The headquarters of the company will be in Salt Lake and the object is the carrying on of a general irrigating business, to handle lands, etc. The principal field of operations will be in Juab county.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Hon. Stephen S. Penn, ex-delegate to Congress from Idaho, died in the insane asylum at Blackfoot, yesterday, aged seventy-five years. He represented that state when a territory for two consecutive terms, beginning in 1885 and ending in 1889. He was not conspicuous for the qualities which make a great statesman, but he was singularly absent-minded, upright man with more friends than enemies and a goodly stock of hard-earned practicability. He was always on the best of terms with Utah's delegate and was ever on hand to do anything for Utah. In politics he was a Democrat, though his son, who was speaker of the last house in the Idaho legislature, is a Republican. That his last days should be spent in a refuge for the insane will be no surprising or regretful to many who knew him.

Today's Probate Court.

Estate of Jeremiah McGrady, deceased. Hearing on petition for letters of administration. J. K. Gillespie appointed administrator on filing a bond in the sum of $1000.

Estate of James Harry, deceased. Hearing on petition for letters of administration. J. K. Gillespie was also appointed in this case, on filing a $1000 bond.

Estate and guardianship of Arthur and Flora C. Maxwell, minors. Hearing on petition for letters of guardianship.

"TO KEEP FROM FREEZING."

Fined Two Dollars for Stealing 500 Pounds of Coal from an R. G. W. Car.

William Scott is the assumed name of a large, muscular man, who confessed in Justice Geo. Goo's court this forenoon stealing 500 pounds of coal from a Rio Grande Western car. He stated in justification of his act that he has a wife, several children and a mother-in-law at home who were pinched with cold. He had tried faithfully to get work in order to earn a little money with which to purchase fuel, but he had failed in each attempt. He stated that his condition was now growing serious and he was obliged to do something to keep his family from freezing, and that he did think he had committed any great wrong in stealing or rather "taking" coal, as he expressed it, from a wealthy corporation. The court imposed a fine of two dollars, which was paid by persons who sympathized with the defendant, who will be remembered as one of the brawniest and largest men whose strength assisted very materially in making a certain team champion in several contests a, the recent tug of war tournament held in this city.

A STORY OF STOLEN BOOKS.

Samuel Richie, the Son of a Wealthy Omaha Cattleman, the Accused.

JUSTICE GEE DISCHARGES HIM.

The Y. M. C. A. and Pioneer Libraries Get Back a Part of Their Lost Literature.

A large, side-footed man named Samuel Richie, son of Colonel Richie, an old time Union soldier and wealthy cattleman who resides at Omaha, was before Justice Gee this forenoon on a charge of petit larceny. He was arrested at the instance of the officers of the local organization of the Y. M. C. A. who accused him of systematically stealing books from their library at different times for the last six or seven weeks. Some of the association's books were found in his possession at the time he was arrested. Others were discovered in second-hand stores, and he admitted that he had sold them. During the investigation of the case the librarian of the Pioneer Library entered the courtroom and identified some of the reserved books as having been purloined from their reading room.

When asked by Assistant County Attorney Goal to explain matters, Richie said he had obtained the books—forty or fifty in number—from a friend to whom he had loaned $20 and who was called to the bedside of a dying mother in Massachusetts before he could pay the debt. This was about two weeks ago, he said. The lady from the Pioneer library declared that this was not true, because on some of the books which she identified had been taken away within the last three days and that she had seen him carry one away on Wednesday when he had not yet returned.

The prisoner was one of the coolest ever seen on the witness stand and with considerable pride pointed to the fact that he had never been arrested before; that his character was above reproach, etc., and that Chief Paul could testify to that last. Chief Paul explained that he had served in the army with his brother and that his father was a wealthy and respected resident of Omaha.

Justice Gee said in summing up the evidence that the finger of suspicion pointed very strongly against the defendant and he had good reason to believe that the "straw man" he had set up was a myth, yet there was some doubt as to guilt, and that doubt coupled with Chief Paul's statement would give the accused his liberty. He was ordered discharged and the representatives of the Y. M. C. A. and Pioneer libraries were allowed to take their books.

Within Our Gates.

Ben Hampton and wife, who have been touring for a while back, returned home yesterday.

***

Brigham City's postmaster, in the person of B. F. Booth, is making our nervous and excitable city a friendly call. He found his way to the Mecca.

***

S. S. Jones, the prominent Provoite, "yanked" our introverting last evening and hied him to the Templeton, where the storm troubleth not and the weary are at rest.

***

Sol. Smythe, of Pittsburg, is quartered at the Cullen. This is not the original of that name, the great comedian, or even a descendant, as one can readily see by comparing orthography.

***

J. W. N. Whitcraftan, a legal luminary of Provo, is holding forth for the nonce at the Cullen. He has been here long enough to find out that all the advantages of life are not in favor of a city.

***

W. H. Adams, grand commander select knights of K. O. T. M., arrived here today on society business. The "jewel society" has a good many members here and Mr. Adams will not find himself in the woods by any means.

***

J. P. Jones, of Ogden, came down this morning and promises to remain a few days at least. He was escorted by a United States official, who showed Mr. Jones around until they got to the government, having previously resigned there from the south country. They walked to us last night as only they can warble. (See dramatic department for details.)

John Smith, whose name appears quite frequently, is in from the Lead-ville mine in the eastern part of the state. He was looking over the News and trying, perhaps, to determine what the Brussels conference was or was not going to do, a matter in which he is evidently concerned. Perhaps he was ruminating something like this: "I wonder how long it will be before the papers have sale reading, for instance—James & Thompson, dealers in general merchandise, such as clothing, cutlery, groceries, hardware, silver bullion, etc.?"

***

"Uncle" Robert F. Neslen dropped in on us this afternoon with his head in a bandage. This is his first appearance since the little scene with the glass near his residence the other night. There were two or three assailants, one striking and the other trying to kick, but through the timely arrival of a boy nothing beyond a severe injury causing temporary anesthesia was inflicted. Mr. Neslen is unwilling to believe the assailants had any political design, he has been a Democrat of "pernicious activity" for some time, but is hardly willing to think that had anything to do with it. Let they make a powerful impression on him, he says.

Severe Accident.

A workman employed at the Highland mine at Bingham accidentally fell down a shaft one day this week breaking his left arm and otherwise severely injuring himself. He has been brought to the Sisters' Hospital in this city for treatment.

BY WIRE TO-DAY

Governor Concord on the Condition of Nevada.

THE BRUSSELS CONFERENCE.

A Blizzard of Unusual Severity in Central Russia.

REINACH'S BODY EXHUMED.

Order of Arrest in Court.—Democratic Leaders Gather.—The Nicaragua Canal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—Governor Colcord of Nevada is in the city. Speaking of the newspaper dispatch stating that nearly all the quartz mills on the Carson river are shut down and that there is a general depression in Nevada, owing to the low price of silver, the governor said this is all true, and, "I may add, we have not now a dividend paying silver mine in Nevada. Not one of the Comstock mines is paying. The Consolidated Virginia has not paid a dividend for five or six months. It is taking out $60,000 or $70,000 a month, but the expenses are more than this. Many mines are not working at all. There is no additional expense either, and no heeding over of the dividend purposely. The situation is this: With silver reduced to between 65 and 80 cents as it has been lately and is now, they cannot work the mines at a profit with the low grade of ores, of which we have many. Silver at such price cuts both ways. We will have to find a higher grade of ores or cease mining. I still have hopes that the Brussels conference will fix such a uniform ratio of value to gold that we can go on. They may not fix it at 16 to 1 as now, but even 18 or 19 to 1 would be much better than it is. If the other countries of the world do not agree to a uniform ratio, then I am in favor of prohibiting all other silver from entering the United States and coining more silver. I think that would be one solution, I think, although Senator Stewart and some other silver advocates have different views. In the absence of anything being done and silver remaining as it is, the Nevada miners must turn their attention to agriculture. The mining camps will be depopulated. There is no such thing as supposing the mines can work. All the mines on the Carson river are now idle except the Brunswick, Nevada and Morgan, and these, instead of representing 328 stamps as they would if silver were only at a fair price, represent actually but sixty-six stamps."

State Senator Williams, of Virginia, spoke on the same thing and entirely corroboratory of the dispatch and the remarks of the governor. All Nevadans here are watching the Brussels conference with keen interest.

Severe Winter.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—According to the Standard's weather reports, intense cold and heavy snow falls are reported from North and Central Spain. The south Central and Southern Russia has been visited for three days by an exceptionally severe blizzard. Such severity has been unknown in Moscow for eight years. All the railways, except the Nikolai, are blocked with snow and direct communication with the South is interrupted. Some lines are entirely stopped.

Royalty and Nobility.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—A large party, consisting of royalty and nobility assembled at the Windsor Castle today to greet Crown Prince Ferdinand of Roumania, who came to visit his fiancee, Princess Marie, daughter of the Duke of Edinburgh. The wedding will occur at Sigmaringen, Prussia, and the Duchess of Edinburgh and Princess Marie will leave for that place on Thursday, to prepare for it.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

Harrison Receives a Delegation and Talks the Matter Up.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—A committee representing the national Nicaragua canal convention called at the White House this morning and paid their respects to President Harrison. The President received them cordially and took the occasion to say among other things in regard to the canal: "The world is coming to our door. We not see how anybody can possibly find grounds of objection. The lack of the canal retards the progress of the world. It is our coast it is. If we do not proceed, England or some other power will. We should not permit this. All parts of this country are equally interested. It touches all."

Opera House on Fire.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 10.—A fire broke out in the opera house in Sumpter last night. In spite of every effort, it could not be checked till it consumed that structure together with eight business blocks, constituting the principal part of the town. It was raging for five hours. The loss cannot be estimated.

A Fatal Wreck.

WATERBURY, Conn., Dec. 10.—Two freight trains on the New York & New England road collided near Southbury this morning, wrecking a large number of cars, and it is reported, killing Engineers Thompson and Beebe.

Sagasta Reconsiders.

MADRID, Dec. 10.—Sagasta has reconsidered his determination to undertaking the task of forming a ministry.

News from a Wrecked Steamer.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—A cable from Yokohama says there is 9 feet of water in the hold of the British steamer Kinfauns from Victoria, B.C., for Hong Kong, which was in collision with a coaster in Yedo Bay. The aft-hold and engine room are not damaged. The steamer was beached after the collision to prevent sinking. It is expected she will float tomorrow. She will have to discharge the entire cargo. The crew and passengers are saved, but one of the crew, a fireman, was drowned. The cargo will be forwarded by the steamer Finnisiry, which will leave Yokohama on December 15th.

Returned from Sahara.

TRIPOLI, Dec. 10.—Captain Mantell, the French explorer, arrived here after a journey of two years in Sahara desert. He crossed from Senegal by way of Lake Tchad.

REINACH'S BODY.

An Autopsy Ordered by the Government.

PARIS, Dec. 10.—The body of Baron Reinach has been exhumed. An autopsy was ordered by the government to decide whether he committed suicide or not. The result will not be known till the official report is made to the government.

The Telegraphers' Strike.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Chief Rumsey, of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, declares that the strike on the Rock Island road is still solid. He admits that here and there a striker is returning to work, but he says the desertions are counterbalanced by the accession of men that the freight business of the road is almost at a standstill.

Application for a Receiver.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 10.—A application was made in the county court today for the appointment of a receiver for the Order of Solon. The bill charges Rev. W. H. Cowen and others, acting as the supreme lodge, with unlawfully having expelled complainant and afterward constituted a new supreme lodge, whereupon Cowen attorney that Cowen falsely and fraudulently represented that he is a person of financial ability and by threats, charges and misrepresentations induced the other defendants to appoint him attorney; that within four years certificates aggregating three million dollars will have to be paid and the assessments become so burdensome as to be impossible of collection, rendering the purpose of the order nugatory. A preliminary injunction was granted, restraining the defendants from acting till the hearing on next Wednesday.

The Democratic Conference.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The Democratic U. S. senators (Gorman, Brice and Carlisle, who came here to devise means for protecting the Senate in the interests of that party, were joined this morning by Dickinson and Harrity, of the Democratic national campaign committee. They have arranged for a conference this evening, at which the above named together with Whitney and other leading Democrats will be present. The consultation will be on the situation in Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming, Montana, North Dakota, and California, where the lawless Republicans are using unfair means to secure control of the state legislature with a view of preventing the Democrats from electing United States senators, thus preventing them from controlling the next United States Senate. Martin M. Maginnis of Montana will be present and give information as to the situation in Montana. Wyoming and Kansas will come in for the greatest share of attention. The question to be discussed is whether counsel shall be employed to assist the state committees in the fight. It is understood the party's policy on immigration and other questions will also be talked over.

THE BRUSSELS CONGRESS.

Comments by a Vienna Correspondent on a Leading Paper.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The Standard's Vienna: The probable failure of the monetary conference is so discounted here that the failure will make no impression. The journal of Austro-Hungarian papers ridicule the prophecies of a terrible consequence, contending that any action such as formulated at President Harrison's message, would be a breach of faith toward creditors, which public opinion in America would not permit. Neither the Democrats nor the Republicans, it is said, dare to repeal the Windom act for fear of an unparalleled commercial crisis. In the meantime the removal of the fear of an international agreement for many years to come will exercise a healthy influence, checking the output of silver and the price will gradually find the level without straining anybody except the American silver kings. The practical experience in the transformation of silver currency to gold currency resulting in converting the passionate bimetallists to the views of rehabilitation of silver would fail to remove the root of the causes of the agricultural depression.

AT BRUSSELS.

Today's Proceedings of the International Monetary Committee.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 10.—At today's meeting of the committee of the international monetary conference, the plans of Theisen, Heinlewein and Allard will be debated and the report of the committee will be prepared to be submitted on Tuesday. Although the bimetallist delegates feel the position critical, they are hopeful the conference will not adjourn without adopting a resolution recommending the various governments interested to adopt a temporary modus vivendi with a view of averting a financial catastrophe.

The committee adjourned without reaching a decision on any of the plans.

The German Army Bill.

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—The Reichstag today began the debate on the first reading of the army bill. Major Von Hohlmann (Imperial Conservative) announced that the Center party was willing to concede the two years service system, but was not prepared to increase the standing army.

One More Divorce Suit.

Mathilda Compton, through her attorneys, Richards & Moyle, this morning filed a suit for divorce from her husband, John A. Compton.

The parties were married in this city in February, 1884, and there are three children issue of the marriage, aged respectively eight, six and four years. The ground upon which the complaint is based is failure to support, Compton having willfully neglected his wife for more than two years past. Defendant, it appears, has their son, Nathan A., aged eight years, in his keeping, and refuses to allow him to visit or reside with the wife, who says she believes the defendant will take the boy out of the Territory unless restrained by order of this court.

On application of Attorney Moyle, Judge Zane today granted an order calling on the defendant to appear before him on December 24th to show cause why the restraining order should not be granted.

Art Appreciation.

Miss Kate Wells has had an exhibition at her studio, room 418 McCornick block, for the past three days a collection of over fifty water-color paintings by the leading artists of Utah. Some of the pictures are very beautiful, and have been seen by a great number of our best citizens. Such a well known artist as Lee Greene says: "As a rule, how home art is appreciated in this city may be realized when we state that not a single picture had been sold when the exhibition closed last evening. Miss Wells has therefore decided to keep the exhibition open to the public for a few days longer."

"Farmers come fifteen miles to my store to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many of them, like myself, are never without it in their homes. It cured my little boy of a severe attack of croup, and I believe it saved his life."—K. Dalton, Lorny, Russell County, Kansas. This remedy is a certain cure for croup, and, if used as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. d&s

From Oliver Wood, Farmington, Utah.

Oliver Wood, an old and highly respected citizen of Farmington, Utah, states: "Sore throat afflicted me with great pleasure as to recommend to my friends Ballard's Snow Liniment. Before trying it I had little faith in it, but one trial convinced me it was a highly meritorious article. I recently met with a painful accident and was suffering great pain. My wife applied Snow Liniment freely and the pain was immediately relieved and the inflammation rapidly subdued. It has no equal as a reliever of pain and inflammation. Recommend all my friends and acquaintanced to use Snow Liniment. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. 1sx
