OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah. — April 25, 1895.

Junction City News.

The arrest of Robert Wright, of Junction City, at Dallas, Oregon, by a party of men here as a fugitive from justice, was made by Officer Joe Dale, of the Ogden police force, and officers Mike Lynch, a fugitive from justice from the state of Nevada. Wright arrested Lynch at Baker, Oregon, where he had been employed in herding his stock, the officers having trailed them to Junction City. He is in the prisoner on the train to take him to Cedar City to get a warrant upon which he was arrested. Wright himself was arrested and the prisoner was taken from him by Sheriff Hadley, of Humboldt county. Wright was charged with helping the prisoner on to the train.

Lucas Tomlinson of Ogden and John Pinnock of Park City were married yesterday afternoon by Judge H. W. Smith, of the Ogden police court. A reception was given the newly married couple at the Union hotel, assembly night. They left for the Western this morning.

The town is swell wing with shoving, yet not finished, foreign work.

Bill has been filed in the Fourth district court by Roger Brown, of Kaysville, to quiet title to certain Hyde dollars from Frank Wright, of which defendant is claimed to have taken charge.

Charles Austin, who was badly hurt on the Oregon Short Line, is very sick.

PROVO.

Provo, Utah. — April 25, 1895.

A Writ of Review.

Clarence Mayne, of Salt Lake City, has applied to the First district court for a writ of review in a case in which petitioner was fined $100 by Justice James Dalton of the peace in Spanish Fork precinct, for an offense against the city ordinances of Spanish Fork City and Mayne filed a bond, Judge Jackson approved the same and issued the writ. The writ will come up for hearing on the 13th of May.

The Pelican Farm Murder.

The search is still going on for the men who were implicated in James Erickson, who with his wife and two men were the three men who murdered at Pelican farm. The officers are on the way to Idaho on other business and will be with the men, but are hopeful of gathering enough evidence to convict the guilty parties.

Let Him Take Warning.

In Justice H. Mont's court yesterday James Whitmore, of Springville, was fined $10 and costs for cursing and swearing a period in a twenty-eighty and disturbing manner on the 13th of this month. The complaining witness was D. Hoomaker with whom Whitmore had had some unpleasant words, caused him to draw the knife and threaten to shoot Hoomaker's dog. Mr. Whitmore gave some to speak.

A Divorce.

This morning, in the First district court, Clara M. Blackmer, of Charleston, was granted a divorce from Wm. Blackmer on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide.

Personal.

C. H. Savage, of Salt Lake, is in the city on business.

FORECLOSE CATTLE.

What is to Be Done Regarding Delinquent Stock.

Whitmore is not in doubt of any money brought to release heifers in with such [illegible] and [illegible] upon the [illegible] of which [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]