

THE EVENING NEWS.

GEORGE Q. CANNON,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

Saturday, January 29, 1870.

REMARKS.

By President BRIGHAM YOUNG, delivered in the Tabernacle S. L. City, Sunday Jan. 2, 1870.

[REPORTED BY JOHN GRIMSHAW.]

After contemplating what you have been hearing, I want to say, for the consolation of these my sisters before me, I give you my word for it, if your children were counted and their number compared with that of the children born in the healthy city of Boston, that you do not lose three where they lose five; and I think the ratio would not vary much from three to six. I want to say this for the consolation of those sisters who live in Utah and bear children. As for what has been said here of our children and their state of health and general appearance, and how they present themselves to strangers and to friends, I am perfectly willing to compare ours with any in the world; and if the result is not favorable to us I would be willing to part with them; but if the contrary be the case, let us have them.

This revelation about our children came through Anna Dickinson. When she came here I was not at home. She stayed here one day and one night; I understood she was riding a good part of the night with a stranger, for the benefit of her health I suppose. These great statements about the children of Utah, have come through the great wisdom and experience of Anna Dickinson. How much does she know about family affairs here? She stayed here at the Townsend House, I suppose, nearly twelve hours. Did sister Townsend make the statements which Anna Dickinson gives to the world? Anna may say so, but I do not believe it. I will give you one specimen of her knowledge with regard to the ladies of this city. In one of her statements she says that Brigham Young will look after the young ladies, and on becoming acquainted with them will find some of them are his own daughters. Her researches in this community were immense. But let me tell you she is hired by some ladies to lecture against "Mormonism" and the "Mormons." I say go ahead, lecture away until you get into —; and then continue your lectures, and afterwards hire men to lecture. They may hire lecturers to say this, that and the other about this people; I do not know that it makes the least difference to you and me. It matters not to us what the press says, or what that judge or that officer, or what Congress says. We are here in these mountains; the Lord has called and led us here and sustained us and given us strength.

I know more about the rising generation than most of the people who live in this city. I travel great deal, and as I go into a small town and see the children strung out a quarter of a mile, I often say: "Have you borrowed these children? Where did you borrow them from?" I am answered: "I guess we own them here." I go to the next settlement and see another group, stretching perhaps half a mile in length, ready to receive us with their banners and flags and their merry greetings. I go to another and see them by hundreds and thousands. Go through this Territory and what do you see? That which you cannot find elsewhere on the face of the earth with regard to children; not only in numbers, but in intelligence, strength, power of mind and general scholastic ability. Suppose some one says it is not so; does that make any difference to us? No; not the least.

I have never feared but one thing in regard to the Latter-day Saints in the persecutions they have received or that are in prospect; and that is, that we shall come short of doing our duty. It is only when we live short of our privileges; when we neglect to serve our God and to do as we should do, and as the Lord our God requires of us that I have any apprehensions for this people, and I have certainly seen just about as much with regard to persecutions as any other man that lives in this church. Still, I never had but this one fear: Are the people doing their duty? Are they neglecting their privileges or are they living so as to have the Spirit of the Lord constantly in their hearts? If we are right before the Lord, it is no matter how we appear before the wicked. We are just as obnoxious now as we can be. Why are we so? Is it because we have drunkenness in our midst? No. Is it because we have houses of ill-fame? No. Is it because we are a gambling people? No. Do we horse-race, bet, drink, quarrel and go to law with one another from Monday morning to Saturday night? No; nothing of this kind is claimed against us. Then what is the matter with the Latter-day Saints? Our enemies cry out "polygamy." It is a false idea. Very many of them believe in polygamy down yonder East; I won't even except the leaders of our country, only they believe it on the sly, while we have our wives and acknowledge them. Anything that is unlawful is swallowed by them. Anything that is in opposition to the law of God goes down with them. Anything that tramples under foot the ordinances of God is all right with them.

But we love our God, we honor His laws, we obey His precepts and we honor our father Abraham and perform his works. We should live to the best of our ability in accordance with the revelations God has given to us.

But why need the wisdom of the nation trouble itself about the "Mormons." The whole cry, according to the newspapers, is about this people. Religious teachers, scribblers, public speakers and everybody join in this murmur against the Latter-day Saints. Let us keep the law of God and the laws of our country and preserve ourselves in these mountains without much quarreling and contention, and where is the great fault that can be found with the Latter-day Saints? We observe the law of God and it makes us one. It is the priesthood they are opposed to. The wickedness of the whole world is opposed to the priesthood of the Son of God. It was opposed to Jesus when he was here on the earth in the flesh. It appears that the whole world of mankind was opposed to the gospel in the days of Noah. Who believed the sayings of Noah? His family. Who else? Nobody. What was the result? Why, Noah kept crying to the people for a hundred years that the Lord certainly would punish himself upon the nations unless they repented. Who believed the gospel in the days of Enoch? A few, who gathered together and built a city to the Lord. Who believes in the gospel now? Just a few. This gospel is the gospel of order and rule; it is the law of God brought forth to the children of men by which they can save themselves by hearkening to its counsels. Who love it? The righteous. Who hate it? The wicked.

We have been hearing about the Latter-day Saints preaching. I think if our Elders were to go without purse or scrip and had nothing to fall back upon, and could not write here for means, but were obliged to take their value in their hands and preach the gospel as we used to do, they would be much more successful than they are and would find many more who would be willing to listen to their testimonies. I use to travel without purse or scrip, and many times I have walked till my feet were sore and the blood would run in my shoes and out of them, and fill my appointments—go into houses, ask for something to eat, and talk to them, and when they would commence questioning, answer them. Converse with them until they have given you what you want, bless them, and, if they wish, pray with them, and then leave, unless they wish you to stay longer. If you have an appointment, and are obliged to go here and there on your mission, go like Saints—humble before the Lord, full of faith and the power of God, and you will find the honest in heart, for the Lord is going to save a great many.

It is near twenty-five years since we left the confines of the United States. Go back there and you will find hundreds, and perhaps thousands, who are ready to receive the gospel. Only carry it to them as they are prepared to receive it. But while we go and ride in our silver carriages, many never inquire into our principles; they are looking for something else. The meek and lowly Jesus sent his disciples without purse or scrip, and when the honest in heart saw them, they were glad to receive them. Jesus' disciples did, with the doctrine that he delivered to His disciples, and preach without purse or scrip, our Elders will find plenty of honest-hearted persons who will receive their testimony. But when the Elders go into the great cities, hire large halls and hire carriages to ride to their pulpits, in the people say it is a speculation, and such Elders do not have much of the spirit of the Lord to preach to the people.

Our Elders who are in the States will do good; there is no question about it. But they will do themselves more good by a bond that can be ensured and be made strong and powerful by securities. Our word should be just as good as all the words that can be spoken, or all the names that can be written. If we take the word of God, we will keep that word, and we will keep the word of the fatherless. No. The hireling in his wages? No; we will give him all that he can do or earn and then a little more; and if any one comes to us that is poor, in distress and in want turn him not away, but help him to get on his feet, and then let him go, and let him borrow turn him not away.

This people do this pretty well. There is not much complaint on this score. I do not think there is a house in these mountains where a Latter-day Saint lives, that a person can go to and ask for a meal of victuals, where he would not get it if the people living in the house had it in their possession. I do not think he or she could ask to stay over-night and be refused the privilege. That is saying a good deal for a community. Would we be honest in returning that which we have found to the owner? We would. We would not say that which is not our own. We would not. Would we be honest in our labor? We would. Would we be honest in our merchandising? We would. Would we be honest in every respect? We would. Would we take usury? We would not. Would we take usury from another? We would not. We would not take usury from another. But it is not so now; people do not come to this; we do not expect them to do so while they follow the spirit of the world. But these are things they have to learn when they get together. Will there be any extortion, any selling our goods for a hundred to five hundred per cent in advance of cost? No. The time will come when this co-operative system which we have now partially adopted in merchandising, will be carried out by the whole people, and it will be said: "Here are the Saints. The time will come when we can give all into the store house of the Lord and have our inheritances given out by those who will be appointed; and when we have had sufficient for the support of our families, the supplies will be given into the store house of the Lord. Will there be any rich or poor then? No. How was it in the time of Enoch? Had they some rich and some poor? Did some ride in their silver carriages, as I do? No. If I had my way, we would foot or ride together and we should see the day when we should do it. Do you think we will ever reach our claims pertaining to oneness in action? No. I do not calculate, as far as I am concerned to yield one particle. I have asked the Latter-day Saints to go to and become one in all things; the Lord requires this, but until they do, I do not expect to yield, not the least. Let us see what the Lord will do. The enemy of all righteousness is determined to own and possess this world and govern and control it as far as he possibly can; and he will do it until Jesus and His Saints drive him out.

Whatever the Latter-day Saints have gained, has been obtained by sheer wrestling and unconquerable resolution. We would never have been permitted to own a foot of land on this earth if the devil had had his way. But we have the land and can build our temples and our new houses and then sanctify our inheritances, sanctify ourselves, our families and sanctify the Lord our God in our hearts that we may be prepared to build up His kingdom.

I wonder what the Latter-day Saints would do in this matter? Do you think we had better hold on to the ground we have already gained from the enemy. We have gained a little in this co-operative system. We feel for each other and try to assist each other. But let me tell you what I am going to do. I do not expect to merchandise with you enemies to any great extent, but to cut it off just as fast as we can. I expect us to raise our own silk here. I would have had plenty for hundreds of silk dressers this year if I could have been blessed with some person who would have taken care of my silk worms and done so. I will raise mine. Raise your own wool, work it and then wear it, and stop going anywhere to purchase goods. Let us sustain ourselves for by and by. Babylon will fall. What will be the result? The merchants will stand and look at one another and say: "What do they do in this city? No man will buy their merchandise; and they will look here and there for a customer, but there will be no one to buy their merchandise, and the result will be: 'Babylon is fallen, is fallen.'"

Are you going to prepare for it? We say we are the people of God and are building up the kingdom of God. We say we are gathered out of the nations to establish Zion. Let us prove it by our works, and we will then manufacture that which we wear. Do we make clothing enough for me and you to wear? Yes; plenty. Let us live so that we can say we are the Saints of God, and when the finger of scorn is pointed at us and we are held in derision and the nations talk about us, let us show an example before them that is worthy of imitation, that they cannot but blush before all sensible and intelligent persons when they say, "There is a people that sin; there is a people that are corrupt; and with shame-faceness they will look upon each other and condemn themselves. Let them howl and bark against us as much as they please, but let us live so that they will have no reason to say a word. Some people say: 'Why don't you contradict this and that?' I have been proclaiming the gospel almost thirty years, and a few have come forth and received and obeyed it. What do you think the leading men among our Christian neighbors said about us? They lied about us until we thought they ought to be satisfied and were tired of hearing them and we found it was no use contradicting them, and those who professed to be good, pious Methodists and Baptists. There is a world of liars. It is said that a lie will pass out of the key-hole and travel a thousand miles before truth can get out of doors. The whole tribe of scribblers and every body else, almost, are ready to contradict truth and make a lie of it; ready to ridicule every just and holy truth; and the individuals that say children born in polygamy are feeble, have no knowledge of the human race or else they believe that they do. Let them study their own bodies. What do you see among them? You see children that are born into the world sickly, weak and unable to walk for years; they are poor, emaciated little things, almost without flesh on their bones. It is from such that the cry comes about the "Mormon" children. Why, one of our children at three months old has much more flesh on its bones than theirs have at ten; and on an average, they have more marrow in their bones and energy in them than the children of the world. They say nothing about human nature or the organization of human beings, nor of the beasts. To make any such declarations proves they are ignorant, or they believe themselves. These are harsh expressions; I need not have used such harsh words; I might have said that they tell the truth which is not true, they slightly diverge from the truth. How soft it would be! But I say they were so destroyed; and all the nations that follow their corrupt practices will go down to hell; and we will go onward and upward. All we have to do is to perform our duty and keep the law of God, and our course is onward and upward. God overrules the acts of the wicked and the righteous.

I recollect when the army of '67 was coming here, a young man named Thomas Williams wrote to his father saying: "God favors great guns and great armies." What did those great guns and great armies do? They took two "Mormon" elders into their camp—Bro. McDonald, of Provo, and Bro. Kearns, who now lives at Gunnison. What a howl they raised! The whole camp howled to think they had two "Mormon" elders. But there were too much faith; the Saints were praying for those elders and they came out unscathed, unhurt and all right. What power there was! What a magnificent camp it was! "The flower of the army," sent to destroy the "Mormons." When they blew out the sun, they sent the moon from shining and the earth from revolving on its axis, they may talk about "wiping out" the "Mormons" or the Gospel, but not until then. This is the way I feel. I am as unconcerned and just as happy as a man can be. It is no matter if the whole world is against us. God is for us. Could not they kill you? Yes, if it be the Lord's will. If it be the will of the Lord for the people to live, they will live. If it had been the will of the Lord that Joseph and Hyrum should have lived, they would have lived. It was necessary for Joseph to seal his testimony with his blood. He has been destined to live he would have lived. The Lord suffered his death to bring justice on the nation. The debt is contracted and they have it to pay. The nations of the earth are in the Lord's hands; and if we are His we will reap the reward of so doing. If we neglect to obey His laws and ordinances, we shall have to suffer the consequences.

Well, brethren and sisters, try and be Saints. I will try; I have tried many years to live according to the law which the Lord has revealed to me. I know just as well what to teach this people and just what to say to them and what to do in order to bring them into the celestial kingdom, as I know the road to my office. It is just as plain and easy. The Lord is in our midst. He teaches the people continually. I have never yet preached a sermon and sent it out to the children of men, that they may not call scripture. Let me have the privilege of correcting a sermon, and it is as good scripture as they deserve. The people have the oracles of God continually. In days of Joseph, revelation was given and written, and the people were driven from city to city and place to place, until we were led into these mountains. Let this go to the people with "Thus saith the Lord," and if they do not obey it, you will see the chastening hand of the Lord upon them. But if they are pleased with and led along like children, we may come to understand the will of the Lord and he may preserve us as we desire.

Let us, then, you and me and all who profess to be Latter-day Saints, try to be Saints indeed. God bless you, Amen.

Among the sayings of Jesus there is a parable about a man who went out to sow. He had good seed to sow in the field. Some of it, however, fell upon stony ground and some among thorns. That that was sown on stony ground came up very quickly, but it was so tender that the rays of the sun were too powerful for it and it withered away and died. It was so with this people; they are not prepared for all that comes to them. In some instances, the word of God seems to be like seed that is sown upon stony ground. Some of the seed is sown among thorns; but the cases of the world choked it; and some was sown upon good ground where it took root firmly and brought forth fruit, yielding "some thirty, some sixty and some a hundred fold." These are the ideas which Jesus brought forth to show the people wherein they might fail, and the danger of receiving the word unless they did so into good and honest hearts. Look upon the inhabitants of the earth. Whenever any of you go and preach the gospel to them, they must acknowledge that every iota of it is true. Truth, reason, judgment, teach them so. The revelations the Lord has given teach it. Do they believe it? Some will say they believe it. They receive the truth, but do they receive the love of the truth? If persons receive the love of the truth and are faithful to the laws God gives to them, they will make themselves the elect through their faithfulness; and they will be the elect of God.

It was observed here this morning, in relation to the building up of the kingdom of God, that many think they have the privilege of doing just as they please. We have only the privilege to do right. There is not an iota in the revelations, from Adam down to the present day but what requires strict obedience. They who cannot abide strict obedience, let them go. Let them be a celestial law. Let them be that which is revealed for the sanctification of His people to prepare them to enter into the presence of the Father and the Son, should try and abide a lesser law, but they must expect a lower glory, according to their works. If they cannot abide the celestial law, and cannot abide a lesser law; then they will receive the blessings of that law, and whatever law they abide they will receive the blessings thereof. The Lord has been pleased to reveal unto His people His law by which they can be sanctified and return to his presence. Latter-day Saints observe this law. What shall we say to them? Teach them the law of God. How easy it is! Is it easy to be understood? Yes very easy; it can be summed up in these words: Do right, love God and keep His commandments. Take the moral code, that the Lord has revealed and let it be strictly followed; and what man or woman would ever intrude upon the rights of his or her neighbor? They would never do it; they would do good to their neighbor all the day long. We would observe the moral law which God has revealed and let it be strictly followed; and what man or woman would ever intrude upon the rights of his or her neighbor? They would never do it; they would do good to their neighbor all the day long. We would observe the moral law which God has revealed and let it be strictly followed; and what man or woman would ever intrude upon the rights of his or her neighbor? They would never do it; they would do good to their neighbor all the day long.

There is not much complaint on this score. I do not think there is a house in these mountains where a Latter-day Saint lives, that a person can go to and ask for a meal of victuals, where he would not get it if the people living in the house had it in their possession. I do not think he or she could ask to stay over-night and be refused the privilege. That is saying a good deal for a community. Would we be honest in returning that which we have found to the owner? We would. We would not say that which is not our own. We would not. Would we be honest in our labor? We would. Would we be honest in our merchandising? We would. Would we be honest in every respect? We would. Would we take usury? We would not. Would we take usury from another? We would not. We would not take usury from another. But it is not so now; people do not come to this; we do not expect them to do so while they follow the spirit of the world. But these are things they have to learn when they get together. Will there be any extortion, any selling our goods for a hundred to five hundred per cent in advance of cost? No. The time will come when this co-operative system which we have now partially adopted in merchandising, will be carried out by the whole people, and it will be said: "Here are the Saints. The time will come when we can give all into the store house of the Lord and have our inheritances given out by those who will be appointed; and when we have had sufficient for the support of our families, the supplies will be given into the store house of the Lord. Will there be any rich or poor then? No. How was it in the time of Enoch? Had they some rich and some poor? Did some ride in their silver carriages, as I do? No. If I had my way, we would foot or ride together and we should see the day when we should do it. Do you think we will ever reach our claims pertaining to oneness in action? No. I do not calculate, as far as I am concerned to yield one particle. I have asked the Latter-day Saints to go to and become one in all things; the Lord requires this, but until they do, I do not expect to yield, not the least. Let us see what the Lord will do. The enemy of all righteousness is determined to own and possess this world and govern and control it as far as he possibly can; and he will do it until Jesus and His Saints drive him out.

Whatever the Latter-day Saints have gained, has been obtained by sheer wrestling and unconquerable resolution. We would never have been permitted to own a foot of land on this earth if the devil had had his way. But we have the land and can build our temples and our new houses and then sanctify our inheritances, sanctify ourselves, our families and sanctify the Lord our God in our hearts that we may be prepared to build up His kingdom.

I wonder what the Latter-day Saints would do in this matter? Do you think we had better hold on to the ground we have already gained from the enemy. We have gained a little in this co-operative system. We feel for each other and try to assist each other. But let me tell you what I am going to do. I do not expect to merchandise with you enemies to any great extent, but to cut it off just as fast as we can. I expect us to raise our own silk here. I would have had plenty for hundreds of silk dressers this year if I could have been blessed with some person who would have taken care of my silk worms and done so. I will raise mine. Raise your own wool, work it and then wear it, and stop going anywhere to purchase goods. Let us sustain ourselves for by and by. Babylon will fall. What will be the result? The merchants will stand and look at one another and say: "What do they do in this city? No man will buy their merchandise; and they will look here and there for a customer, but there will be no one to buy their merchandise, and the result will be: 'Babylon is fallen, is fallen.'"

Are you going to prepare for it? We say we are the people of God and are building up the kingdom of God. We say we are gathered out of the nations to establish Zion. Let us prove it by our works, and we will then manufacture that which we wear. Do we make clothing enough for me and you to wear? Yes; plenty. Let us live so that we can say we are the Saints of God, and when the finger of scorn is pointed at us and we are held in derision and the nations talk about us, let us show an example before them that is worthy of imitation, that they cannot but blush before all sensible and intelligent persons when they say, "There is a people that sin; there is a people that are corrupt; and with shame-faceness they will look upon each other and condemn themselves. Let them howl and bark against us as much as they please, but let us live so that they will have no reason to say a word. Some people say: 'Why don't you contradict this and that?' I have been proclaiming the gospel almost thirty years, and a few have come forth and received and obeyed it. What do you think the leading men among our Christian neighbors said about us? They lied about us until we thought they ought to be satisfied and were tired of hearing them and we found it was no use contradicting them, and those who professed to be good, pious Methodists and Baptists. There is a world of liars. It is said that a lie will pass out of the key-hole and travel a thousand miles before truth can get out of doors. The whole tribe of scribblers and every body else, almost, are ready to contradict truth and make a lie of it; ready to ridicule every just and holy truth; and the individuals that say children born in polygamy are feeble, have no knowledge of the human race or else they believe that they do. Let them study their own bodies. What do you see among them? You see children that are born into the world sickly, weak and unable to walk for years; they are poor, emaciated little things, almost without flesh on their bones. It is from such that the cry comes about the "Mormon" children. Why, one of our children at three months old has much more flesh on its bones than theirs have at ten; and on an average, they have more marrow in their bones and energy in them than the children of the world. They say nothing about human nature or the organization of human beings, nor of the beasts. To make any such declarations proves they are ignorant, or they believe themselves. These are harsh expressions; I need not have used such harsh words; I might have said that they tell the truth which is not true, they slightly diverge from the truth. How soft it would be! But I say they were so destroyed; and all the nations that follow their corrupt practices will go down to hell; and we will go onward and upward. All we have to do is to perform our duty and keep the law of God, and our course is onward and upward. God overrules the acts of the wicked and the righteous.

I recollect when the army of '67 was coming here, a young man named Thomas Williams wrote to his father saying: "God favors great guns and great armies." What did those great guns and great armies do? They took two "Mormon" elders into their camp—Bro. McDonald, of Provo, and Bro. Kearns, who now lives at Gunnison. What a howl they raised! The whole camp howled to think they had two "Mormon" elders. But there were too much faith; the Saints were praying for those elders and they came out unscathed, unhurt and all right. What power there was! What a magnificent camp it was! "The flower of the army," sent to destroy the "Mormons." When they blew out the sun, they sent the moon from shining and the earth from revolving on its axis, they may talk about "wiping out" the "Mormons" or the Gospel, but not until then. This is the way I feel. I am as unconcerned and just as happy as a man can be. It is no matter if the whole world is against us. God is for us. Could not they kill you? Yes, if it be the Lord's will. If it be the will of the Lord for the people to live, they will live. If it had been the will of the Lord that Joseph and Hyrum should have lived, they would have lived. It was necessary for Joseph to seal his testimony with his blood. He has been destined to live he would have lived. The Lord suffered his death to bring justice on the nation. The debt is contracted and they have it to pay. The nations of the earth are in the Lord's hands; and if we are His we will reap the reward of so doing. If we neglect to obey His laws and ordinances, we shall have to suffer the consequences.

Well, brethren and sisters, try and be Saints. I will try; I have tried many years to live according to the law which the Lord has revealed to me. I know just as well what to teach this people and just what to say to them and what to do in order to bring them into the celestial kingdom, as I know the road to my office. It is just as plain and easy. The Lord is in our midst. He teaches the people continually. I have never yet preached a sermon and sent it out to the children of men, that they may not call scripture. Let me have the privilege of correcting a sermon, and it is as good scripture as they deserve. The people have the oracles of God continually. In days of Joseph, revelation was given and written, and the people were driven from city to city and place to place, until we were led into these mountains. Let this go to the people with "Thus saith the Lord," and if they do not obey it, you will see the chastening hand of the Lord upon them. But if they are pleased with and led along like children, we may come to understand the will of the Lord and he may preserve us as we desire.

Let us, then, you and me and all who profess to be Latter-day Saints, try to be Saints indeed. God bless you, Amen.

Benefit.—On Monday night Mr. Margetts takes his benefit, when "King Henry IV" will be performed. Mr. Margetts will appear as the intemperate "Falstaff" for the first time. The ray unctuousness of this prince of cowards, liars and humorists will afford him a fine opportunity to display his abilities, to which we have no doubt he will do justice.

Mr. Wilson will play "Young Hal," the Prince of Wales; Mr. McKenzie the fiery "Hotspur," and Mr. Lindsay, the King, for this occasion. Kate Denin and a full cast will also appear.

Mr. Margetts has for many years afforded an amount of pleasure to our theatre-goers, the value of which would be hard to estimate. He has been twice employed for their gratification; and as a simple act of reciprocal justice, apart from the excellence of the bill provided, he should be greeted with a crowded audience.

W. H. Hooper, H. S. Eldredge, L. S. Hills
HOOPER, ELDREDGE & CO.,
BANKERS,
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.
Gold, Silver, Coin, Land Warrants and Exchange Bought and Sold.

THE undersigned is prepared to furnish Plans and Estimates for the construction of every kind of building, and to superintend the construction of the same, and supervise their erection, on

MODERATE TERMS.
J. P. HENK.
Salt Lake City, Feb. 1870.

Special Notices.

WANTED.—At the Historian's Office, two copies of the Daily News, No. 99 of Vol. 1, Nov. 9, 1868, 412-11

Don't be imposed upon.
By purchasing Baking Powders which fall short of the quantity represented in each package, from one-eighth to one-half. Doolay's Baking Powder is put up in tin cans, which contain actual net weight $\frac{1}{8}$, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{2}$ and 5 pounds, as represented, and is perfectly free from any impure substance. We guarantee purity, quality, quantity and results satisfactory every time. Doolay's Baking Powder is used. For sale by Grocers every where.

THE SWEET, FIXED OIL of the Crossnut is represented by Burnett's Cocoa-lute. Beware of imitations.
A FEW DROPS of Burnett's Florida, in a bath, will produce a delightful toilet water. INSIST UPON OBTAINING BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS, and they will prove to be the purest and cheapest kinds ever used.
WHEN YOU ARE IN WANT of Burnett's Cologne, do not let the Druggist sell you any other kind.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—A real remedy for Asthma has been found in Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THEATRE.

Lessee and Manager—H. B. Clawson & J. T. Caine

GLORIOUS PRODUCTION!
CONTINUED SUCCESS

Of the Favorite Artists,
KATE DENIN!

Mr. JOHN WILSON
As Harry Kavanagh

THIS EVENING,
SATURDAY, JAN. 29,
LAST NIGHT OF

Edmund Selous's Great 4 Act Irish Drama entitled
THE

PEEP 'ODAY,

Or, Saviourneen Deelish!

Kathleen Kavanagh.....KATE DENIN
Harry Kavanagh.....Mr. John Wilson

Doors open at 6½ o'clock. Performance to commence at 7.

Monday Night, Benefit of
MR. P. MARGETTS!

When he will appear as
SIR JOHN FALSTAFF,
In Shakespeare's Play of King Henry IV.

BYASS' LONDON PORTER,
ARROL'S SCOTCH ALE, and
SANDS' CHICAGO STOCK ALE.

On Draught at
Salt Lake Billiard Room.
428-6m

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!!

JOE SIMMONS,
PROPRIETOR "REVERE HOUSE SALOON,"

Is receiving daily, Fresh Oysters direct from Baltimore, in Ice, and in the finest of Tongues, Old English and Scotch Ale and Porter; Brewed, Bottled & Co.'s celebrated Ale, Wagner's Ale and Lager Beer, Golden Crown Cigars, Premium Fine Cut Tobacco, in fact, to speak seriously you must call and see and taste for yourself.
417-11

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE!

Music Hall.

CLASSES IN
Arithmetic, Algebra, Commercial

Calculations, Etc.
Prof. JAS. WATSON.

CLASSES IN PENMANSHIP,

Plain, Business and Ornamental!
Prof. C. R. CLARK.

PHONETICS and PHONOGRAPHY!
Prof. E. L. SLOAN.

PRIMARY CLASSES IN ENGLISH EDUCATION!
Miss LIEBE RICH.

CLASSES,
Bookkeeping and Science

of Accounts generally,
J. MORGAN.

OPEN DAY AND EVENING.
J. MORGAN, Principal.

67-1w

HAVING successfully practiced Hesperia pathy to some extent for the last 21 years, in India especially, on the diseases of children, to which it is peculiarly adapted, its remedies being tasteful and easily administered, the undersigned will be happy to give advice and medicine GRATIS to any parties who may personally apply to him at the residence of Bishop Thos. Jenkins, 4th Ward, before 9 a.m. or from 4 to 5½ p.m., who are required to bring a couple of small clean bottles or large vials with them for the medicine.

Should patients not be able to apply personally, those who attend on their behalf must be able either to describe distinctly the symptoms of the complaint or bring a written statement of the same, which, if severe, Mr. M. will if possible, endeavor to visit.

Free will offerings, however small, will not be refused on the recovery of the patient, but no demand will, in any case, be made either for medicine or attendance.

J. P. HENK.
Salt Lake City, Feb. 1870.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

We have this day

REDUCED THE PRICE

Of all our

WINTER CLOTHING

AND

BLANKETS

To CLEAR OUT for SPRING GOODS

A Splendid Stock of

Beavers,

Chinchillas,

Pilots,

Cassimeres,

Plain and Fancy;

Tailor's Trimmings,
In variety.

Z. C. M. I.

WHOLESALE & RETAIL CLOTHING OPT.

H. B. CLAWSON, Supr.

We have a magnificent stock of

BOOTS & SHOES

IN ALL VARIETIES.

We are selling the balance of our heavy stock at

LOW FIGURES

Both by the single pair or case.

Wholesale & Retail Boot and Shoe Dpt.

Z. C. M. I.

H. B. CLAWSON, Supr.

Sugar! Sugar! Sugar!

We have just received from Bro. G. Nebeker, our first large stock of Sugar manufactured by the Saints on the