OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - April 3, 1894.

Football.

The Ogden Junior Football club has sent out a challenge to the Weber Stake Academy for a match game on April 20th. It probably will be accepted by the academy boys.

Court News.

W. J. Carney was on trial in the Fourth district court for adultery, yesterday.

In the case of J. R. Barton & Co. vs C. C. Richards et al, plaintiff is allowed to amend complaint providing the clause asking for equitable relief is stricken out.

In the case of T. C. Mercer vs Maggie E. Mercer an order was made to compel plaintiff to make his complaint more definite; $25 temporary alimony per month granted.

The case of the Ogden Paint, Oil & Glass Co. vs W. G. Childs. Court finds in favor of plaintiff and the temporary injunction previously granted made perpetual.

Notes and Personals.

The city council held their regular session last evening and transacted considerable business.

Mr. Daniels and party passed through Ogden yesterday in a special car for the east.

Hon. F. J. Cannon is expected home in the near future.

Col. Dodge, president of the Rio Grande Western, passed through Ogden last evening en route to Denver.

Mr. Pullman, of the Pullman Car company, went west this morning.

Superintendent Bancroft, of the U. P., passed through Ogden this morning.

George Thomas, C. J. Seeley and F. J. Decker were arrested last night on a charge of vagrancy.

The Wagner special car Counsier came in from the east this morning with Mr. Daniels.

Hon. J. W. Doane, one of the U. P. receivers, came from the east this morning, on special car 010 and went west.

Sheriff Belnap left Topeka, Kansas, yesterday on route for Ogden with the third Wells hold-up; the two are now serving a five and seven years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. It is about three years since that Mr. Wells was held up.

Deputy Marshal Cannon passed through Ogden last night on his way to Lewiston, Idaho, to bring back one C. H. Cummings, who is wanted on a charge of embezzlement.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - April 3, 1894.

First District Court.

The case of the United States vs A. F. Mason, passing counterfeit money, is being tried in Judge Smith's court today. It is alleged that Mason passed several counterfeit coins at Vernal, Uintah county, in January last.

Cases were set for trial as follows:

J. F. Erien vs James Chipman et al, April 27.

R. Brereton vs W. N. Dusenberry et al, May 2.

John Jones vs Nat M. Brigham, May 3.

Notes.

A heavy windstorm prevailed in Utah county yesterday.

A young gallant effected a heroic rescue of a young lady at the R. G. W. river bridge on Sunday. The young lady fell from the bridge and was pulled out in the usual romantic style. Nobody was seriously hurt. Cards announcing the marriage of the rescuer and rescued have not yet been announced.

Captain Lender, charged with making an assault with a deadly weapon on Westwater, received a hearing yesterday before Commissioner Dudley and gave bonds in the sum of $100.

Live Stock Points.

If an excited horse is practically crazy, so is an excited man.

The Cheviot sheep breeders are looking up. At their annual convention members were present from many parts of the United States. One of the speakers said that the duty of the breeder for the sheep breeder was apparently to make the sheep produce as much wool and mutton as they have done heretofore.

A prominent horse trainer says the season of 1894 promises to be the most brilliant in the history of the harness horse.
