OLD,

TRIED,

AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN

Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST

This Liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 30 years, until now it engrosses the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a quickless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable.

A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot rot, hoof ail, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, alkalide rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, spralns, founder, wind gall, ring bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

The Potter Investigating Committee

WASHINGTON, 27.—After recess Roger C. Glasscock testified that he resided on Ninth Street, in this city, and Mrs. Jenks took her meals at his place. One day, last winter, she came in to dinner, and I took a seat by her at the table, and she remarked that she was mad. I asked her what was the matter, and she said she had had a conversation with Secretary Sherman, and that he had insulted her, and that if he did not look out she would make it hot for him. A few days after she intimated that she had, or could get, or knew of a document or letter that was in New Orleans, and on questioning her she said she referred to a letter from Secretary Sherman to Mr. Weber, the man who was killed. We had many conversations about that matter, and finally she came in one day and said the letter was in New Orleans, and that she would have to go home and get it, but that she would be back again in a few days.

William E. Chandler testified that he visited Florida soon after the late presidential election, and there met Governor Noyes, and had many conversations with him regarding the electoral vote of that State.

Question—Was it not understood in Florida, when Governor Noyes came there, that he was a special representative of Governor Hayes? Answer—Not in that form, but I was understood by me that he came there as an intimate friend of Governor Hayes. He did not tell me that he came there at the instance of Governor Hayes, and I never heard it so stated as coming from him.

Q.—Are you aware of any promises, general or specific, that were made to any members of the returning board before or after the count, that in case the State went for Hayes they should be taken care of? A.—I have no recollection of such promise.

Q.—Did you make such promise? A.—Not to my recollection.

Q.—Did you give any assurance to that effect? A.—Not that I remember.

Q.—Then you had no conversation with the members of the board in regard to their getting positions in case Hayes was inaugurated. A.—I am unable to remember that I gave any assurance to any member of the returning board.

Q.—Are you able to say whether you did or did not, positively? A.—I do not recollect that I did, and I believe that I did not. That is as well as I can answer the question.

Witness produced a telegram sent to A. E. Lee, Governor Hayes's secretary, and said this is the telegram referred to in the testimony taken before the Knott Florida committee. It is in cipher, but the translation of it is: "Send Stanley Matthews and another high character. Things begin to look fair." Of course I sent that telegram to Mr. Lee because he occupied the position of secretary to Mr. Hayes and left him to do what he chose with my telegram. Of course I should not have sent it to Captain Lee if had not been Governor Hayes' secretary.

Witness then read a telegram dated November 18th, sent by him to Zach Chandler, which witness translated as follows: At a full conference with all our friends now here, we find the work to be done required great and expedious labor in view of the shortness of the time, which, if well performed, will, we believe, insure success. Noyes and Rasson will be here on Monday, and I wish $3,000 sent to Philadelphia to the Centennial National Bank. Can you also let me have $2,000 more, making $5,000? It looks favorable for about 15 majority in the state. You can imagine what the democrats are about. Where is Cook? Signed, C." Witness said he got the money. Do not recollect whether or not Noyes stated that he came at the request of Hayes. It was understood by the republican managers that Noyes was the intimate friend of Hayes. I might have stated to McLin Governor Noyes' relations to Governor Hayes, but that I stated them in connection and with an assurance of any kind to McLin, I do not believe.

Q.—You simply put your recollection against his positive statement? A.—That's all. I will add that I do not think McLin would have made a statement that he did not believe?

The witness—I desire to say that whenever the committee would like to know what was done with that money I shall be happy to tell them.

By Butler—Were there not considerable numbers of persons, who have more or less relation to the election, given office under the administration? A.—There was.

Q.—Did Governor Noyes get any of these men appointed? A.—I have no doubt but Governor Noyes recommended men for appointment and possibly his recommendation may have induced the appointment of some.

L. G. Dennis then testified that he was at Tallahassee soon after the Presidential election and there met Governor Noyes. There were two precincts in dispute in Alachua county.

Q.—What was the contest about concerning Archer precinct, box No. 2, before the returning board? A.—It was a matter of 219 votes.

Q.—Did you explain to Governor Noyes what you regarded as facts in reference to the precinct? A.—I labored them with Governor Noyes to establish the votes as shown by the county returns. He never asked me to make any statement or affidavit about it, but he seemed anxious I should be put on the stand to testify. He expressed that desire several times and finally indicated that he was going to put me on the stand and then I advised him not to do so. I suggested to him that I should be detrimental to his case if he did, and that he had better not do it, and I never did testify. I may have said to him that unless he was ready to abandon his case he had better not call me as witness. I gave him to understand that I did not want to be called to make any statement under oath.

Q.—Was there anything said by him to you about his representing Governor Hayes? A.—He always spoke of Governor Hayes as his intimate friend and used to assure us of his fidelity to the republican cause and of his special desire to take care of the Southern republicans.

Noyes gave me, I think, the gravest assurance that Hayes was a very staunch republican, and he called my attention to something that had been published to that effect—some speech he had made or letter he had written.

Q.—Did Gen. Noyes give you any assurance that State candidates should be looked after as well as the presidential electors? A.—He gave me this assurance, that he would work as hard to save the State ticket as he did to save the national ticket, and that was entirely satisfactory.

The witness testified at considerable length in regard to the situation in Florida at the time the northern politicians were there. Adjourned.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

The internal revenue receipts, for the present fiscal year, to date, aggregate $100,600,742. As only two business days remain in the year, it is evident that even after all the returns are received the receipts for the year will fall at least eight millions below the estimate.

Explanation.

NEW YORK, 27.—Director Linderman, to-day, received the following from Congressman Glover, chairman of the House committee on expenditures in the Treasury Department. It refers to the statements published on or about the 17th or 18th inst., purporting to be made on the authority of Glover by Adelman (an expert employed by the committee), as published in some quarters, and purporting also to the conclusion of the committee. The same statements, in substance, have been published under more recent dates:

Lagrange, Missouri, 24th.

To H. R. Linderman, director of mint.

SIR—Your letter of the 20th, with newspaper clippings, received, and finds me too unwell to read more than the introduction to the article. I find that it is the same which appeared in the Washington Republican the day I left for home. The article was not published by Adelman, or with my knowledge or consent, as it contained points which were never developed before the committee.

Respectfully,
J. M. GLOVER.

Reduction of Passenger Rates.

ST. LOUIS, 27.—The Vandalia Railroad Co., to-day, notified the Olive and Mississippi, Indiana, Indianapolis and St. Louis roads that they had reduced the passenger fare from here to New York to $20, to Washington and Baltimore $18, and Philadelphia $15, to meet the cut which has been practiced for some time past by the Washington Co. The probabilities are that this is the commencement of a fierce fight on the passenger rates.

An Absconding Treasurer.

CANTON, O., 27.—Geo. Fusler, treasurer of Stark County, absconded last Saturday, and is now reported a defaulter. The amount is supposed to be not less than $60,000. A reward is offered for his apprehension.

Mail Coaches Attacked by Indians

FORT CONCH, Texas, 27.—The mail coach from Concho to Fort Davis was attacked by Indians last night, near Pecos River, and one passenger was wounded seriously, the stage escaping. This is the first time the large stage has been attacked in this vicinity, but it is not unexpected, as the Indians entirely ignore the presence of the military, whom they neither fear nor respect, and with good cause, for in the past two or three months men have been repeatedly shot in this vicinity, but nothing has been done to chastise the Indians.

GALVESTON, 27.—A News special says: Five Indians, yesterday, attacked the stage about fifteen miles east of Pecos, firing some fifteen shots and wounding Max Schultz, one of the five passengers. Several other depredations and cases of outlawry by Indians are reported. The Indians referred to in the telegram of yesterday as having, on Sunday night, raided upon and captured over 100 horses in the vicinity of Johnson's Fork, were pursued and overtaken midway between Cedar Creek and Pecos. A lively skirmish ensued, which resulted in the death of three Indians and the recapture of all the horses. The whites suffered no loss as yet heard from, unless it be the killing of a few horses. No additional particulars.

An Illicit Whisky Case.

MADISON, Wis., 27.—The case of the United States vs. N. B. Van Slyke, President of the First National Bank of Madison, brought to recover a tax on illicit whisky made at the Middleton distillery in 1873 and 1874, on the ground of his being the owner and lessee of the property having been on trial for the past week before the United States court in this city resulted, to-day, in the defeat of the government, it having failed to connect Van Slyke with the distillery, except as lessee.

Gen. Butler Unmasked.

CHICAGO, 27.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Two significant features of the Potter committee, to-day, were the unmasking of Butler and the announcement of the programme of the committee. Butler has been practically allowed the charge of the committee, and assuredly will attempt to lay the foundation for the impeachment of the President, in the action of the returning board. To do this the Nicholls government must be blackened, which is an easy thing, as it appears to have no friends in the committee. The democrats are greatly disappointed in Chandlers testimony.

Silver Export.

About $4,000,000 of silver has been exported from San Francisco to Chicago during the past two months.

WESTERN.

The Indian Hostilities.

SAN FRANCISCO, 27.—A Portland dispatch says: It is the belief of old residents in the eastern part of Oregon that all the Indians in that section are disaffected, and that they will be ready, upon slight provocation, to take up arms against the whites. Even the warm Spring Indians, who have heretofore been strong friends of the government and who have, on several occasions rendered efficient service against the Bannocks, and it is thought a large party of them will join the hostiles. It begins to look as if the Indians intend to do their worst this summer.

In the recent attack of Bernard's command upon the hostiles, the latter were reported to have 1,500 warriors. The Indians were not aware of the presence of the soldiers, and their stock was unguarded. Bernard addressed his troops and charged them not to retreat. The soldiers went silently forward and attacked a savage force three times greater. When within 500 yards of the enemy the order was given to charge. McGregor's company was near by and they charged also. The savages fled in dismay, and large numbers of them were killed. An encounter took place between Bearskin, the Bannock chief, and Sergeant Richmond, of McGregor's company. The sergeant finally killed his man. They were pursued by Bernard 10 miles. Gens. Howard, Downey, and Miles subsequently arrived on the ground, also Bender's company. All are anxious for a fight. The body of one soldier captured by the Indians was cut up and burned. The Indian camp was destroyed by the troops and many hostiles were wounded. Col. Perry's company, as well as all the other troops engaged, are reported to have done well.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Congress — Gortschakoff and Beaconsfield.

LONDON, 27.—At Tuesday's sitting Prince Bismarck declared he should be obliged by fatigue to absent himself for a long time from the congress unless the delegates were resolved to come to an agreement privately on the main question, so as to permit their prompt settlement in the congress, the minor matters being left to commissions. Count Corti, Italian delegate, replied promising compliance with the suggestion.

At Wednesday's sitting, Prince Gortschakoff, who had to be carried to the council room, and who spoke with effort in a trembling voice, but with an expression of resolution, said the remarks he was about to make were prompted by a love of truth and of his country. His colleagues had granted concessions in the name of Russia far surpassing what she thought of making. He was well aware of the feelings which actuated his colleagues to raise objections to the concessions they deemed it their duty to make. He merely wished to state that Russia made those sacrifices from a desire for peace, and that she had no narrow or selfish aim.

Lord Beaconsfield expressed admiration at Prince Gortschakoff's statements. He acknowledged, in the name of the congress, that a desire for peace actuated Russia, and hoped the same sentiment would continue. It is thought that this is Prince Gortschakoff's last appearance at the congress.

A Berlin correspondent states that there will be no reassembling of the congress in autumn, as it is intended to settle everything definitely now, and merely leave the details to a special commission.

Greece will decline to participate in the congress in merely consultative capacity.

A dispatch from Berlin states that the Queen of England was informed on Wednesday that the congress would probably end in 10 days.

The Sultan Murad.

A Therapia dispatch reports that about 20 obscure persons had been arrested, suspected of complicity and conspiracy in favor of the Sultan Murad. The party opposed to the Sultan appears to gain strength. The report of the Turkish minister of police to this effect has increased the sultan's agitation, impaired his health and caused him to summon 15,000 fresh troops to Constantinople.

GREECE.

A Loan Concluded.—Fighting.

ATHENS, 27.—Greece has concluded a loan in Paris of ten million dollars.

The Turkish Admiral has requested all foreign ships in the harbor of Canea to leave. Fighting has been going on for three days at Apocorona.

FRANCE.

International Literary Congress.

PARIS, 27.—The International literary congress accepted as the basis of its decisions the principle advocated by Victor Hugo in his speech urging that a book once published becomes in part the property of society, and after the author's death his family cannot prevent its reissue, but the author's heirs should be entitled from 5 to 10 per cent. of the profits; that in case there are no heirs the profits should go to the state to be applied to the encouragement of young writers. The congress resolved that the right of the author in his work is not a legal concession, but a form of property which legislation should guarantee to his heirs and representatives in perpetuity, and that after the expiration of the term of the copyright fixed by the existing laws in the different countries anybody may freely republish literary works on the condition of paying a percentage to the heir.

GERMANY.

A Memorial.

BERLIN, 27.—Delegates from Bosnia have submitted to the congress a memorial setting forth the wishes of their countrymen. Among other things the memorial declares that the Bosnians object to the prospect of Austrian occupation, and intimate that they would prefer the occupation of the country by Servian troops.
