A Common Button Saves a Man's Life in Montana.

A MEXICAN SHOT AND KILLED.

A Small Boy Severely Burned—An Embezzler Held—Utah Boys Moving.

Placer county, Cal., has voted $80,000 bonds to build a hospital.

Thomas Collier was shot and killed on Tuesday at Spokane, Wash., by Thomas Campbell, of St. Maries, Idaho. They were farmers and had a dispute over line fences.

A stranger, giving the name of Smith, claiming to be a worker of St. Paul, is missing in San Diego, Cal. When last seen he had $500 in his possession. Foul play is suspected.

W. H. Herr, convicted of smuggling, has been sentenced at Tacoma, Wash., to eighteen months in the Federal penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100 and costs. Herbert Gray, who pleaded guilty and was witness against Herr, received eight months.

A vein of copper was opened up on Tuesday at Cripple Creek, Colo., 700 feet east of the Cripple Creek depot. An assay returned 55 per cent copper and one half ounce in gold. The discovery was visited by hundreds of people today. Everybody owning town property in the neighborhood feel as though they were the owners of a mine.

Hon. John Donaldson, who is here as a delegate from Fremont county, says the Boise, Idaho, Statesman, states there has been very large immigration into that section now. A majority of those coming now are going into Utah. These are farmers familiar with conditions and methods in an irrigated country and they constitute a very valuable addition to the community.

The preliminary hearing of George M. Jarvis upon a charge of embezzling the Cache la Poudre Reservoir company out of $5,000 while acting as its secretary, has resulted at Greeley, Colo. A decision has been reserved, defendant being bound over to the next term of the district court in the sum of $2,500, which was promptly furnished. The case is one of particular interest to citizens of Weld county, as Mr. Jarvis is and always has been considered one of its prominent citizens.

Ernest, the six-year-old son of Will R. Hendricks, manager of the carpet department of the fair at Denver, was severely burned at his home, 2148 Franklin street on Wednesday evening. The little fellow was playing with some matches and set fire to his clothing. Mrs. Hendricks attempted to extinguish the flames with clothes and pillows and was severely burned about the hands and arms. The child was placed under the care of a physician, who pronounced the burns severe, but not serious.

At Ward & Chutney's rock camp on the Arizona and Southwestern railroad, near Benson, Arizona, Dick Gaines on Monday night shot and killed a Mexican laborer name unknown. The Mexican and Gaines had some difficulty and the former secreted Gaines with a knife, Gaines drew his revolver and fired, with fatal result. He at once left for Tombstone to surrender himself to the authorities. The Mexican workmen in the camp seem disposed to seek vengeance for the death of their comrade, and it is feared they will inaugurate a race war on the Americans in camp.

Judge Bellinger has rendered an important decision at Portland, Or., in the cases of Thomas Hawks and Edward Kline, charged with selling liquor to Indians. He decided that the allotment of lands to severally Indians had the effect of removing them from under the charge of Indian agents and gave them the standing of American citizens. As such the United States laws governing Indian wards of the government do not apply to them, and the selling of liquor to an Indian who is not in charge of a United States Indian agent is not punishable under the United States statutes. The decision has as a precedent the opinion of Judge Hanford, delivered in an Indian case of another character in 1892, but it is the first decision to this effect in a case directly in point.

An ordinary button lately saved the life of Mike Brennan, at Butte, says the Anaconda, Mont., Standard, and prevented Patrick E. Smith from becoming a murderer. Brennan and Smith are miners and have been boarding at Mullins's boarding house in Centerville for a long time. Smith has always been of an extremely bashful and backward nature, a fact which has been taken advantage of by many of Mullins's boarders, and for a year or more they have made him the butt of all their jokes, and especially they have taken delight in tantalizing and teasing him about some girls in Centerville. They carried the jobbing to such an extent that Smith's life, it is said, was made miserable. Furthermore among the jokes played on Smith at when the men sat down to breakfast this morning he turned loose on Smith again. Others soon chipped in and Smith made up his mind that forbearance had ceased to be a virtue. He, without much ado, he reached across the table and struck Brennan a blow in the face. Brennan returned the blow and staggered Smith, whereupon the latter whipped out a revolver and fired at Brennan and he fell. It was thought he had been fatally shot and he was removed to his room and Dr. Campbell was summoned to attend him. An examination showed that the bullet, a 32-caliber, had struck a button on the waistband of Brennan's drawers, a fact that undoubtedly saved his life. The bullet, after driving the button into his flesh, entered the body just above the navel, and, without penetrating far, passed downward under the skin and was cut out about four inches below the point of entrance. The wound is not at all serious and Brennan will probably be all right again in a few days. After firing the shot Smith replaced the revolver in his pocket and waited until Deputy Sheriff Coombs arrived and arrested him. He was taken to the county jail and locked up. Smith is about forty-five years old and has been around Butte for a number of years.
