Records! Records!
WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for BRANCH and WARD RECORDS, of a new and improved form, which has been approved by the presiding Bishopric and others.
We shall make them of four, five and six quires each, holding 2,040, 2,560 and 3,090 names each, respectively, and the price will be for four quires, $12.00, five quires, $13.00, six quires, $15.00. Each book will contain a suitable Index, and be well bound in Cloth and Russia Leather, with ornamental lettering pieces for name of the Ward on the title. The book being of a large size, we do not think it advisable to make them over six quires.
Specimens can be seen at the Office, and orders received for size of book required.
Bishops in the Country desiring Records can order by mail, and we will write accordingly and forward to them.

Indian Supply Contracts.

WASHINGTON, 11.—The secretary of the interior, the commissioner of Indian affairs and the board of Indian commissioners have made, among others, the following awards for Indian supply contracts, for the fiscal year ending June 30th, '75: Armour, Plankton & Co., Chicago, bacon contract for the Kiowas and Wichetas, delivered at Kansas city, at seventeen cents per pound; C. A. Broadwater, Montana, flour contract for the Fort Peck agency, at $3.45 per cwt.; I. S. Martin, Colorado, flour contract, for the Sioux, at the Red Cloud agency, deliverable at Cheyenne, $2.50 per cwt., the lowest figure ever obtained for this agency; David McCranon, Montana, flour contracts for the Fort Hall agency, $4.80, and for the Black Feet agency, at $5.50. The grasshopper ravages here have placed the exportation of flour, for long distances, at high prices. C. A. Broadwater, corn contract for Fort Peck, at $2.45 per cwt.; C. A. Broadwater, beef cattle contract for the Fort Peck agency, at $2.25; David McCranon, beef cattle contract for the Fort Hall agency, Idaho, at $2.40; David McCranon, for the Blackfeet agency, at $2.20; Wilson & Rich, of Montana, for Crow agency, at $1.94, the lowest figures ever obtained at this agency; Pit Largely, of Montana, for the Santee and Poncas agencies, at 2.68; I. K. Foreman, of Nebraska, beef contract, 224 millions of pounds of beef for all the Sioux in Dakota, at $2.30 per cwt., the price last year was $2.73.

Dead.

General William Hillyer, died here to-day, of congestion of the lungs.

Dead.

RALEIGH, 11.—Governor Caldwell died this evening, at Hillsboro, of cholera morbus.

A Bilk Arrested.

RICHMOND, 11.—A man who has been here some days falsely representing himself as an agent for Commodore Vanderbilt, was arrested to-night; he had in his possession a large amount of forged drafts.

$20,000 Fire.

MILWAUKEE, 11.—Reed's sash, door and blind factory, at Wash Depere, near Green Bay, was burned this morning; loss $20,000, insured $5,000.

Sent to the States' Prison.

CHICAGO, 11.—A special says that Loftus, the Gravesville wife murderer, to-day, plead guilty, and was sentenced to the State's prison for life.

$750,000 Fire.

NEW YORK, 11.—The oil fire which broke out at Weehawken last evening, raged with unabated fury. It was seen that the tanks would go, the laborers employed in the yard were put to work removing property, and succeeded in running off about 1000 barrels, but the heat became so intense that it was impossible to remove more. In addition to the destruction of the tanks, a large wooden storehouse and its contents was entirely destroyed. Another house at the back of the structure escaped destruction, but the cooper shop was burned, and the burning oil ran out into the river and the short pier was entirely destroyed, and the fire burnt out a section of the trestle works, a portion of which was saved by the firemen, who cut away between fifty and seventy-five feet. This evening the last tank burst, and the flames were then confined to the property in the yard; the total loss is estimated at $750,000. Sixteen tanks, with from 5,000 to 20,000 barrels of oil each, and estimated to contain 75,000 barrels, were consumed. Besides the destruction of the piers, warehouse and cooper shop, and damage to the trestle works, the road bed was ruined, sleepers burned and rails twisted into every conceivable shape. Four carts and sixty-five cords of wood, valued at $2000, and a barge were also destroyed. The insurance is not over $100,000, in five Boston, and a number of New York companies and in the London and Liverpool, and Globe of London.

Litigation.

For nine years the municipality of Hoboken have carried on litigation to avoid the payment of war bounty claims; the court of errors and appeals has settled the question, deciding the case against the city. The claims amount to $59,000; the litigation cost the city $12,000. The original claims amounted to $28,000.

Suicide—Suffocated.

Mortimer Moynaham, the well known Fenian, and a writer for the weekly papers, was found to-day, dying from Paris green, and in the same room was found, already decomposing, the body of his wife, who died from taking the same poison.

Two laborers were suffocated to-[illegible] West 33d St.

Fire, Killed.

BOSTON, 11.—John Furnishe's tannery and currying shop, at Woburn, with the stock, were burned to-day; a falling chimney killed one man. Loss unknown, mostly insured.

WESTERN.

A Murderer Lynched.

SAN FRANCISCO, 11.—A dispatch from San Diego to-night says that a party of men pursued and captured the murderer of G. R. Whisleton, near Stanfe; he fought his captors, and was wounded severely before he surrendered. They started home with him and were met by a large crowd of men, who took him away and hanged him to a tree.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

In Collision with the Whites.

ST. LOUIS, 12.—A gentleman just from Fort Sill says Indian Chiefs Satanta, Big Tree and Lone Wolf are in collision with the whites and that serious trouble may be expected.

Orange Celebration.

NEW YORK, 12.—The Orangemen, to-day, celebrated in a quiet and unobtrusive manner. About a thousand turned in procession and marched to the church of the Holy Trinity, where services were held and a sermon preached by Stephen H. Tyng, jr., who advised them to beware of party divisions and difficulties, and to unite in universal brotherhood. Many spectators witnessed the procession.

Why "Figaro" Was Suspended.

The Herald's special at Paris, says that Figaro was suspended by the government for quoting, from President MacMahon's message, the declaration that he would retain the power conferred upon him, and then apostrophizing the Assembly as follows: "By your orders the marshal became supreme head of the State. The army obeys him; the army honors only him, follows but him, obeys him; the army having a horror of factions in parliament will defend the commander to whom you entrusted power. If any party faction seeks to overthrow your irrevocable decree, they must enforce the decision of the Assembly.

Postoffices in Utah Discontinued.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The following are among recent postal changes: Discontinued—Deep Creek, Tooele Co., Utah; St. John, Tooele Co., Utah.

Fatal Casualty.

EAST CLEVELAND, 12.—Hubble's block fell in this morning, owing to the weight of water on the roof, which clogged the gutters; a man in the barber shop below was killed, and several seriously wounded.

WESTERN.

$20,000 Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, 12.—Robitscheck & Co.'s morocco manufactory and tannery was destroyed by fire today: loss $20,000, partly insured.

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.

"Figaro" Suspended.

PARIS, 11.—An article in to-day's Figaro, inciting revolt against the decision of the Assembly, occasioned much irritation among the deputies. There was a warm debate on the article, during which Depegne, a monarchist, announced that Figaro had been suspended for two weeks; nevertheless the Left moved an interpellation, which was postponed for a month.

Brisson, of the extreme Left, moved that the writer of the objectionable article be called to the bar of the House, and accused the government of partiality in its punishment of journals. Brisson's motion was rejected, after a speech by Gambetta, in which he hinted that the Assembly was a corpse fit for the grave digger.

Matters Political.

PARIS, 12.—The committee of thirty has appointed sub-committees to draw up bills for the organization of the executive powers, and the establishment of a senate.

The extreme Right publish a disavowal of hostility to President MacMahon, but they condemn the action of the ministry with regard to the manifesto of the Count de Chambord.

The Moniteur says that ex-President Thiers is decidedly opposed to the organization of MacMahon's powers.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Not Sentenced.

LONDON, 12.—A dispatch from St. Petersburgh denies that the young Duke Nicholas, who stole his mother's diamonds, has been sentenced to banishment, but says that his case is still pending before the Emperor.

Violent Thunder Storm—Shooting Correspondents—Uneasy About Saxony.

A violent thunder storm on Saturday caused several fatal accidents.

The Times special says the Carlists are trying to drive away foreign correspondents by shooting some as spies; many Germans have already withdrawn from their lines.

The Times Berlin dispatch says it is now reported that Bismarck's journey to Kissengen has no political object. The friendly attitude of the King of Bavaria gives much satisfaction, but the separatist tendencies of Saxony give rise to a feeling of uneasiness.

ITALY.

Dead.

ROME, 12.—Monsignore De Merode, archbishop of Mitylene and private chaplain to the Pope, is dead.

General Election 1874.
