CYCLONE'S PATH OF DESTRUCTION

Half a Hundred or More People Lose Their Lives.

KIRKSVILLE, MO., A VICTIM

Track of the Storm Was a Quarter of a Mile Wide and as Clean as the Prairie.

Kirksville, Mo., April 27.—A gathering storm that had been threatening all afternoon, broke upon Kirksville at 6:30 o'clock tonight in all the fury of a cyclone. A path a quarter of a mile wide and as clean as the prairie, was swept through the eastern portion of the city, and four hundred buildings, homes and mercantile, were leveled to the ground in scattered ruins.

In the heavy rain that followed, the people who had escaped turned out to rescue the injured. For two hours not much was accomplished, as all was confusion, but by 8 o'clock twenty-five dead bodies had been taken from the ruins. It is confidently expected that the list of dead will reach between fifty and sixty, if not exceed that. Almost a thousand were more or less injured.

FACE AMERICANS IN OPEN GROUND

Filipinos Make the First Attempt at Calumpit.

MADE A FEEBLE RESISTANCE

Luna's Brigade Came Up on the Double Quick—Falling Bullets Soon Scatter the Rebels.

Manila, April 28, 9:20 a. m.—At Calumpit for the first time a large body of Filipinos attempted to face the Americans in open ground. The Filipinos in the trenches were dispersed after making a ridiculously feeble resistance, but General Luna's brigade came upon the field from Macabebe on the double quick, the two regiments preserving a perfect formation. The Americans from the south bank of the river, which is higher than the north bank, could see General Luna mounted on a black horse, galloping frantically along the lines and apparently exhorting his followers to make a stand. He finally succeeded in getting them spread in an extended line of battle which would have done credit to a civilized army.

AMERICAN BULLETS FLY.

But when the American bullets showered thickly among them, stirring clouds of dust from the sandy soil, the Filipinos showed that no amount of drilling could fortify them sufficiently to make them face the American rifles and their train puffed up the track loaded with dead and wounded in plain sight of the Americans who were entering the town so closely that the rebels barely slipped out of their victor's hands. The Montana regiment made a rush to capture the train, running up the track, yelling shrilly and even dropping their guns in the pursuit; but the engine backed off hastily, leaving the bodies of six warriors to their comrades.
