at the end of which the natives fled in disorder, pursued by the French. They left many dead on the field, including twenty Amazons. Five Europeans were killed and twenty-three wounded. Three Senegalese allies were killed and thirteen wounded.

SILVER CERTIFICATES.

Unusual Activity at the Stock Exchange Today.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—There was unusual activity in silver certificates at the stock exchange this morning, over 100,000 ounces changing hands at 84@85. The purchases were due to the hopeful views expressed by Jesse Seligman, special commissioner of the United States who just returned from Europe, in regard to the international monetary conference.

MISSIONARY DIRECTORS.

A Conservative and a Liberal Element in the Board.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions reconvened this morning. The fellows reported the election of the entire list for officers voted on last night. Then the battle between the Conservatives and Liberals began. Rev. Dr. Stone, who has been elected president, arose and said he was unwilling to accept the position until the board had defined its position on the issue upon which missionaries would be sent abroad. Acting under the rules made at the meetings at New York and Minneapolis the board had full that it was not justified in sending out young men to teach the heathen the doctrine of probation after death. He was willing to interpret the rules liberally, and commissioned men who would say that they knew nothing as to post mortem salvation, leaving the question to God; but he could not accept the presidency if the board was to allow missionaries to teach that kind of salvation affirmately.

A resolution was introduced reaffirming the New York and Minneapolis rules liberally applied.

Professor Smythe of Andover the leader of the liberals, declared the rules had not been liberally interpreted. He said liberal men who had been sent out by the ministry had been excluded from missionary work, the standard of work had been steadily lowered for years.

The matter was further discussed at length by Joseph H. Cook and D. Webb of the conservatives, and Dr. Hunt and Dr. Washington Gladden of the Liberals, and adjourned.

The resolution was finally adopted and Dr. Storrs accepted the presidency. After some further unimportant business the meeting adjourned.

ERNEST RENAN.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of the Renowned Rationalist.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—The funeral of Ernest Renan was held this morning in the College of France. Many eminent men attended. There were, of course, no religious services. A funeral oration was delivered by M. Bourgeois, minister of public instruction. He expressed the hope that the remains would be finally buried in the Pantheon. The only speech allowed for the time being in the cemetery of Mont Martre.

Mrs. Harrison.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Harrison slept fairly well last night. She was comparatively comfortable this morning.

ANTI-TYSIONISTS.

A Convention Which is Not Poorly Attended.

TOPEKA, KANS., Oct. 7. — The straight-out Democrats, who protest against the fusion made by the Democratic party with the Populists at the convention last July, at which it was agreed to vote for the People's party state ticket in return for the support of the People's party for the Democratic electoral ticket, assembled here today. In numbers the convention was a disappointment to the projectors.

The convention was called for ten o'clock, and the attendance was so slim at that hour that it was decided to wait until 11:30 in the hope that the morning trains would bring in more delegates. When that time came it was decided to attempt only a preliminary organization in the morning and wait till the afternoon trains arrived.

M. Mitchell called the meeting to order and introduced A. A. Harris of Fort Scott, as chairman. In a speech he outlined the policy which the convention was expected to pursue. It was simply to register a protest and absolve the Democrats from all allegiance to the July convention. Recess till this afternoon.

A Suit About Property.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 7.—Vice-Chancellor rendered the opinion in the case of A. E. McClaran, executor of Heath and Torney of New York, against Henry T. Smith. The suit was for the recovery of property to satisfy judgment. The vice-chancellor grants the prayer of the complainant. The transfer is set aside and the property reverts back to Smith to be seized to satisfy a judgment for $900,848.

FOSTER BREATHS EASIER.

Financial Prospects Brightening Up Again.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Secretary Foster of the treasury is breathing easier over the condition, says a Washington dispatch to the Herald, than he has any time since the adjournment of the billion dollar Congress a year and a half ago. The prospect of getting through another fiscal year without putting on new taxes or borrowing money to run the government is far brighter than for many months. The very thing which the McKinley act was passed to prevent, the increase in the imports of merchandise, is what is giving the secretary hope. For many months after the McKinley bill was put in the statute books, the imports declined, the customs receipts fell off under the influence of higher duties, but a rebound has come and proved again that the laws of trade are even stronger than those of a republican congress. The customs receipts for September jumped from $14,125,540 in 1890 to $17,209,947 this year's and the receipts for the quarter ending September 30 increased $9,000,000, and made those for the last quarter a round $100,000,000. This may not mean $400,000,000 for the year, but in the opinion of the treasurer it means a close approach to that figure. And it appears that it will be enough to keep the treasury from a deficit before July 1st, next.

The expenditures for the last quarter were $89,247,963, but except in the item of pensions, they were kept below the figures a year ago. The pension expenditures continue to be a cloud on the horizon, and instead of being no bigger than a man's hand, they are as big as half a million of hands reaching out for the bounty of the nation. The expenditures for pensions during the last quarter were $81,367,574, which indicates a total of $105,000,000 for the year. The House of Representatives originally proposed to appropriate $135,000,000. The Senate raised it to $147,000,000, but it is evident that a deficiency of at least $10,000,000 will have to be covered at the short session this winter.

The net cash balance, when the appropriations of Heed's Congress expired on June 30, was $9,002,077. It has now been pulled up to $31,305,018. The actual situation is even better than this difference would indicate. For the items of money in the banks and worn out silver have been reduced, with a corresponding increase in money for immediate use. These two items footed up about $27,000,000 on June 30, while they now are reduced to $24,000,000. The mass of free money on the books now is, therefore, nearly $3,000,000 where a little while ago there was less than nothing. Secretary Foster is a man of book keeping and there are other sums in the treasury set against the liabilities, which help to keep the treasury from practical bankruptcy.

THE ENGLISH POET.

His Remains Will Rest in the Poets' Corner, West Minster Abbey.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Tennyson's funeral services will be held in the parish church of Haslemere on Monday. The body will be buried in the Poets' Corner of West Minster Abbey, on Wednesday, next by Browning's.

Hanged for Murder.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct 7.—Bonnie Marple was hanged at Lafayette, Ga., for the murder of Nehemiah Irvine. He protested his innocence of the scaffold.

A New Lightkeeper Tender for the Pacific.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The new lightkeeper tender Columbine, destined for service on the North Pacific coast, will sail from New York for that station next week under command of Lieutenant-Commander West, of the United States navy. She will stop en route at Rio de Janeiro Montevideo, Valparaiso and San Francisco, and is expected to reach Portland in about seventy days.

Two Murderers Executed.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Oct. 7.—John Williams, colored, who killed Major Hindman, this city, in September, 1891; and Milley Brown, colored, 15 years old, who killed an infant child at Gaffney City, in June, were hanged here on the same scaffold today.

Good for the Young Men of the West.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 7.—The Protestant Episcopal Convention today resumed the revision of the prayer book. After a time it laid the matter aside to listen to the Central Missionary Board. Several missionary addresses were then read, the first from Bishop Nichols, describing the mission to the Pacific coast. He said when he first went there he expected to find nothing but a people steeped in vice and sin but he was glad to find the young men of the west had not forgotten their God.

The Bicycle Record Broken.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 7.—W. W. Windle, the bicycler, rode a mile this afternoon with a flying start in 2:02 2-5, beating his own and the world's previous record of 2:04 4-5. The trial was made in a strong wind. He was paced by two tripets, each taking him half a mile. Not only did he beat the mile record, but the half mile time of 59 4-5. Time by quarters: first, 29 2-5; half 59 4-5; three-quarters 1:30 4-5, mile 2:02 2-5.

The Venezuelan War.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—A dispatch from Admiral Walker confirms the report of the victory of General Crespo in Venezuela. It says the President and ministry have abandoned the country. Crespo takes possession of Caracas today.

Three Officers Killed by Moonshiners.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 7.—In a fight with moonshiners in Lincoln county this morning, S. D. Mather, deputy internal revenue collector, was killed and George Spurrier and C. S. Caswell, his deputies, were mortally wounded. No particulars.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

W. B. Hellins & Co. of New York today received from the Speyer syndicate the collaterals of the Georgia Central, paying $30,000,000 in cash.

It is reported that W. R. Grace, on behalf of himself and the New York anti-snappers, today contributed $100,000 to the Democratic national campaign fund.

Anna Tribble, unmarried, colored, was hanged today at Newberry, S. C., for the murder of her infant.
