The Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, 20.—The Post Office Department, to-day, issued orders that the mail service on an important route from San Diego, California, to Meyville, New Mexico, via Tucson, Arizona, be increased from tri-weekly to daily, commencing on the first of April. This action is taken on the recommendation of the entire California delegation in Congress, and of the territorial delegates, reinforced by memorials from the legislatures of Arizona and New Mexico, and the San Diego board of trade. Ex-Governor McCormick has also given the matter his personal attention. Efforts have been made for the last fourteen years to procure these mail facilities, and the department officials say the papers on file in this case are wholly unprecedented in number, and the total amount of influence which they represent. The success now obtained gives Arizona a daily mail communication with the rest of the world for the first time in her history.

Cutting Timber on the Public Domain.

Important orders will be issued by the Interior Department shortly for the protection of timber on the public domain from depredations. The present system of entrusting its care and the detection of depredators to local land officers will be abolished, and the department will send out specially qualified agents to detect and report to the department of justice, for prompt punishment, all persons cutting timber on the public lands without the authority of the government.

Definite Action Probable.

There is every probability of definite action being taken by the President to-morrow, upon the Louisiana and South Carolina question.

Committee on the Grasshopper Plague.

Secretary Schurz, to-day, appointed as a committee to investigate the grasshopper plague, under the act of Congress, Professor Riley, State Entomologist of Missouri, Professor Thomas, of Illinois, and Dr. Packard, of Salem. These gentlemen will leave Washington soon for the scene of their labors.

Removals for Cause Only—Appointments for Merit.

Secretary McCrary has issued the following circular: "The civil employees now in the service of the United States, under the War Department, are hereby informed that hereafter, removals will be made in this department for cause only, and promotions will be ordered upon the sole ground of merit. Every official's retention and advancement in the service will depend upon the record of his good behavior and efficiency, and not upon external influence. No political test is required beyond an earnest support of the Constitution and its amendments, and proper respect for the rights of citizens guaranteed thereby. Industry and faithfulness in the discharge of duty, a good moral character and strictly temperate habits, will be required and enforced, and the heads of bureaus will report promptly any case of idleness, neglect of duty, incapacity, drunkenness, or any immoral or dishonest conduct. In case of a vacancy, report thereof will be made accompanied by a list of all the most reliable and efficient clerks in the same office, division or bureau from which list the vacancy shall be filled."

Suit Against Ex-President Grant.

Thomas Briggins, who was before the committee on the administration of affairs of the lunatic asylum, as a witness, a year ago and testified about the spirit of General Grant being at his bedside, has entered suit in the circuit court against the Ex-President for false imprisonment, and $100,000 damages. He was arrested a month ago by the police for threatening General Grant, and sent to the asylum.

The Post Office Department.

First Assistant PostmasterGeneral Tyner entered upon the duties of his office to-day.

The postoffice department to-day made provision for a tri-weekly mail communication with the Black Hills country, commencing on May 1st.

Cabinet Meeting.

The cabinet meeting, to-day, lasted nearly five hours. Besides the southern question, there were under consideration the subjects of civil service regulations to be applicable to the country at large, and the question of the necessity for an extra session. No action was taken, and they will come up again for discussion and probably final decision to-morrow.

A German Delegation Visits the President.

A delegation of German citizens, appointed at a recent meeting of the Germans here, called upon the President this afternoon and presented him the resolutions adopted at that meeting, tendering him their congratulations upon the patriotic and statesmanlike spirit embodied in his inaugural address, and in the wise and impartial selection of the farseeing and conciliatory policy announced by him, and their gratification at the selection of Carl Schurz to the cabinet, by which act he clearly recognized the share of naturalized citizens in the destiny of the great American nation.

Meyer, chairman of the delegation made a brief address, in which he said: We merely desire to pay to you our homage for the noble independence exhibited by you in all initiatory measures, as President of the United States, and to tender you our very best wishes for success during your entire presidental career.

The President replied: Gentlemen—I am exceedingly gratified at this testimonial of your co-operation with the new work as far as it has gone. I am glad to know through you that my course is satisfactory to the German people. I selected Mr. Schurz for the position he occupies because I thought him the right man, and I am especially gratified that that appointment is satisfactory to my German fellow-citizens.

The committee then withdrew and proceeded to the Interior department, and presented a copy of the resolutions to Secretary Schurz. Mr. Einstein addressed a few remarks in German to the secretary, wishing him god speed in the work which he had undertaken.

The secretary returned thanks in German for the compliment.

Snow Storm.

CHICAGO, 20.—A driving snow fell the entire afternoon, and blocked the streets to travel, except in beaten tracks, which were partially cleared by snow plows run by the street car companies. On the sides of the street the snow is piled up three or four feet high, and street cars are run with great difficulty. The air is moist and the snow heavy, and a rainstorm and a flood are not among the improbabilities. Rain, in heavy showers, is reported in the southern and central portion of the State, and telegraphic communication is badly interrupted in all directions.

The Charges Against Major Reno.

The Tribune's Saint Paul special says, in the military tribunal, today, Judge Advocate Barr summed up the evidence against Major Reno. The specifications are: First, that Reno, being commander of Fort Abercrombie, called at the quarters of Mrs. Bell while her husband was absent in New York at the bedside of his sick father, and took improper liberties, attempting to draw her to his person. Second, being repelled, he stepped outside, but remained inside the storm door, and when Mrs. Bell was passing out some time afterwards, caught her hand and renewed his attempts. This outrage she reported to his wife. Third, Reno afterwards threatened to make it hot for her because she did not invite him to a social gathering at her quarters, and to drive her out of the regiment. Fourth, that he cast reflections on her character in speaking to the chaplain of the garrison, and had insisted on his not stopping at his place or holding religious services there. The fifth and sixth specifications cover substantially the same ground. Seventh, Reno said to Lieutenant Wallace that Mrs. Bell had better cease fighting him. Her character was vunlerable, and he could easily blast it. Eighth, afterwards he publicly humiliated Mrs. Bell by giving orders that she should not play the organ at divine service, and threatening to stop the service if she were allowed to play.

The prosecution — Mrs. Bell, Chaplain Wainwright, Captain Benton, Lieut. Wallace and others clearly established each specification.

The defence had little evidence, the accused not being allowed to testify nor to produce witnesses against Mrs. Bell's character.

Ex-Governor Davis summed up the case for Reno and was answered by Barr; after which the case was taken under advisement and the verdict will be forwarded to the army head quarters. The general opinion is that Reno will be found guilty and dismissed from the service.

Another Decision in Favor of Hampton.

CHARLESTON, 20.—Judge Reed, in the circuit court to-day, rendered a decision in the habeas corpus case releasing Flynn, on the ground that Chamberlain has not authority as governor. The decision concludes as follows: I am of the opinion that Wade Hampton was made governor in the State of South Carolina, through the ballot box, in accordance with a constitutional election held on the 7th of November last; that he was qualified, if not following the letter, in the spirit and intent of the constitution, on the 14th of December last; that he has been since that time and is now the lawful governor of South Carolina, and should be obeyed and respected accordingly. It follows from these views that D. H. Chamberlain was not governor on the 3rd of January, 1877, the date of the commission of W. F. Dover as a trial justice for the city of Charleston, and that his appointment and commission were without lawful authority, and void.

All Quiet in the South.

NEW ORLEANS, 20.—The city is very quiet. There has been no hostile demonstration from any quarter. A conflict involving loss of life is now regarded improbable. The Nicholls police, to-day, arrested four more of Packard's recruiting officers. They were imprisoned, charged with treason.

Rejected.

ALBANY, 20.—The republican Senators in caucus resolved to reject the nomination of General McClellan for superintendent of public works.

Mysterious Disappearance of Ex-Mayor Oakey Hall.

NEW YORK, 20.—The Sun announces that Oakey Hall was missed by the public for the first time on Tuesday last, when his client, James Rice, was called for sentence for manslaughter in the third degree. His unexpected absence gave rise to comment and then to an inquiry that culminated, late in the evening, in grave apprehension. Hall has not appeared at his office since Friday last, and though elected a directory member of the Lotus Club, has not been seen there. He has led a very irregular life for years. He rarely lived at home with his family, but has slept at hotels, or in the elegant bed-room that adjoins his office in the Tribune building. His disappearance was first intimated to his friends on Sunday last, and last evening there were rumors that he sailed in one of Saturday's steamships for Europe in consequence of Peter B. Sweeney. No one knew better than he that Sweeney's trial could not possibly be called for months, as the lawyers for the defense are engaged in another trial that must take precedence. No doubt Hall is seriously embarassed financially. He has, of late, frequently had to request his friends to endorse his notes; but while generally respected, he recently found none ready to take the risk. His friends are very anxious about him, and the majority of them cling to the belief that he sailed for some foreign country on Saturday, but others fear that he has committed suicide, and one of Hall's old business partners said, last evening, since Saturday he and other intimate friends of the ex-Mayor had been, and were yet, alarmed at that gentleman's mysterious disappearance and continued absence. No intimation that he was about to leave the city was given to his friends, yet that in itself need cause no alarm, as Hall was not only erratic but self-contained. Hall was last seen by a late business associate on Friday in his law office. On Saturday, he with ex-Governor Solomon, were to have examined a candidate at the general term for admission to the bar. His non-appearance led to an inquiry, and nothing could be learned of his whereabouts. It was hoped that it might turn up he had gone out of town suddenly on business engagements, shortly to return. He is known to have business in Utica, but nothing has been received from him. While Hall was playing in the Park Theatre, he was often heard to speak of a trip to Europe, and of establishing himself in business in London, and in view of that fact, some of his friends suggested last evening that he might have sailed to join his warm friend, James Gordon Bennett.

Hall's residence is a handsome brown stone house, at 13 West 42d Street. On inquiry being made there late last night no further information could be gleaned beyond the fact of his not having been home since Friday, and that nothing since then had been heard in relation to his whereabouts.

The services of the police are engaged in searching for him. Walling selected one of the most trustworthy of the headquarters detectives, and detailed him in search, but up to twelve o'clock last night no trace of the missing man had been discovered. The detective, to-night, said he had visited the hotels, ferries, steamship offices, docks, railway depots, and other places, and found not the slightest trace of him. Several persons with whom he conversed are of the opinion that Hall was insane, and had committed suicide. A gentleman, whose name cannot be mentioned, asserted last night that on Friday morning Hall had a disagreement at home and on quitting the house he appeared to be greatly agitated. The same gentleman says Hall had an appointment to take Ada Dyas to the theatre on Friday night, and had failed to keep it.

THE SUN, MOON AND STARS AS LIGHT REGULATORS.

BY DR. E. L. PLANT.

The disease prevalent at this season, both for the young and middle aged, as well as those advancing near regular use of herbs prepared by a practitioner of well-known ability, who celebrates from Nature's own variety of shades the variegated colors produced by Nature's own sun-regulator.

All medicines, simply considered, are hot, cold, moist, dry, or neutral. The quantities of medicine, which must necessarily vary, to be regulated suitably to the physical condition of the patient.

Culpepper's idea of the astrological influence of the planets upon herbs is now recognized as exploded. Modern science has taught us that herbal medicines must be used properly, in accordance with climatic, atmospheric, and seasonal changes we have discovered in the present progressive age.

As a careful herbal student and a successful practitioner, I am ready to wait upon patients at my Office in Market Row, Salt Lake City.
