Annual Ward Reunion.

The members of the Tenth Ward and their friends held their annual festive gathering yesterday afternoon and last night in the ward meeting house. The decorations were profuse and gave proof of artistic skill and taste. An illuminated star represented the new State, was an object of special attraction. National colors, wreaths, festoons, and an elegant variety of wall pictures rendered additional beauty to the scene. Among the visitors were the Stake presidency. Several tables, richly covered with a goodly variety of edibles, were set before the visitors. Gentlemen and lady waiters were in attendance, and the participants, who numbered about 400, partook of the abundance of good things before them.

Shortly afterwards, the guests gave audience to a number of exercises consisting of speeches, songs and other selections. The opening chorus by the choir was beautifully rendered. After prayer, Bishop Spiers made a few opening remarks, wishing the visitors a happy New Year. He was followed by Elders C. W. Penrose and Angus M. Cannon, both of whom made appropriate remarks. A duet by Messrs. A. E. Braby and Joseph Pull, and a recitation by Miss Maud Paul with organ accompaniment, were especially pleasing. A flute solo by Mr. C. G. Berry received several rounds of applause. Also among the contributions were songs by Miss Pearl Russell and Fred Fuller, and a duet by Mrs. Nora Duncan and Maud Harris. Closing speeches were made Mrs. Paul and Elders Braby and Strong. Later in the evening the younger portion of the audience engaged in dancing until a late hour.

COAST EXCURSION.

Arrangements Made to Sing in San Francisco and Oakland.

LETTER FROM PROF. STEPHENS.

Writes From the Land of Perpetual Sunshine and Flowers—Expects To Be Home Tonight.

PALACE HOTEL, San Francisco.—Realizing that many News readers, especially the singers anticipating the trip to California, are eager to know what success their embassadors are having in the "land of flowers" I hastily pencil a few words. We arrived here Sunday night about 10 o'clock, and after a good night's rest spent a very busy Monday, succeeding in making fairly satisfactory arrangements with the railway officials to carry our party to Sacramento, Stockton, San Jose, and finally Oakland and San Francisco—all the real points of interest to us in northern California—and return.

This very important part accomplished, we called on the managers of all the leading theaters in the city and consulted relating to halls, prices, etc. They received us most kindly and in addition to their valuable advice, offered every assistance in their power giving a general, kindly and enthusiastic encouragement to our coming as representatives of the great Mormon Tabernacle choir. It seems by everyone we have met, as well and favorably known. The choice of hall lay between the Mechanics' pavilion and the Metropolitan Temple. We examined both thoroughly. The former is vast, but shapeless, very unfavorable to musical effects of a delicate order, without seats or platform; the latter is comparatively small, seating only about fourteen hundred people in its auditorium, but is as cozy as a theater, with a possibility of reserving every seat. A good pipe organ forms its rear platform; over the platform can be built a special one to seat our chorus, at small expense. Here we can do our best work with organ, piano or strings accompanying and be heard perfectly by every one in the building. We have stage decided upon this hall as the best available, and splendid in all but size, and have engaged it for four or six performances, as may later be determined upon. Our next important labor was to select a competent man to look after the local management between now and our arrival. We consulted the leading music dealers here, Sherman & Clay, where the sale of seats for the "Temple" takes place. Of the gentlemen recommended by them as being reliable and experienced, we selected a Mr. Love, whom we found to have been eminently successful here with like enterprises. Then hotels and restaurants had to be investigated. This done we went over to Oakland accompanied by Mr. Love and there secured a fine church for our evening. We are now negotiating with San Jose for either a church or opera house, and will try the same in Sacramento for one night. Our San Jose trip will cost us extra. But I think it will pay us to visit it, especially from a pleasure and sightseeing point of view.

Our treatment has been most kind and enthusiastic. The railway officials will have a special agent come to Salt Lake and act as guide that no point of interest may escape us. Elder Stowerott, of the mission here, called upon us and gave us an invitation to spend New Year's evening at a social party they were holding. I regret that my day's walk had so worn me out that it was an impossibility for me to have accepted the kind invitation. My bed claimed me by the late hour we were through. By the way, San Francisco people send the old year out and greet the new year in with all the din here, street racket that little Salt Lake indulges in on election night. New Years' day the Welsh of Callinoia hold their eisteddfod here, and Mr. Whitney and myself were waited upon by Mr. Robert James, chairman of the committee and Mr. Hughes member, with an urgent invitation. I hope the demands of that day's labor will permit me to attend at least one session.

Oh, this perpetual summer land does seem very lovely to a lover of nature. If my singers and others who come out here in the spring enjoy it as much as I do now—with all the work, I will not regret having put the notion in their heads nor will they regret a whole winter's earnest, enthusiastic "rustling" and practice, which must be well done, as much will be expected of us, and we must not prove a disappointment. I expect to be at home Saturday night and hope to have a rehearsal Sunday night, at 8:30, preparatory to our inaugural exercises with all the singers in Salt Lake City. Let everybody come and we will have the first grand congregational singing rehearsal since before the dedication of our beautiful Temple.

E. STEPHENS.

I mean the people may practice "America" and the Star Spangled Banner with the slogans if they will attend. E. S.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Winger Claims the Distinction of Trying the First Case in the State of Utah.

Joe Collins alias Sullivan, who is known both as a burglar and highway robber, he being the fellow who held up and robbed a Mr. Kleiting the other morning on South Temple street, and prior thereto burglarized a saloon on West Temple street and stole therefrom all kinds of mixed drinks, was before Judge Winger this morning. It was without doubt the first case tried in the new State of Utah, and was prosecuted by Assistant County Attorney Daniel Harrington, while John James performed the requisite clerical work.

Burglary was the charge preferred, the highway robbery charge being dropped on account of the victim having left town. Witnesses in the persons of L. Ferrazzi, proprietor of the saloon, James D. Cummins and Officers Hilton and Ford, were sworn and examined, and the testimony adduced was of such a nature that Judge Winger bound the defendant over to await the action of the district judge in bonds of $500.

A PROFESSOR PRAISED.

Kind Words for Ex-superintendent of Schools Allen and His Successor, Mr. VanCott.

To the Editor:

Among the capable officers whose terms were brought to a close with the beginning of 1896, may be mentioned the name of Prof. D. R. Allen, who for two terms presided over the educational interests of Salt Lake county. Prof. Allen is a Utah boy, and by diligence and faithful attention to duty has made a most enviable record as an educator, and few officials in the new State have made more substantial friends. Always dignified, genial and honorable, and with a desire to promote the cause of education in Utah's center of population, he has advanced the public school system, and leaves the schools in splendid condition. His successor, Superintendent Van Cott, is well informed upon the needs and status of the county's educational system, and it is firmly believed that he will make a capable and efficient officer. A TEACHER.

For disturbing the devotional exercises of the Salvation Army, Albert Kramer and T. O'Leary, both transients, were before Justice Holzabek and were given fifteen and five days respectively, being denied the option of a fine. The disturbing of religious meetings have become of too frequent occurrence of late and must be stopped.

Gen. Q. Cannon, Joseph F. Smith, Le Grand Young and John R. Winder attended a meeting at the office of the Pioneer Electric Power Co. yesterday. F. J. Kiesel, A. R. Patton and C. R. Banister, of Ogden, were also present.

The five-year-old daughter of Joseph S. Geddes, of Plain City, died of scarlatina yesterday. The father is absent on a mission.

Some time ago Mr. Simon Goldheim of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and a prompt cure was effected. He says he has since advised many of his friends to try it and all who have done so have spoken highly of it. It is for sale by druggists.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds. It opens the secretions, relieves the lungs and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. If freely used as soon as the cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it greatly lessens the severity of the attack and has often cured in a single day what would have been a severe cold. For sale by druggists.

An old Soldier's Recommendation.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhea. Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief it would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results followed. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. H. BENNING, Halsey, Oregon. For sale by druggists.

Look here: raisins and currants already cleaned.

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the ten mile road race, in which McCormick finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. Then came the track race, Joe Beck taking second in the novice. Fowler first, Waller second, and Thatcher third in the mile scratch, class B, all "Rambler" you will note. In the half mile class A, May took second, Cotter third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a mad in a yellow suit lost his head and fell. Cunningham and Waller being immediately behind him, the result was a spill for these parties and the race left to Evans. The five mile, class A, was another Rambler event, May taking first, Joe Beck second and McCormick third. Fourteen prizes in one day is glory enough for any man.

People who laugh and people may cry,
And does may howl if they please,
But Rambler's win races wherever they go,
Regardless of how cinders freeze.

Moral—Buy a Rambler! Ride a winner and you'll be a spinner.
