NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Young Man of Good Family Goes Headlong into Crime.

TWENTY YEARS FOR THIEVING.

A Coupled Suicide of a Romantic Nature—Suicide of a Mining Man—A Child Carried Off by an Eagle.

Spring weather has struck the Arizona stock ranges.

Greasy (Colo.) people have over an abundance of sagebrush hay.

San Luis valley farmers are advertising a great fair for next fall.

Winslow, Ariz., has now a Baptist, a new sign painter, Fourth of July.

In Idaho, Mont., pumpkins are now two cents a pound at the cheapest rate. Only a few car loads left.

Silver was down last November to the state capital, Phoenix in Central Ariz., is now alive and growing lively.

Pueblo, Colo., in the Arkansas valley, is being troubled with such a force and is probably boasting of its prevalence.

Kiowa, Colo., and Kansas prairie spaniels sold at six per cent in Wichita last week and are being actively interested in plots.

Dr. Rogers has converted the upper floor of his school house into a theater, and amateur performances will be given during the winter.

The increase in the value of farm land since sugar beets appeared in Lorimer county, Colo., shows that an irrigated farm is better than a silver mine just now.

Montezuma county, Colo., has a subscription club for periodical reading, consisting of but twenty people on yearly subscriptions, the interest at eight per cent payable semi-annually.

Settlers are locating on the desert near Hayden, Ariz., and have already encountered opinions of the Gila City river from which they propose water for irrigation. They are Wisconsin people.

Since the Rattlesnake at Riverside, Cal., have made a smoothing mill, parties could work or live on land which were the subject of vagrants in that town and totally has induced a market increase.

The Rapidan mines, Wyo., are so far out of snow and the road from Lander city to the Rapidan and Virginia mines is spotted by snow, so it is going on in these mines as usual.

Salt Lake, Utah, reports an income of $10 a year on its water system, which has only been introduced. It is a tax of the income and railroad income. It will be paying all interest in water bonds this year.

The Wonderville, Cal., newspaper being finished the season's run last Friday afternoon with gratifying results to the company and all concerned. Sixty thousand seven hundred and sixty-six tons of sugar were manufactured.

The Wonderman, aged nineteen, a Lincoln, swallowed a dose of morphine with suicidal intent at Colfax, Wash., on Monday night. She has been crossed by her lover. She took to big a dose of the drug and succeeded.

A few nights ago some one in Fort Benton, Montana, caused himself by entering doses of strychnine sent brought to the town. The next morning several valuable dogs were dead. A reward of $50 is offered for information leading to the apprehension of the person who distributed the poison.

The United company of the Cripple Creek a remarkable run in the special train of nine cars from Denver to Chicago. The train left Denver over the Union Pacific last Sunday morning at 7 o'clock, arriving at Kansas City at 5 o'clock Monday night, where one of the best Wabash locomotives pulled out for the Wabash route for Chicago, arriving at 6:45 Monday morning.

The Santa Fe depot at Lamboo, Colo., was entered by burglars on Monday night. Entrance was effected by breaking the window of a waiting room and boring two holes with a brace and bit through the sills, just large enough to insert a finger and pull back a spring lock. There was no money in the drawer, but several express packages were rifled and valuable taken.

Judge Wallace of San Francisco on Monday sentenced James Collins and Charles Carlisle, two young men convicted of robbery, to seven years each in the state prison. They pulled suddenly down with their heard the announcement of their crime, which was not to be suspected, indeed, considering the fact that all their lives had found from the time they robbed, a parole, was forty years.

The other day at the Bitumen mines, Delaguay, Colo., the one-year-old child of Walter Mayne was taken by an eagle when an eagle swooped down on the child, who seemed small to hold it hold, the eagle making desperate efforts to carry the little one off. The child's screams attracted Mrs. Mayne's attention and she rushed off the yard of freedom. Hope upon the entire day trying to find the eagle's nest, but were unsuccessful.

The town of Breckenridge, Colo., was startled on Monday by the announcement that H. C. Kenyon had committed suicide. Mr. Kenyon has been actively engaged in mining in the locality for the past twelve years, and was the manager of the Farncomb Hill Mining company. The cause of the rash act is attributed to the fact that a family attachment took place. Every day, since which time Mr. Kenyon had to need to be in the manly manner but he has compelled them with a private family in the city.

Mrs. Alice Seeley, of Oakland, Cal., will be single again in a hurry. Last day she got married to her husband another man, Wm. Hyde, a tailor, and then. They had been married in one Wednesday afternoon, and began. A court decree since Mr. Seeling returned to Oakland and was interviewed by an inquiry, when she, to be married a suit for a divorce on the ground of infidelity. Now Mrs. Seeling has become weary of Hyde and has run away. The last heard of him was that he had shipped to Los Angeles. Now Mrs. Seeling's top has been taken away from her and placed in the custody of her mother-in-law.

The mystery surrounding the murder of the young barber who was for a time a member of the School theater, and who was held on Thursday last at San Pedro, to answer two charges of larceny, has been solved. Wednesday the young man gave the name of Henry Wilson. The police have lost the was not his real name and that the assaults committed at Florence street and Hoover avenue were his handiwork. It seems to shield his family from an exposure of the crimes the real name of the accused was withheld, and it was not until Friday that the fact came to light. The name is Henry Lockhart, and he is the son of the president of the Nevada Bank, Jerome, Ariz., and Mrs. Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart enjoy a good social position. They are well to do and everything will be done to secure an acquittal. A telegram sent early last evening brought the father and mother to the place. Young Lockhart is a young man of good family and family, and is well known in Los Angeles. He was a member of the School theater company, and was well known in the city. He was a member of the School theater company, and was well known in the city. He was a member of the School theater company, and was well known in the city