LONDON, 28 -- The Daily Tele-On the morning of the 4th Inst. I left Salt Lake City for a mission to the Southern States; at Ogden, met brother A. W. Sabin, of Grantsville and in his company proceeded East by the Union Facille to Cheyenne, where we turned south toward Denver over the Denver Pacific. The weather was remarkably mild during the tifp across the mountains, but we had scarcely reached Denver when a furious storm broke over the antire moun-tain country, reaching from Green River to the Fistic for down in Ne-braska, but fortunately, we kept one train shead of the storm and arrived at our present destination

Vienna correspondent seen hopeful, and intimates that Austria is endeavoring to arrange a compremiss. These sanguine views, how ever, conflict with the general tenor of the news. This correspon-dent also declares that Austria b s not thought of the congress with out England, nor has such an idea ed to get an expression of their feelings, which was unanimous to continue the journey they had started out on, as soon as the way opened for them to accomplish it. The Saints here have had many things ito contend against during the winter that has tried some of them sorely, but we find a good spirit among theta, and a determi-mation to hold on to the faith. They were entirely unacquainted with the country, its mannet of customs, which was an obstacle of no small magnitude to overcome.
