WAKEMAN'S WANDERINGS.

Dotheboys Hall.

[SIXTY MILES AND MOUNDS OUT.

Special Correspondence of the DESERET NEWS.

Probably the greatest immediate and lasting good ever done any nation by a single work of fiction was effected by the "Nicholas Nickleby" of Charles Dickens.

During the early part of the present century the private schools, and parentary the private schools of England, probably the boys' schools of England, with a few notable exceptions like that of Eton, were the most heinous institutions of learning, were the most heinous institutions of learning, were the most heinous institutions of learning