FRAGMENTS.

The rains this fall have been a remarkable feature and the quarreling over them a disgrace.

MISS MAY SMITH, a popular young lady of this city, has returned home from an extensive eastern pleasure trip covering a period of two months.

The Sixteenth Quorum of Seventies will hold its monthly meeting on Monday evening next in the First ward assembly hall, at 7:30 o'clock.

CITY TREASURER DEE paid the following amounts to the departments named today: Waterworks, $17,555.60; health, $504.75; schools, $1,055.

The Thirteenth quorum of Seventies will meet in the Twentieth ward vestry on Sunday evening, October 16th, at 7:30 o'clock.

THE subject of Rev. Mr. Uhler's discourse in the Theater tomorrow morning will be "Alfred Tennyson, his philosophy, his religion and his poetry, and the influence of his teaching." The class in the Ten Great Religions meets at 12:30 as usual, "Confucius." Everybody welcome.

A CERTAIN of attention, and one of the most important features of the main building of the Territorial Fair, is the work of the lightning artist, C. F. Valder, with the Co-operative Wagon & Machine Co. The same company have made a fine display on the grounds outside the main building and have given interesting exhibitions of steam threshing and plowing.

THE President has granted a pardon to George E. Cooper, the railroad man who, for alimony, was sentenced by Judge Anderson on May 2nd last, to one year in the penitentiary. The petition for clemency was signed by a number of leading men in the city, and Judge Anderson himself strongly favored the application made to President Harrison.

The trial of W. H. Irvine, of this city, who shot and killed Hacker Mercantile company, of Lincoln, Nebraska, at the place a few months ago for the seduction of his wife, will begin on Monday next. Irvine will freely admit the killing of Montgomery and only ask to exonerate himself on the ground that his victim had ruined him of his wife's affections; that he had dragged her of her virtue and forever wrecked the happiness of his home. The prosecution and defense are made up of the strongest legal talent the state can produce.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pepworth, of No. 22 west Fifth North street, will be pleased to learn of the sad demise of their little son "Charlie." The painful event occurred yesterday, after an illness of only one week, and has cast a heavy gloom over the entire family. The child dressed was a bright little fellow nearing the third anniversary of his birth, and was a universal favorite among his playmates and all who knew him. His parents have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. Funeral services will be held on Sunday, at 10 a. m. Friends are invited.

Notice.

To the Stake Officers of the Y. L. M. I. Association: A meeting of the Stake officers of the Y. L. M. I. A. will be held Sunday afternoon immediately after the close of the services in the Tabernacle, at the residence of Mrs. M. Y. Dougall, opposite the west Temple gate.

A full attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted.

ELMINA S. TAYLOR, President.

GAMBLING HOUSE ROBBED.

A Sleek Thief Manipulates a Skeleton Key with Skill and is Rewarded with $128 in Cash.

The following account of a bold robbery in broad daylight is given in today's Ogden Standard:

While the young man who is temporarily in charge of Thompson's gambling hall over the Senate saloon at lower Twenty-fifth street was asleep yesterday afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock, a burglar gained an entrance to the place by means of a skeleton key, and after picking the locks on the cash drawers, took $128 in gold and three dollars in silver, leaving a considerable amount of silver on the roulette table. He then passed down the main gambling room and entrance, through a small restaurant and into the back yard, after which he was seen no more.

The robbery was not discovered until about 2 o'clock and the young man in charge was at once notified and furnished with a description of the suspected thief, a young man recently arrived from Butte who has been loitering around the gaming tables and Senate saloon, seemingly doing nothing but in reality taking in the situation and sizing up the lay of the building. The police made a diligent search but have thus far made no arrest.

A STRANGE ARREST.

It Seems to Be the Result of Some Misunderstanding.

Chief Paul and Captain Donovan this morning arrested Captain Alexander Nethercott, an old and well known resident of this Territory, on information furnished them by Ogden officers, on the county road just beyond the Warm Springs. The charge was grand larceny and the complaining witness was J. W. Sheridan, of the firm of Hepburn Bros., Ogden. Deputy Sheriff Lamport of Weber came down today to take the prisoner back with him. He knew nothing whatever of the details in the case. When the warrant was read to Mr. Nethercott, he was visibly affected and said that the whole affair was a mistake and volunteered the statement that he had purchased a span of horses from Hepburn Bros. some time ago. The price was $145. Of that amount he had paid $100 in building stone and intended to liquidate the balance as quickly as he was able. It was for the non-payment of this $45 he believed he had been arrested. He said he was an honest man but poor and the proceeding was altogether unnecessary and severe. He stated further that he expected his family in the city tonight from Ogden. They were coming by wagon, driving the team returned to.

Captain Nethercott says he has lived here for more than forty years, and was at one time a school teacher here. He leads the change of honest toil and poverty, and apparently tells a straight story.

The Hepburn Brothers of Ogden are well known and reputable business men, and it is hard to believe there are some particulars yet untold which would throw more light on the matter. Captain Donovan says that he thinks the old gentleman's version of the affair is correct.

POLICE PICKING.

Business Transacted in Justice Goff's Court This Morning.

The police court trial register was cleared of cases in about twenty minutes this morning. The business disposed of was as follows:

Peter Dawson, a drunken defender of his country with honorable scars at Fort Douglas, appeared before court and confessed to a natural penchant for drink. His appearance indicated that he had taken a trip through the city's sewerage system. On making a promise that he would mend his ways, he was allowed to depart unmolested.

B. E. Weller and Pat Sullivan were each fined $5 for drunkenness.

John Healy, charged with assault and battery, will be tried this afternoon.

George Cubroy, a youth of 22 years, was released from jail where he was awaiting trial for vagrancy, it being shown to the satisfaction of the court that he was illegally imprisoned.

IN POLITICAL CIRCLES.

What Local Parties and Partisans are Doing.

The question now is—"What are the Liberals going to do?"

***

Hon. Frank J. Cannon is still on the airpath and seems to remain there till the idea of November.

***

The Democrats held a well-attended enthusiastic meeting in front of the Continental Hotel last evening and will hold another tonight. In his speech, Hon. J. L. Rawlins drew out boldly for free wool and free land and gave his reasons therefor.

***

The prevailing presence of the pink and red rosebuds as political badges suggests that somebody in the East must be making an independent fortune out of the manufacture and sale of the pretty little emblems, for so far the demand greatly exceeds the supply.

***

The demise of the Ogden Leader may mean little or much to the liberal party. Viewed as a purely mercantile event it is a matter of no concern to anybody, but as the only reason light the office party had in the northern portion of the Territory, its disappearance may be regretted, perhaps reflective. It and not the any too young and its party cannot follow any too soon.

***

Mr. James Nicholas, of Milford, occasionally feels a little lonesome when at home. There are times when he sees there who sometimes are called away on business, and then he is the only humorist in the place. He refers reflectively to the audience which recently greeted Messrs. Norrell and Young—five men and four boys—and speaks hopefully of the party vote being increased to six by election day.

***

Judge Lyman W. Gee, of Tooele, was among the numerous Long Syne politicians who came in within the last few days. Gee is a Democrat, and far from him was a close neighbor who is so far from Democracy as the earth's orbit is from that of Jupiter, also one of the "Old time" Democrats—Captain D. B. Stover, of Stockton. Both these gentlemen have been in and of Utah for nearly a generation, perhaps longer than a generation and the latter since the arrival of General Conner's command. They are living and at present witnesses of the strides the Territory is making in all material respects and each welcomes every new feature in hemisphered progress.

HAPPENINGS IN PROVO.

Interesting Court and Other News of the Day.

(Special correspondence of DESERET NEWS.)

PROVO, October, 7th, 1892.—The second trial of Cass Hite, who is charged with the murder of Adolph F. Kohler, at Green River on September 5th, 1891, is still occupying the attention of Judge Blackburn. A large number of witnesses for the defense were today examined. It is probable the taking of testimony in the case will be completed tomorrow morning, and arguments of counsel will begin.

Other business was today transacted in court as follows:

John Fleming was arraigned on an information charging him with assault with intent to murder, upon Sarah H. Sullivan, on the 17th day of September, 1892, in Juab county. He entered a plea of not guilty.

George W. Lewis was arraigned on the charge of forgery, in signing the name of T. A. Walker to an order for $15, directed to Southworth Brothers, of Provo Junction. His bonds were fixed at $1000.

C. A. Caswell, a Salt Lake hotel runner, was arraigned on the charge of grand larceny. Caswell is accused of relieving Mr. E. J. Ward, of this city, of his watch and chain while Mr. Ward was taking a nap in front of the Cosmopolitan hotel one evening about a month ago. Caswell took until next Monday to plead.

Charles Dorling, of Lehi, was arraigned on an indictment charging him with obtaining goods valued at $25, from C. L. Wilson, of this city, under false pretenses. He pleaded guilty to the charge, and gave as an excuse for his act, that he was under the influence of liquor. The court gave him a good moral lecture, advising him to improve the time he was about to spend in the penitentiary in study, and when he came out to establish from liquor. The young man promised to do as advised, and was let off with one year's imprisonment.

SOUND.

Levi Frantzen, a boy but twelve years of age, has been brought up from his home in Marion by the sheriff charged on the charge of murder. As the grand jury were discharged this forenoon he will have to await the action of the grand jury at the next session of court. Frantzen became engaged in a quarrel with Johnny Draper, his playmate, on the 29th of last month. The two threw stones at each other and Draper was struck in the temple, which resulted in his death on the following day.

The school children of the city cannot all find accommodation in the district school buildings. It has, therefore, become necessary for the trustees to lease part of the tobacco-house building for school purposes.

Messrs. Isaac and William Bullock, who have just returned from their ranch in the south-western part of Wyoming, report the country dry, but feed good.

The Y. L. M. I. A. of Utah county will open their late in the Provo First Ward assembly rooms, on Tuesday morning, October 11th, and will remain open until Saturday evening.

The Stock Mining company, owning claims in East Tintic, have purchased the Gough spring, and will pipe it a mile and a half to the mining works they are building. Mr. Nels Johnson, of this city, has the contract for doing the work.

A New Sunday School Hymn Book.

Deseret Sunday School Song Book is the title of a collection of choice pieces of hymns and music for the use of Sunday schools, published by the Sunday School Union. It is an excellent little volume. It contains about double the number with which our juvenile singers are acquainted through the music book that appeared in 1884, and the selections are of the very best and most suitable for the purpose. Our best known, talented home composers have well represented among the contributors.

A special feature of the work is the introduction of brief notes on the characters and signs used in the tonic sol-fa system, something to be appreciated by those who desire a comprehensive explanation of that system of notation.

The book is issued from the establishment of George Q. Cannon & Sons company, and is as neat in the mechanical make-up as it is meritorious in other respects.

The demand for this edition will undoubtedly be as great as it has been for its predecessor.

Reclaiming the Wastes.

A NEWS representative met this morning Mr. M. Monahan, in charge of the great scheme to create an immense reservoir near McGarry's ranch, five miles north of Milford, Beaver county, and thus bring into cultivation and use a great tract of excellent land which at present is practically worthless. It is to be hoped this kind of enterprise will spread and be the means of subjugating tens of thousands of acres at present so much barren area. There is enough good land lying between Minersville and Milford to make a thousand men wealthy if only water could reach it; and it is hardly to be believed that in this experimental and progressive age such vast opportunities will be permitted to receive no attention for a great length of time. In the case referred to a company, now in embryo has been organized, sufficient means have been subscribed and the work is now well under way. It will be in successful working order next season, at least that is the design.

Murderous Apaches.

(Correspondence of the DESERET NEWS.)

Nothing further has been heard from the little band of Apaches that spread terror throughout this part of Mexico by the murder of the Temson family at Cliff Ranch a week ago yesterday. The posse of men sent out from here last Tuesday to cut off their retreat through La Tenaja returned Saturday night without finding any definite track of Indians. However, several of the horses stolen have been found and the Indications are that instead of having the country through the Sierras into the United States they have turned southward again and are still lodged somewhere in the mountains. Yesterday another party left this place under charge of H. J. Judd with the intention of remaining in the mountains a month, if necessary. An expedition is being effected, with Miles F. Romney at its head, that will send throughout all the country so that men will be prepared to start out at a moment's notice.

Later (Sept. 27, 7 a. m.)—Word has been received that the Indians have been tracked southward, and runners have been sent out for the settlements to be on the look out, and it is hoped they may yet be captured. The report that the Temson boy was dead is not correct. He is improving nicely.

OVER THE WIRES

Commencement of the Festivities in New York.

IN HONOR OF COLUMBUS.

News from Venezuela Confirms the Report of Crespo's Victory.

AN OLD SOLDIER'S LONG TRAMP

A Charge Against a Negro Politician—Stock of Paper Running Short—Wonder Speaks.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The week of celebration in honor of the event associated with the name of Christopher Columbus begins here today. In anticipation of the events to commence with it, the city has been decorated as never before. Along Broadway from the Battery to Harlem and on the most minor streets is scarcely a bunch in the direction of bunting.

Today religious exercises are held in commemoration of the event in all the Jewish churches, many of them being very expensive and beautiful. Tomorrow the Christian churches will commemorate the event.

On Monday there will be a parade of 20,000 school children, public, parochial and private, and Indian boys from the government school. In the evening the great Brooklyn bridge will be illuminated.

On Tuesday there will be a naval parade with warships from all the great naval powers, followed by the swift trans-atlantic liners, merchantmen and steam yachts. In the evening there will be a stupendous display of fireworks from Brooklyn bridge.

Wednesday, the anniversary day, will be inaugurated with the firing of cannon followed by a military and civic parade in which it is expected that 100,000 persons will take part. Then the Columbian exposition will be dedicated. In the evening there will be a gorgeous pageant.

IN VENEZUELA.

The Rumor of Crespo's Victory Confirmed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A friend of General Crespo, of Venezuela, today received a dispatch from the city confirming the reported overthrow of the Venezuela government and the entrance of Crespo into Caracas as the head of the victorious revolutionary army. General Boten Penas, the Venezuelan minister, said he should send his cipher dispatch to the new government by the next steamer. He believed the war is not yet over. If Crespo assumes the dictatorship, other war is certain. If he calls on Congress to elect a new president, all will be quiet.

A LONG TRAMP.

An Old Soldier Walks From California to Ohio.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 8.—William Cummins walked into this city this morning after a tramp from California. He is an old soldier who was discharged here and came to Akron to the papers which he left here. With the exception of thirty miles, he walked the entire distance, leaving the Pacific on June 1st. His clothing was in good and worn, but he has not seen a sick day during the trip. He was volunteer in the Eleventh Iowa infantry and was transferred to the Fourteenth Ohio.

A CHARGE DENIED.

The Pennsylvania Democrats are Not Selfishly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Chairman Harity of the Pennsylvania Democratic national committee contests there is no truth in the charge by Chairman Reed of the Pennsylvania Republican committee, that the Democratic state officers are scheming to delay the best form of official ballots. He says it is law provides that certificates of nomination may be filed to September the 20th and nomination papers to September the 30th, and that objections to these may be filed within thirty days thereafter, so that no certificates from the official ballot can be made until after October the 20th.

WEAVER AT PULASKI.

Trouble Expected if Ex-Senator Carlin Attends.

PULASKI, Tenn., Oct. 8.—General Weaver and Mrs. Lease arrived this morning. They were met at the depot by 200 citizens, mostly in wagons and on horseback, who escorted them into town.

People here say, if Weaver attempts to deny the truth of the affidavits announcing his actions here during the war, there will be trouble. If he omits all reference to his actions here, there will be well not be molested. He speaks this afternoon.

The Democrats have 50 deputies who will attend the meeting for the purpose of preserving order.

WEAVER'S SPEECH.

Weaver spoke this afternoon to a large crowd on the public square, the address lasting thirty minutes. Summing up the charges made against him, he said: "Gentlemen of the jury, I'm not judge, I never did in Talladi one single thing that is charged, except loving money and I pronounce the charges impudified falsehoods. The war is over, I come here on a mission of fraternity. They said I dared not come. I knew I dared to come and I would have come had the threats been a thousand times stronger."

The speaker was wildly cheered. Mrs. Lease then spoke.

A PAPER FAMINE.

The Paper Supply Said to be Running Short and Prices Advanced.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—According to a local manufacturer, the stock of paper is running short and the prices have advanced 10 per cent., and the end is not yet. This is due to the stoppage of rags from abroad and increased demand caused by the campaign. Another is found in the fact that bleaching powders have risen greatly. These are issued in England and were drawn over to be a powerful disinfectant, and now have been used in Hamburg and other cholera infected points of Europe. The local dealers say the mills are busy night and day and cannot fill the present orders.

Mrs. Harrison Today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Harrison passed a quiet night. She is about the same this morning.

Another Fatal Collision.

DAYTON, Ohio, Oct. 8.—The Panhandle passenger and freight trains collided 10 miles east of here this morning. The engineer, fireman and two passengers are reported killed.

Another Bicycle Record.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 8.—Windle, whose world's mile bicycle record, flying start, yesterday was 2:02 3-5, today beat the mile record, standing start, and covered the distance in 2:00 1-5.

South Dakota Democrats Will Not Fuse.

HURON, S. D., Oct. 8.—The Democratic state committee today formally declined to fuse with the Farmers' party. It was left with each candidate to decide whether he will withdraw. It is stated that some candidates are trying to get his special opponent on the other ticket to drop out.

Calvin Chase Charged with Malfeasance in Office.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Calvin Chase, the well-known negro politician, who twice successfully contested Perry Carson's title to a seat in the national Republican convention, has been arrested with malfeasance in office as food inspector. It is alleged that he demanded and received commissions for securing places for his countrymen.

Sanitary Officers Assaulted.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 8.—Ignorant classes still resist the efforts of the authorities to enforce the sanitary measures for the extirpation of cholera. Today the sanitary officers engaged in disinfection were set upon first by a woman with boiling water and then by boys with stones. Finally the mob was dispersed by the police.
