OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

Special Correspondence.

Ogden, Feb. 13.—Tom Tobeson will be at the Grand Opera house tonight.

General Manager J. A. Stephens and superintendent of Motive Power H. J. Small, of the Southern Pacific, arrived in the city yesterday.

W. H. Cowston returned yesterday morning from Idaho. He will return there soon and locate in Lewiston and engage in the newspaper business.

Postmaster Island, who has been confined to his home for more than a week with la grippe, is getting better and will be on duty within two or three days.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to A. J. Stoddard, aged 23, and Miss Edith Parker, aged 21, both of Hooper.

Snow along the line in Wyoming and Nebraska continues to delay the Union Pacific trains. The train from the East due at 1:40 p. m. did not arrive until 3:30 p. m. yesterday.

The Ogden Journal, which has been issued by W. Cheesman, will hereafter be published by the Standard publishing company, of which it is now the sole owner, the latter of more than ninety-five per cent of the company's stock.

A child of Mrs. Ellen Wilson, residing at 258 Madison avenue, Saturday evening, Bishop Thomas J. Stevens united in the bonds of matrimony Miss Ella Jane Cornwell and Mr. Alex A. Rasch, formerly of Richmond, Cache county. Mr. Cobb is the proprietor of a bookstore, newspapers and stationery on Twenty-fifth street.

A Chicago paper publishes a court yesterday decision, Ben Murray, the fellow who stole a belt of skins from the front of a furrier's store, was found guilty of grand larceny and sentenced to jail for sixty days.

When the district court convenes on the 16th inst., Judge Bliss will be on the bench.

The people of Ogden sympathize with the father and mother and wife of Lieutenant George A. Beaman, who was reported wounded up the Philippines from Manila yesterday. The young man is a son of Ex-county Commissioner A. A. Beaman of Weber county. He enlisted in battery B, and was made a corporal, and at the taking of Manila led battery B into the engagement, with his superior officers. On the recommendation of General Greene, he was promoted to a second lieutenancy.

Rev. Charles F. Richardson, who for the past four years and a half has been pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city, has received a "call" from the First Presbyterian church at Great Falls, Montana, and will leave for his field of labor about the 1st of April.

Dr. Pinkerton, the Oregon Short Line surgeon in Salt Lake, was an Ogden visitor yesterday.

A through train from Denver over the Rio Grande Western reached this city at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the first train in two days.

LINCOLN DAY AT PLAIN CITY.

Governor Heber M. Wells, Hon. W. A. Lee, Judge Lewis Kennedy and Hon. Arthur Brown and wife came from Salt Lake City yesterday afternoon. They were met at the depot by a committee of the Abraham Lincoln club and escorted up town to the home of the Misses Hilton, where refreshments were partaken of. At about three o'clock the visitors, accompanied by a number of Plain City Republican ladies and gentlemen of Ogden, took carriages and went to Plain City to participate in the Lincoln day celebration. Governor Wells did not do duty yesterday afternoon and evening.

The celebration at Plain City was a pronounced success, both as regards the attendance and the character of the program. Besides the local people there invited guests from the capital, there were many prominent visitors from Ogden and several other points in northern Utah. Besides the members of Lincoln club, the delegations from this city were Mr. Lee's guests. The number for who sat down to the grand banquet is nearly 300 persons. At about 4:30 the guests sat down to the banquet table, which were loaded with all the good things to eat that could be thought of.

After the good things of this life had been partaken of to the satisfaction of all, the intellectual portion of the feast was administered. Toastmaster Charles Ballantyne introduced the first speaker, Hon. W. A. Lee, of Salt Lake, who responded to the toast, "The American Navy," was responded to by the Hon. John E. Bagley, in a patriotic speech. The State of Utah was responded to by Hon. W. A. Lee, of Salt Lake. In a neat speech Mr. Lee said: "Utah's sentiment was expressed in the toast, "Women in Politics." "Liberty and the Manifest Destiny" was responded to by Judge Lewis Kennedy, of Ogden, in a speech full of fire and patriotism. "Women in Politics." "Liberty and the Manifest Destiny." "Utah's Sentiment." "Utah's Sentiment." "Utah's Sentiment