THE EVENING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF TODAY, THE MORNING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF YESTERDAY.

Deseret Evening News.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1898. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

NO. 203 VOL. XXXI.

UTAH BOYS ARE AT MANILA

Second Fleet of Transports Reaches Cavite, the China on the 16th, the Zealandia Colon and Senator on the 17th.

Troops on Board, Two in the Eighteenth Infantry, One in the First Nebraska, and One in the First Colorado Regiment—Otherwise, All are Well.

Aguinaldo Made an Hostile Assault May be Made Before General Merritt Arrives—News of the Destruction of Cervera's First Cruiser Giving Encouragement Among the Spaniards—General Aguinaldo is Fighting for Annexation to the United States—Industrial Families Gave Aid to the Insurgents on Account of the Civil Trust in the United States—Insurgents Still Invest Manila—Condition of Broken Spanish Ships.

[illegible], July 17.—A cable dispatch to Kinkaid and Hong-kong, July 16, says that the second fleet of transports from the United States has reached Manila. The China left San Francisco on July 16, and touched at Honolulu on July 13. The Colon left San Francisco on July 17th. Four deaths occurred on the voyage. Lieutenant Lord of the Twenty-fourth infantry, Brewster of the First Nebraska, and Private [illegible] of the First Colorado died on board with ASSAULT SPANIARDS.

[illegible] July 21.—The Gaelic arrived at this port from Cebu and Manila with the U. S. transport [illegible] on board. The Spanish [illegible] arrived at Cavite [illegible] and the other transports [illegible] on Sunday.

[illegible] Aguinaldo made an assault on the Spanish lines. They were repulsed with heavy loss. The Spanish lost twenty killed and wounded. The insurgents lost twelve.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

Washington, July 21.—Secretary [illegible] from Admiral Dewey announcing the capture of an island in Manila on July 17, and the capitulation shortly the Spanish [illegible] of the Philippines.

[illegible] Dewey.

[illegible] July 21.—The Hongkong [illegible] Manila [illegible] Aguinaldo [illegible] the possibility of an early attack on the city from Cebu. The insurgents are preparing their entire force for an attack on Manila. Aguinaldo is confident of the success of the insurgents. Though Spanish [illegible] are still in the suburbs of Manila, the insurgents have [illegible] the suburbs of Manila, Pasig, and the [illegible] Rivers, and the Spanish [illegible] are cut off from Cebu. The insurgents have [illegible] Aguinaldo [illegible] Dewey [illegible] Admiral Dewey [illegible] Aguinaldo [illegible] Dewey [illegible] Aguinaldo [illegible] Dewey [illegible] Aguinaldo [illegible]