THE EVENING NEWS.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected Daily by HOOPER, ELDREDGE & CO., Bankers.

SALT LAKE CITY, August 2, 1871.

Buying at $1.10; Selling at $1.12.

WEATHER ITEM. — The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 86.

CHARLEY BACKUS, the Great Ethiopian comedian and mimic, and MISS KATE NEWTON, the talented and accomplished juvenile actress, will shortly appear at the Theatre, for TWO NIGHTS ONLY.

SILVER BROOCH LOST.—A brooch of three stones, the centre one of amber color and the two side ones colorless chrystal, set in silver, was lost in the vicinity of the Twentieth Ward, a few days since. Any person giving information, at this office, that will lead to its recovery, will confer a great favor upon the owner, who prized the article, not for its intrinsic value, but on account of the circumstances under which she became its possessor.

GRASSHOPPERS IN WEBER COUNTY.,—Bishop Henry Holmes, of North Ogden, informed us to-day that the "hoppers" were visiting some portions of Weber County in large numbers. They seemed to come from the North and were inclined to travel westward, but were prevented doing so by a north westerly wind, which had been blowing for the last few days. They have not done much damage in the county yet, but should they not fly off pretty soon there is a prospect of their doing considerable injury to the corn crop and the fruit trees. The pests are within three miles of Ogden. Should they come South instead of flying to the west, it is not unlikely that we may be visited by them here. Should they come it is to be hoped their visit will be a flying one. It is gratifying to know that all the small grain in the Territory is now out of their reach.

TERRITORIAL NEWS.—Received by Deseret Telegraph.

Another Small-Pox Patient Dead.

ALTA CITY, 2.

Murdock Morrison, known as "Jim" among the mining fraternity, and who has been afflicted with small-pox, broke from his nurse on Sunday night last, by knocking him down. His rushing into the cold mountain air and being exposed for two hours thereto, resulted in his death at half past three to-day.

There are no more known cases of small-pox in this region.

TWENTY-FOURTH AT PINE VALLEY.—An correspondent sends us an account of the celebration of the Twenty-fourth at Pine Valley. The people there, it appears, had a fine time on that day. The procession, speeches, singing, dancing, etc., were all excellent and enjoyable.

MURDER NEAR OGDEN.—The following was received by Deseret Telegraph, last night:

OGDEN, August 1.

The body of a man was found to-day, about five or six miles south of the Weber river, and about 300 yards from the U. C. R. R. track. From all appearances he had been murdered, several days since. The skull was fractured and broken in several places. Sling shot and fragments of a letter were found in his pocket, signed Knowlan, and addressed to Michael Knowlan, employe, at Benedict, Hall & Co's. manufactory, New York. The contents, which were intended for an affianced lady named Maggie, gave a description of the mines of Utah, etc., and expressed an intention of returning in a year or two. The body will be brought in this evening, for an inquest.

LATER.—NOT MURDERED.

OGDEN, 2.

Coronor Fife, this morning, states that the body was found nearly seven miles from Ogden, and between three and four hundred yards west of the U. C. R. R. track, being one mile south of the boundary line of Weber county. The body was placed in a coffin, which had been taken from Ogden, and sent on to Davis county, for inquest in said county. On a closer examination of the ground where the body was found, there is every appearance of deceased having met with his death by being thrown from a horse and dragged through the brush by the foot; how far cannot be ascertained definitely, and that he was not murdered, as reported yesterday. He is badly scratched and bruised all over the body. The scars and scratches on his head might induce the conjecture, without a close examination, that he had met with death otherwise, but, from every appearance of the ground, and finding his coat, which was some distance from the body, and his boot only a few feet from where the body was, it is pretty certain that he had been thrown from some horse and dragged by one foot, and only released by it slipping out of the stirrup and falling where found. The shirt and other clothing were badly torn. He was apparently about twenty-five years of age, about 5 feet 7 inches in height, had red hair, moustache and whiskers, and was of slim build. The letter found in his coat was addressed to Patrick Knowlan, and it is evident his name was Michael Knowlan.

SANITARY.—A correspondent who signs himself "Crisp," has handed us a communication on matters sanitary. As we consider the subject he treats upon to be one of importance, we herewith publish the larger portion of the letter:

"People have been in the habit to convey dead bodies of animals just outside of city limits, and there leave them unburied, exposed to the open air. This is at all times an unwarrantable practice, but it becomes especially so during the spring and autumn seasons. Many of our citizens are in the habit of taking a pleasant drive over what is known as Arsenal Hill, not only in order to enjoy the most magnificent view which the country affords, but also to enjoy an invigorating evening breeze, which comes down City Creek Kanyon and adjoining ravines. Lately, however, some one who resides near where the Arsenal used to stand, has had reason to complain of a nauseous stench which proceeds from the effluvia of some dead animals lying directly east from the "Arsenal block."

A few nights ago a man who lives in that vicinity was taken very ill from the effect of poisonous gases emitted from sundry carcases conveyed there lately.

There is also a certain stink-pool, at one time designed for a "fish pond" the stagnant water of which has become too old even for frogs to breed in, and which therefore wants renewing. It may be said in justification that there is a small stream of fresh water running through it sometimes from the water sect. How far it is justifiable to let the water from the regular sect be mixed with the filth of such a pool, I leave to the judgment of those who live below and some of whom probably have to use the water for culinary purposes.

There are also certain outhouses in the same vicinity which I would invite the Sanitary committee to sit in judgment upon."

ARRESTED.—On the 10th of July, James Carroll assaulted and brutally maltreated a man named Franzen, on Second South street. The assault was the more aggravated on account of its being entirely unprovoked. Carroll, finding that the police were on his track, left the city directly afterwards for Cottonwood Kanyon, where, it appears, he remained until yesterday. On the police being informed that he was at the Salt Lake House, some officers went there to arrest him and found him engaged in a pugilistic encounter with a man named Dunfree. Carroll violently resisted the officers, who, however, succeeded in lodging him in the station. For fighting, resisting the police and otherwise disturbing the peace yesterday, he was fined $35, and $25 for the assault on Franzen on the 10th of July.

Dunfree, for fighting with Carroll, was fined $15.

DIED.

In Salt Lake City, July 28, 1871, of cholera morbus, DAVID ISAAC, son of James and Elizabeth Smith, aged 1 month.

In Payson city, of paralysis, ANN DONE, aged 60 years and 24 days.

NEW REFORM.—The introduction of Soda Water and Sarsaparilla, by Day & Co., has done more in the way of a Temperance Reform than all the lectures that have been delivered in the country. The natural condition of man is a thirsty one, and it has long been an established fact that water will not quench thirst. The question then arises, can we find a substitute as harmless in its effects, and more delicious in taste than anything yet discovered? We find it in Day & Co.'s Soda and Sarsparilla. If every one would sign the Pledge and drink nothing but this Celebrated Beverage, much degradation, misery, shame and crime would be prevented in the world. If any one doubts the truth of our remarks let them step into the first place they come to and try it. It will speak for itself. en170tf
