LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

A message from the President was received vetoing the bill for the relief of the University of East Tennessee.

Windom, Haslam and Stevens were appointed a conference committee on the Indian appropriation bill.

Edmunds said that to-morrow he would call up the bill disposing of the Alabama claims award.

Haslan introduced a joint resolution for a constitutional amendment, electing Senators by the popular vote.

He called up the Australian steamship subsidy bill, and spoke thereon.

Nye declared that British agents were endeavoring to defeat this American measure.

Sherman moved to table the bill and to take up the substitute for Buckingham's banking bill; lost, 21 to 30.

Chandler then offered the Burnside subsidy bill as a substitute, and announced that on the final vote he would oppose both.

Morrill, of Me., favored the bill. He said the Australian line deserved encouragement as an American line, also as a pioneer line which would open up a new field for the shipping of the Atlantic coast, now struggling in ruinous competition with the subsidized shipping of Europe.

Corbett advocated, and Frelinghuysen opposed the bill.

Nye said this bill was supported by the recommendation of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the Postmaster General, and the President of the United States.

Sherman moved to table the bill, for the purpose of moving that when the Senate adjourn to-day it adjourn to Monday. Agreed to, and the Senate voted to adjourn to Monday.

The subsidy bill was taken up, when Thurman, for the purpose of killing it, moved to lay it on the table, pending which motion the Senate adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 31.—In the House the day was devoted to the consideration of private bills, a large number of which was disposed of.

EASTERN.

WASHINGTON, 31.—The contumacious witness, Stewart, was consigned last night to a room in the basement of the capitol.

NEW YORK, 31.—There was an immense gathering to hear the result in the Tweed case. After the announcement by the foreman that he thought the jury could not agree, Judge Davis expressed a desire to hear from the others as to the probability of agreement. Another of the jurors then said that the Jury were all of the same mind since 11 last night, and there was no prospect of agreement. Peckham, for the prosecution, addressed the court, applying for another trial forthwith. The defendant's counsel thought it would be a hardship to go over the case again now, seeing that Tweed's civil suit was set for Feb. 15th, and preparations for it were necessary. The court will announce its decision in the matter to-morrow.

HARRISBURG, 31.—The State Senate passed a resolution of 25 to 1, instructing the U. S. Senators of Pennsylvania to vote against the purchase and control of the telegraphs by the government.

WASHINGTON, 31.—The Wilson committee heard additional testimony from Horace F. Clark. He testified that the Union Pacific company paid General Dix, when minister to France, fifty thousand to negotiate a loan, which was however unsuccessful.

NORFOLK, Va.—The completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad was celebrated here to-day with every demonstration of joy.

WASHINGTON, 31.—At the conclusion of Neilson's re-examination by the Poland committee to-day, T. C. Durant appeared and submitted a reply to the testimony of John P. Alley, on January 7th, and declared Alley's statements untrue concerning the two corporations, untrue and unjust with regard to persons living and dead. He proceeded to quote the records of the P. R. company in reference to the Sioxie contract and the organization of the Credit Mobilier, showing that Ames, Alley and their friends were not the original subscribers to the Union Pacific road, their only interest having arisen from being stockholders in the Credit Mobilier. Alley and his friends seemed to consider that all the sums saved to the Union Pacific was robbed from them as stock holders in the Credit Mobilier. Alley had with unparalleled impudence attributed to Ames and his party the views and policy of their opponents. He charged the Ames and Alley party with robbing the Union Pacific Company in various ways, such as selling old locomotives for the price of new ones, arranging so as to pay themselves large commissions by negotiating loans for the Company; also with unfair dealing with him, and unfair management at the election of directors. He reviewed Oakes Ames' contracts and the prices of the same, referred to the appointment of General Dodge as chief engineer of the road, at a salary of $10,000, while he was also a member of Congress at Washington, instead of being on the road. Witness said that when he remonstrated he was told that Dodge had great influence and could do more good in Washington than elsewhere. Dodge's wife held a hundred and eighty-one shares in Mobilier stock. Durant denied ever paying Thaddeus Stevens a dollar for any purpose.

Alley then addressed the committee, and repeated his former allegations and denied the statement of Durant.

WESTERN.

SAN FRANCISCO, 31.—Charles Williams, who tried to commit suicide a few days since while delirious, died to-day.

The jury found Miss Catharine McDonald guilty of attempting to murder her employer, Mr. Hollett. Her friends hope that she will be sent to the county jail instead of the State prison.

The weather continues cold and rainy. Snow was visible this afternoon on the hills in Contra Costa and Alameda.

A fire occurred this morning, which destroyed a grocery at the corner of Dupont and Vallejo streets. The building was owned by Mrs. James Morrison, of San Jose, and the store by Henry Rich. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

In the case of L. E. Crane vs. J. J. Marks and Jasper O'Farrell, the Harbor Commissioners, Judge Wheeler to-day decided that he had no jurisdiction to try the case, the court therefore sustained the demurrer to the complaint and dismissed the action. Judge Wheeler thinks the case should have been brought in the County Court. The suit was instituted to oust the defendants from office on account of alleged extensive peculations and frauds in the business of the Commission.

SACRAMENTO, 31.—The Governor has issued a proclamation offering a reward of $500 for the arrest of Rufus Sweet, who killed J. B. Gray, in Marysville, on the 4th of July, 1868.

SALINAS, Cal., 31.—The investigation of the case of Benjamin Bushnell, the party who confessed to having shot and killed a Portuguese herder, has occupied Justice McCandler's court for the past two days. He was this morning bound over to appear before the grand jury in bonds of $10,000.

MARYSVILLE, 31.—On Tuesday afternoon a little son of Samuel Cummins, aged three and a half years, strayed from home, and notwithstanding every effort has been made to learn his fate, the result so far has been unsuccessful. A reward of $250 is offered for the child's recovery.

PALISADE, 31.—The horse disease is about over here, and teams are loading with freight. Wells, Fargo & Co. are receiving all the express freight that is offered. The stage lines are in good order, and running full both ways.

PORTLAND, Oregon, 31.—The question of a telegraph fire alarm is being discussed by the officers.

The weather continues clear and cold.
