THE EVENING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF TODAY, THE MORNING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF YESTERDAY.

Deseret News.

EVENING — TRUTH AND LIBERTY

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1898. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

NO. 228 VOL. XXXI.

THE CAPTURE OF MANILA

Gallant Fighting Done by the Astor Battery, Which Led the Advance—Heroic Work of the Soldiers.

Loss of the Killed and Wounded—Spanish Loss 200, With 8,000 Captured—The Fleet Uninjured—Troops Marched Two Miles in Mud Over Shoe Tops.

New York, Aug. 18.—A Spanish letter filed from Manila city, dated July 31, via Hongkong, says:

The insurgent Aguinaldo arrived in this city on the 30th instant. He was met by the Astor battery and escorted to the Malacanang palace amid the cheers of the people.

Gen. Merritt commending the Astor battery, complimented its officers upon their right to the model labor bestowed upon their camp and said:

"The Astor battery led the column, followed by the Minnesota volunteers and the regulars. The Utah battery came next. The Astor battery had a hard fought battle at the outset and was sent to the front to relieve the Utah battery.

Gen. Merritt commending the Astor battery, complimented its officers, saying that the model labor bestowed upon their camp showed their care and solicitude for the comfort of their men.

The Astor battery led the column, followed by the Minnesota volunteers and the regulars. The Utah battery came next. The Astor battery had a hard fought battle at the outset and was sent to the front to relieve the Utah battery.

The insurgent Aguinaldo arrived in this city on the 30th instant. He was met by the Astor battery and escorted to the Malacanang palace amid the cheers of the people