CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 13.—The House went into committee of the whole on the Postoffice appropriation bill. The appropriation recommended is $33,190,373, a reduction of $987,770 from last year; $9,100,000 of that sum is for railroad mail service, $6,080,673 for inland mail transportation, and $17,250,000 for pay of postmasters. The bill provides that the Postmaster General may appoint one agent to superintend the railroad postal service, and one to superintend the Star service, and authorizes the Postmaster General to reduce the compensation to railroads for the transportation of mails 5 per cent.

A long and general debate was interrupted by the committee rising, and soon afterwards the House adjourned.

EASTERN.

The Gold Premium Decline.

NEW YORK, 13.—The day in Wall Street has been remarkable for buoyancy in stocks and the virtual extinguishment of the gold premium, which declined to ¼, the lowest point touched since the premium began, seventeen years ago.

Not Granted.

PHILADELPHIA, 13. — Judge Mitchell, to-day, overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Blostres Pistorious, convicted of the murder of Isaac Jacquette, in Montgomery county, in 1876, and sentenced to be hanged. Upon the announcement, Pistorious arose excitedly and accused his lawyers of not having acted in good faith, and said that if the judge did not grant him a new trial, he would be a murderer of justice. Counsel for Pistorious gave notice that the case would be carried to the Supreme Court.

Practicability of Resumption.

CHICAGO, 13.—The practicability of resumption has been instanced here in various ways, to-day, at the sub-treasury. A twenty-dollar gold piece came in to be exchanged for currency and three coin checks, issued by the Collector of Customs were deposited by the bank as currency; Gold is beginning to be paid out by merchants quite freely.

Fatal Explosion.

INDIANAPOLIS, 13.—Four men were injured by the explosion of a portable engine to-day, two fatally.

Fitz John Porter's Case.

WASHINGTON, 13.—The President's order for a new inquiry into Fitz John Porter's case is accepted in itself as a great triumph for the latter and his many friends, who have constantly maintained his patriotic fidelity, and that he was a victim of circumstances and popular prejudices at the time of great excitement. The President has fully examined the new evidence in the case, attainable only since the war closed though he began the examination with avowed prejudice, and became satisfied that national honor, equally with justice to Porter, required a new hearing of all the facts. Porter was convicted of disobedience of orders and misbehavior before the enemy. The case depended upon two orders, issued by General Pope, on the day of the second Bull Run. The first of these was a joint and discretionary order to McDowell and Porter. The disobedience charged consisted of falling back to Manassas, instead of moving forward towards Gainesville. Porter's defence was, that he did not fall back one foot; that he did advance until he met the enemy, and was deploying to attack him, when McDowell assumed command and ordered him not to do so. Porter assumed that this was a wise exercise of discretion, as Pope's order was issued on the supposition that the enemy would not come up there until the next day, while McDowell and Porter knew Longstreet was already in their front, with overwhelming forces, as abundant testimony now shows was the fact. The second charge against Porter, was based on his failure to obey Pope's order at Fourth City (?) after noon, to push into action immediately on the enemy's flank. The defense was, that the order was received too late for obedience; that the enemy's whole force, and not his flank, was in position to receive the ordered attack, and that darkness rendered any attack impossible after the order was received. The overwhelming testimony now shows that Porter was right and Pope wrong as to these facts; that the conditions on which the order was given by Pope did not exist, and that Porter, knowing this, would have been criminally responsible for obeying the order literally; that such obedience could only have led to the utter destruction of his own corps, and enabling the entire force of the enemy to concentrate against Pope, and that Porter's course did, in fact, prevent such a junction by the enemy. Gen. Longstreet unhesitatingly declares that but for Porter's action he could have bagged Pope on that occasion.

The evidence from confederate, and new evidence from Union sources, is very strong, and makes a case which your correspondent believes impregnable.

Government Timber Land Trespass.

Secretary Thompson, in reply to an inquiry from Representative Page, has written a letter, stating that the War Department has ordered no prosecutions under section 216 of the Revised Statutes relative to trespasses on the government timber lands, nor has any been commenced by its knowledge or consent.

Secretary Thompson also writes that the total amount collected and paid into the navy pension fund, under section 4,751, which provides for disposition of penalties for timber trespasses, has been only $242 during the four years since this law was enacted. This letter has been obtained by Page for use in connection with the position taken by him and many others, that the execution of the law concerning timber depredations is confined wholly to the Secretary of the Navy, and that consequently prosecutions commenced by the Secretary against parties in California cannot be legally maintained. Similar proceedings in Minnesota have, however, been fully upheld by the United States courts in that State.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 13.—In wool, owing to the observance of fast day, the aggregate business of the week is smaller than usual, the total sales amounting to only 666,000 lbs. Manufacturers continue to purchase only for immediate wants. The high prices recently paid in California for the new clip is causing surprise here, as they are three cents higher than the current sales in this market. The transactions in fleece wool include Ohio at 41 @ 42 for X, XX and above, but round lots could not be placed at over 40, and the market is settling down on this price for the most desirable lots of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. In Michigan fleeces there has been quite a concession, some small lots selling at 38, but they cannot now be quoted at over 35 @ 36; for good average lots of Wisconsin, Michigan and combing and delaine fleeces, there is an increased demand, sales at 40 @ 46, and some very choice at 50. Pulled wools at 27 @ 37½ for super and X, including low and medium. Super California wool is quiet, with small sales at 18 @ 30 for spring and 15 @ 20 for Fall.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Meeting of Cotton Operatives.

LONDON, 13.—A meeting of 3,000 cotton operatives was held at Blackburn, to take action on the masters' notice, requiring the acceptance of a 10 per cent. reduction of wages which expires Wednesday next. The operatives adopted a resolution declaring that unless the masters took down the notice, work should be stopped immediately. There is prospect of a strike on a large scale, as the masters are apparently unyielding. A vast outdoor meeting also took place on the Blackeye Moor, at which an uncompromising spirit of resistance was exhibited.

Eastern War Notes.

At St. Petersburg, the opinion regarding the Gortschakoff circular is much divided. Some consider it a complete political programme and worthy a great power. Others regard it as a formal refutation of Salisbury's accusations. Some think it Russia's last word; others, the introduction of negotiations on new grounds. It has greatly displeased those who wish the government to nail the colors to the mast and risk all rather than make the slightest concession.

The opinion at Berlin continues skeptical about the success of the negotiations. The Nord Deutsche Zeitung, referring to Germany's mediation, said the joint appeal of England and Russia for the good offices of Germany could have a meaning only if the parties were willing to make such concessions as would put out of the question the possibility of either party challenging the other.

Bratiano, Roumanian premier, returned to Vienna on Thursday, on the way to Bucharest. He had an interview with Count Andrassy and Herr Tisza. The tidings Bratiano brings from Berlin are not encouraging. The conviction there is that the Czar is bent on having Bessarabia back, and will take it, and that the best thing the Roumanians can do is to make the best possible terms about the compensation they are to receive.

The situation at Constantinople is still regarded dangerous to peace. Notwithstanding the protestations of the Porte there are intrigues going on among the Pashas, and the discretion of the Russian commander and of Layard are doubted. Mebemet Ali and Mukhtar, Osman, Reouf and Said Pashas, and other Generals, dined with Layard yesterday.

FAMILY RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into four forms.

The first form is that of a "FAMILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page accommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death date, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "BAPTISM FOR THE DEAD RECORD," with spaces for names, dates, birth death, baptism, confirmation, etc.

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book, and its pages are numbered.

These Records are well printed and ruled on good ledger paper, substantially bound in full sheep, English roan, or Rock. We can furnish them of any size, from one to five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, proportioned to each other to order.
