UTAH MINES AND MINING.

Unprecedented Activity and Improvement in Business.

The Utah Mineral Product of the Year Shows Handsome Increase—Stock Market in Good Shape.

James A. Pollock said in his weekly mining share market letter under date of today, January 3d:

The first of the year—the annual period of liquidation—has passed and those who are well posted predict that Utah is about to enter upon a period of commercial and mining activity unprecedented in the history of the Territory. The conditions are ripe and already the signs of the coming splendid improvement in general business are making their appearance. The condition of the local stock market upon the commencement of the new year reflects this anticipated change for the better in all lines, but especially in a mining way. The total Utah production of the precious as well as the base metals for the past year passed showed a very handsome increase, that of silver being over eight and one-half million ounces and gold over sixty-five thousand fine ounces. All of the properties throughout the Territory, silver as well as gold, show extreme activity, and their outputs are increasing steadily. During the past week the silver market has maintained itself in good shape and taken all in all showed an improvement over the previous same period. The Mining Exchange is now in running order and gives sights of permanency.

Aldrich suffered the worst in the fray of the week, being offered as low as 55 cents. There were no disquieting reports and the work of development continues as of yore. The coming legal battle with the Silver King is responsible for the condition. Ajax showed some activity and several deals were reported. The stock is considered one of the best buys on the market around 50 cents. Gay Girl some business at very much reduced quotations. Anchor was active.

Began dull morning, free offerings of the stock not bringing out any bids. The showing in the Bullion-Beck is reported to be better with each day's development and the company will undoubtedly make a dividend payment this month. Centennial-Eureka is held far too strongly to make it a very active stock. There are plenty of bids but no offers of the security under $25. The usual double spectacl dividend of $1 per share was paid yesterday. Cumstock and Crescent are doing nothing in the local market.

It is probable that the deep snows may delay the shipment of high grade ore from the Dalton for some weeks, but the reports received from the property are of the best and indicate that the value of the ore in the heavy vein is increasing with development. S me of the weak holders are willing to sell at anything like present quotations. Daly-West's mill should be in active operation within the next two weeks if no unforeseen delays occur. This c mpany should pay dividends before March. Daly continues the usual heavy production of silver and the surplus in its treasury is rapidly growing. Horn Silver pays a quarterly dividend of $50,000 today in New York. The properties of the company are in a splendid condition. Lucky Bill continues the rapid sinking of its shaft.

Again did Mammoth maintain itself in splendid shape, sales being made on both sides of $1.50. The stock was a prime favorite with local and outside investors and well deserved is he. Dividends come easier daily. Morgan is still making improvements in his mill equipment and produces regularly. Mercur showed signs of still-hang early in the week, but with the close there was a slight weakening and offers were made of the stock below the point where bids ceased on Tuesday. As the time for the De Lamar option to expire approaches the interest in the deal increases. It will not prove a disappointment even should the deal not go, for the increased dividends this are assured to that event make the security gilt edged and the well posted once predict that it would easily go to $10 within three months with the option out of the way.

Ontario did not show much life, but no stock was offered below $5.50. The old reliable is still one of the favorites. Silver did some business as did also Silver King. Quotations on the latter are stiffening materially. Sunshine is preparing for a shipment of product and the movement should take place today. The cyanides are very high grade, higher, in fact, than those from any other Camp Floyd district mill. The mines make a wonderful showing. Tetro is advertising a list of delinquents although it does not show a very large number of shares. Work at the properties continues at a satisfactory rate and the indications for the future are good. Applications for gold dust continues to flow in to greatly g num bers and the success with which the splendid company has been placed before the investing public is an evidence of the esteem in which Utah's first-class mining properties are held throughout the country. Orders for gold dust are not confined to the United States, however, flattering inquiries being received from foreign investors who have made heavy money in Utah securities.

AMUSEMENTS.

As might be expected, there was only a small audience at the Theater last night, when the Daughters of Eve was given for the second time by Marie Wainwright and her company. Dramatic productions of a questionable moral tendency do not meet the approbation of the majority of theater-goers in this city.

This evening Sheridan Knowles' comedy, The Love Chase is the bill at the Theater.

Mr. Dixey's engagement at the Theater on Monday evening is looked forward to with interest by lovers of comedy. The Lottery of Love which will be presented is one of Augustin Daly's adaptations from the French with the "French" probably extracted. It is spoken of as full of conceits.

The inaugural ball at the Theater on Monday night should be a brilliant affair.

Two more nights and two matinees remain in which to see the Americans at the Grand and David Garrick at the Lyceum. Both these teasers have been playing to good houses during the past week.

Shelley Items.

SHELLEY, Idaho, Dec. 31.—The week ending December 28, 1895 went out cold, windy and gloomy. Professor Hicks struck it truly and to the letter. Christmas day was cold, windy and gloomy.

Christmas day observance here were a complete success and much credit is due to the committee. In the forenoon services were opened by the Shelley and Lincoln singing, "Hark the Song of Jubilee," in good style; Misses Owen and Miss Herbert engaged in a duet; Miss Edel sang Settle Until in a comic dialogue; and Misses Hodgins and Louie Shelley with a song and recitation; Mr. R. H. Brewster, the leader of the choir; Mr. Mangrave and Mrs. Lew Stephens sang, after which Bro. Heber A. Hulme took the character of Santa Claus. In the afternoon was a grand party and dance for the young ones, whole families and both were plenty. The grand march led by Bro. C. N. Porter, was done in excellent style.

In the evening a good dance and picnic was enjoyed.

Bowie had a party and dance on Christmas eve, and on the evening of Christmas the Dansiers joined in the party at Shelley.

The past week Brother and Sister Mitchell were surprised by the folks. There were a splendid time spent in songs and picnic.

Folks and Christian Husband had a pleasant visit from the folks here and I think one of the best parties of the season.

Sister Louisa Herbert had a birthday surprise on the evening of the 25th and an enjoyable time was spent. Sister Herbert is president of the Y. L. M. I. association and is doing a good work.

Mr. Chas. Rapp is still suffering from his fall and very little improvement is left at present.

At Shelley, Dec. 25, 1895, there was born to Ara and Alice Parson, a baby girl; mother and infant doing well, and later is well pleased with his blue-eyed girl. LOOKOUER.

Tenth Quorum.

The Tenth quorum of Seventies will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Ninth ward meeting house tonight (Friday) at 7:30 o'clock.

WILL LIE IN STATE.

Sixteenth Ward Sunday School Children to Take a Parting Glance at Their Late Superintendent.

As stated in these columns yesterday, the funeral services over the remains of the late Peter Gillespie Sr. will be held in the Sixteenth ward meeting house on Sunday next at 11 a.m. At his decease and for the past fourteen years, Elder Gillespie has held the office of Sunday school superintendent of the Sixteenth ward, in which capacity he endeared himself to all the members of that organization, and in order to allow the pupils of the Sunday school to take a parting glance at the face of their beloved superintendent, his body will lie in state at the meeting house from 10:30 until 11 o'clock, during which time the Sunday school children will have the privilege of viewing the remains. The school will convene at 10 o'clock as usual. Elder Gillespie was born in Scotland on June 24, 1822, and was therefore in the 74th year of his age.

Maricopa Stake Conference.

At 10 a. m., December 22, meeting was called by President C. R. Hakes. On the stand were the presidency of the Stake, we were also favored with the presence of Elder Brigham Young, of the Council of the Apostles.

After singing and prayer, President Hakes made a few remarks, following which, Elder Brigham Young, in an able address, made the firmament a little be remembered.

At 2 p. m., after singing, prayer and administering the Sacrament, Elder Young again addressed the assembly, taking the time of the afternoon in excellent discourse.

Monday, 10 a. m., President Hakes called the meeting to order and after making a few remarks, called for reports from Bishops. These being given, President Hakes reported the Stake. All reports were favorable.

The general and local authorities of the Church were presented and unanimously sustained.

Following this President Henry C. Rogers reported briefly, his labors among the Lamanites.

Elder Brigham Young occupied the remaining time.

Conference recessed at 2 p. m. After opening exercises, Brother Hyrum S. Pierce was the first speaker, followed by Patriarch Benjamin F. Johnson and Elder Wm. J. Le Baron, with closing remarks by Elders Hakes and Young.

Wednesday, December 25.—Meeting was called in the Lehi ward at 10 a. m. Bishop T. E. Jones offered his resignation and after some very good testimonies by Elder Young, the resignation was accepted and Bishop Jones was honorably released with thanks. Elder Soren C. Sorenson was ordained Bishop of the ward.

Two p. m., December 25.—Meeting called in the Pelican ward, at which their house, recently erected was dedicated, Elder Young offering the dedicatory prayer. Continuing Elder Young spoke from the Book of Mormon, on the Lamanites and their saints.

A special Priesthood meeting was held Dec. 23, at which time very good counsel was given.

Conference adjourned for three months.

After meetings were concluded, the people gathered at the Camp Indian, erecting pavilion, and together with fun, songs, recitations, speeches, etc., made the afternoon and evening a very enjoyable time, song to be remembered by the Saints of Maricopa. GEO. PARRY, Clerk.

St. Joseph Conference.

The quarterly conference of the St. Joseph Stake of Zion began at Pima, Arizona, Sunday, December 15 at 10 a. m. Those were present on the stand: Christopher Layton, William D. Johnson and Moroni H. Merrill of the Stake presidency, Patriarch Pulsipher C. Merrill, members of the High Council; Bishops of the various wards (with few exceptions) and other Priesthood men.

The Bishops reported their wards to be in a thriving condition temporarily. Considerable wheat had been put in and is now up and looking well, while more is being put in. There was considerable sickness reported in some of the wards, some as mild, diphtheria, rheumatism, la grippe, etc. There were eleven deaths reported in the last quarter. Some of the larger wards have suspended all gatherings, especially where the young were together, on account of the prevalence of diphtheria. It was thought we were getting the upper hand of these.

Elders Willard Clawson, George R. Smith and A. R. Kempton addressed the conference, as they were expecting to start on a mission soon. The speakers expressed themselves as being willing to go and fulfill their missions, and hoped they would be able to bring some one with the full, and go home to Mother Ward that said them.

Elder Benjamin Cluff, president of the High Priests' quorum, said the greatest number of the quorum were living their religion, while the remainder were not. The speaker exhorted all High Priests to seek the Lord, and see if they are in line with the First Presidency and Twelve, as a phrase used them; for we do not want to be cut short of the blessings that are in store for the faithful.

Elder Monty Boyle reported the Seventies; felt to advise those who were engaged in missions to turn to the Lord, for it is only those who do so that will be able to stand. The speaker had had a great deal of experience in missionary work, having traveled over thousands of miles by rail and many on foot.

Secretary Silas P. Jenkins reported the Elders' quorum; said that since the past year they had visited and ordained except Mr. David and had held 4 meetings and set the quorum in order.

The general and local authorities were present and unanimously sustained.

Following this President Henry C. Rogers reported briefly, his labors among the Lamanites.

Elder Brigham Young occupied the remaining time.

Conference recessed at 2 p. m. After opening exercises, Brother Hyrum S. Pierce was the first speaker, followed by Patriarch Benjamin F. Johnson and Elder Wm. J. Le Baron, with closing remarks by Elders Hakes and Young.

Wednesday, December 25.—Meeting was called in the Lehi ward at 10 a. m. Bishop T. E. Jones offered his resignation and after some very good testimonies by Elder Young, the resignation was accepted and Bishop Jones was honorably released with thanks. Elder Soren C. LITERARY NOTES.

McClure's Magazine for January has a paper by Mr. Murat Halstead on the position Mr. Blaine now holds in his candidacy for the presidency in 1897. By conversations and letters of Blaine never before published, he gives the inner history, first of the nomination and then of the unprecedented services and gradually increased are weight from one hundred and twenty-five to one hundred pounds. Since then I could not hardly have used the medicine when needed, and we look on it as the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would be dead long before now if it had not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hoover, Postmaster and Planter, Elizabeth, S. C.

One of the new letters—a particularly interesting letter written by Blaine just after his defeat—is reproduced in facsimile and there are also new letters by Gen. Sherman, and several portraits of Blaine. Other noteworthy features of the number are a paper on the national retrospect, by Robert Bell; a paper on the latest information regarding "The Man's Light," and short stories by Anthony Hope, Herbert D. Ward—S. S. McClure, Lim., 30 Lafayette Place, New York.

That entertaining magazine for young people, Frank Leslie's Pleasant Hours for Boys and Girls, has some good things in its January number. There is an illustrated article on "The United States Naval Cadet," by Joseph Cobleigh. Gen. Charles Frederick Holder contributes a short story about some boys who caught sharks for a living; there is an article telling how a boy may build a bowling alley and learn to sail it, by Wm. P. Pond; an illustrated New Year's story in verse; a paper on Snow Igloos and Images, and How to Make Them; the conclusion of the two serials by Edward S. Ellis and Jessie Ed. M. Walsh; several short stories, the trunk and parlor, and the school's chat on new books for boys and girls.

OBITUARY.

MARY ANN BOND.

Died at Hunnefer, Utah, Dec. 27, 1895, Mary Ann, wife of William Bond, after a painful and severe illness of rheumatism of the heart and dropsy. She was buried on the 29th. The funeral services were conducted by Elder W. W. Cluff, president of the Stake, who spoke words of consolation and comfort to the bereaved relatives and friends. The hymns sung were on pages 98, 141 and 216 of the Latter-day Saints' hymn book. Mother Bond was born Dec. 19, 1822, at White Smithy Bar, near Manchester, England. She was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by James Williams, December, 1840, at Sinkenny, England; emigrated to America and went to Fair River, Mass., in 1846, where her husband was president of the branch of the Church in which she belonged, she with him doing all that lay in her power in promulgate the Gospel tidings until the year 1850, when she with her husband and family journeyed to Iowa. They pitched their tents for six weeks waiting for the handcarts to be made in that memorable year, and following the same to the valleys of the mountains, doing all that she could to relieve the hungry, sick and dying; landed in Provo, Utah county, Utah, in December of the same year. In 1856 she with her husband and family moved to Salt Lake City and resided there until 1880, then moved to Hunnefer, where she resided to the time of her decease.

Mother Bond, when able, was always ready and willing to assist the sick and afflicted; she was the mother of thirteen children, eight of whom survive her, five sons and three daughters, also seventy-one grandchildren and twenty-six great-grandchildren. She was a good wife and faithful mother, true to the last.

During her illness she had every attention that loving hands could bestow by both relatives and friends to soothe and comfort her aching heart, until God in pitied her of her pain so as to go to the river of all good. She was worthy for the following incident to be recorded for the memory of those who left to mourn her loss. She was called in Salt Lake City to attend her daughter's sick child at a time when there was no bridge over the Weber river as the water was very high; she, mother like, anxious to go, she so now told her son and son-in-law to get Bishop Blackburn's large wagon and two yoke of oxen to ride for a team. She suggested to her son to tie a bed cord around her waist should the current upset the wagon, and for him to get the one end of the rope and she would endeavor to pull her safely to land. But thanks to the Giver of all good she and her son landed safely and she went on her way.

In conclusion I will say that she had a very funeral and therefore many more would have been present, had it not been for the inclemency of the weather.

May she rest in peace until the morn of the first resurrection, when her loved ones will meet in the heavens of rest where pain and sorrow is not known.

She died as she lived, a faithful Latter-day Saint and in full hopes of a glorious resurrection.

The above lines were given to the writer by her eldest son, Mr. John Bond, of Blackfoot, Idaho.

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a nervous. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to one hundred pounds. Since then I could not hardly have used the medicine when needed, and we look on it as the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
