PICTURESQUE INDIANAPOLIS.

A Letter From Joseph E. Cardin, President Indiana Conference.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument—Proselyting in Indiana—Other Missionary Matters.

To the Editor:

Thinking a few lines from this part of the Lord's vineyard might be of interest to some of your many readers, I take pleasure in forwarding you a few items.

I shall first attempt a short description of the "Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument," universally admitted to be among the grandest works of art in the world. It is designed to glorify the heroic epoch of the republic and the valor and fortitude of Indiana's soldiers and sailors in the War of the Rebellion.

This structure is in about the central part of the city from which run four avenues diagonally through the city. [illegible]
