OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JUNE 10, 1895.

Junction City Notes.

A party consisting of three gentlemen and one lady came in this morning on the Southern Pacific train and attracted considerable notice on the platform at the depot, it being reported that one was Lord Douglass, son of the Marquis of Queensbury, accompanied by his actress bride, but "My Lord" denied the impeachment, and said he was from Australia.

Prof. William Allison has been elected superintendent of the city schools and is receiving the congratulations of his many friends. Mr. Allison was born in Utah and is a graduate of the Utah University. For the past two years he has been principal of the Grant avenue school. His selection gives general satisfaction.

The case of James A. Wright against the Southern Pacific occupied the attention of the Fourth district court on Saturday and no doubt will continue for several days. The suit is to recover $60,000 damages.

A marriage license was issued to Benjamin Birdwell, 21, and Miss Edith Hogge, 19, both of West Weber.

This evening, at the Grand opera house, Colonel Peyton delivers his lecture, "The New Woman."

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - JUNE 10, 1895.

Accidents.

Several accidents have occurred during the latter part of the week. Late on Wednesday evening a twelve-year-old son of J. W. Colby, of Mendon, while playing, ran against a wire fence, and the barbs, as he fell sideways, badly cut his throat. He had a narrow escape from death, as the carotid artery was barely missed.

On Thursday afternoon, Oliver Hansen, of Hyrum, nearly cut his foot off with an axe, which entered at the upper part of the instep and went almost entirely through the foot, to the sole. His companions took him home, about thirty miles, arriving there about four o'clock in the morning.

Lucifer, a valuable colt belonging to L. R. Martineau, which carried off a prize at the races in Ogden, had to be killed yesterday. It was being trained on the race track, when it became excited, flew the track, ran against a mowing machine and broke a leg.

Among Our Educators.

The close of the school year is naturally a busy time for teachers and scholars, and our school men have and will be busy during the last and coming week. Last week witnessed the imposing closing ceremonies of the school year at the Agricultural College, when on three separate occasions the large chapel was filled by friends of the school. The first occasion was when Hon. O. F. Whitney delivered the baccalaureate sermon, and the next was at the meeting of the College Literary society, when a fine program of vocal and instrumental music, pantomimes, tableaux, elocutionary gems, and the Mexie drill by the lady students was rendered. The latter was executed with machine-like precision and bewitching grace. The tableaux and pantomimes were beautiful, and the entire program was excellent. Next came the commencement exercises proper, of which the thesis by W. F. Culmer, a graduate of the civil engineering department, on the subject of "Irrigation in Utah," the oration of Louis A. Merrill, a graduate of the agricultural course, on "The scientific worker as a benefactor of mankind," and the fine address of President Paul to the graduates, were the most notable features. The Alumni and the students' ball completed the year's exercises.

This will be B. Y. College week. On Wednesday evening the Alumni association will be addressed by its president, in the college building, after which its third annual banquet will be given at the Hanks hotel. E. G. Davis, of the class of '94, will be toastmaster, and the toasts are: "Our Alma Mater," "the youngest members of our family," "the critic," "the graduates of long ago," "our visiting alumni," "education under difficulties," and "the faculty." On Thursday the commencement exercises will be held in the Opera house, and a fine program has been prepared for the occasion.

On Saturday the commencement exercises of the district schools will be held. Prof. E. G. Gowans will deliver the address and present the certificates; remarks will be made by County Superintendent Oldham; a Richmond pupil will deliver the valedictory, and a nice miscellaneous program will be rendered.

The meeting of the Teachers' Institute on Saturday was well attended, and a profitable meeting held. Prof. J. H. Paul lectured on "The Professional Advancement of Teachers," and Prof. W. J. Kerr addressed the teachers on "The Morals and Manner of Teachers." Commissioner T. B. Lewis also gave them some good advice.

Wells in attendance at the closing exercises of the A. C. of U., the board of directors held meetings during two days. The resignations of Professors Scholl and Twombly were accepted. Dr. Fischer, of the Ohio University, was appointed to take charge of the veterinary department in Prof. Twombly's stead, and Joseph Jensen, a Cache valley man and a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of technology with the title B. M. E., will succeed Prof. Scholl in the mechanic arts department. Many additions are to be made to the college apparatus.

Professors William H. Apperly and W. O. Gowans have resigned their positions in the B. Y. College. Prof. Gowans goes east to take a course in medicine. Prof. Apperly has not announced his intentions.

Social and Other News.

The social event of the week was the marriage of J. W. Hyde, city editor of the Journal, to Miss Florence Kimball, the ceremony being performed in the Temple. The bride is a daughter of Hon. Joseph and Mrs. Kimball, and in the evening a reception and supper were given at the residence of the bride's parents, which was duplicated on Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Annie L. Hyde.

Burke & Fraser, after feeding their beef steers all winter on the best alfalfa hay, with an allowance of twenty-four pounds of wheat per head, have shipped three train loads, about $45,000 worth, to their headquarters in Omaha, and have still one train load left. No such cattle were ever before seen here, except at the A. C. of U. experiment station.

The Sportsman's club has been reorganized for the year, and detectives hired to patrol the streams in search of violators of the law. Numbers of fish are lost annually by running through the canals, following the small ditches, and finally getting out on dry land. Another cause of complaint is the lack of the fishways required by law where streams are dammed. These, and a number of other questions will be considered by the club, and vigorous action taken.

Two of Elder M. W. Merrill's sons were married on Thursday. Louis A., who had just graduated with the title B. S., married Miss Effie Eastgo, of Brigham City, and Ezra J. Merrill married Miss Mary A. McCann, of Logan.

Wash. Young and J. A. Greenwall carry the palm as long distance bicycle riders, having left Salt Lake at 11 a.m., and arrived here at 6:15 p. m.

Mrs. Crasler, 35 years of age, and E. D. Miles, 81 years of age, both of Paradise, are suffering from measles, which is popularly supposed to be a child's malady.

Judge Wattum is recovering from quite a severe attack of tonsilitis, complicated with symptoms of typhoid.

"ORANGE BOVEN!"

ORANGE FOREVER!

Was the war cry of William the Silent, and it broke the yoke the Spanish and French invaders had placed upon the Netherlands. "Orange Boven" became a veritable terror to the enemy and roused the troops of the silent King" to superhuman efforts. The "Stearns-Smalley" colors are "Orange and Black." Our slogan is "Orange Boven," Orange Forever, and CONIBEAR, THATCHER, SCHEPSKI, wear the "Stearns-Smalley" colors in the class B races of Decoration day. "Watch the sunlight glisten on the Orange and Black." No trouble to tell when the men of our team are in the race. Even on the back stretch you can see the Orange and Black, no matter how "bunched" the riders may be.
