A MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R. R.

IS THE GREAT CONNECTING LINK BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST!

Its main line runs from Chicago to Council Bluffs and Omaha, passing through Aurora, Ottawa, La Salle, Depue, Princeton, Mendota, Sterling, Davenport, West Liberty, Iowa City, Marengo, Brooklyn, Grinnell, and Des Moines, (the capital of Iowa) with branches from Bureau Junction to Peoria; Wilton Junction to Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Eldon, Bellknap, Centreville, Princeton, Trenton, Gallatin, Cameron, Leavenworth and Atchison; Washington to Keomah, Oskaloosa and Knoxville; Keokuk to Farmington, Bonaparte, Bentonsport, Independence, Eldon, Ottumwa, Eddyville, Oskaloosa, Pella, Monroe, and Des Moines; Des Moines to Indianola and Winterset; Atlantic to Audubon and Avoca to Harlan. This is positively the only Railroad which owns, controls and operates a through line between Chicago and Kansas.

This Company own and control their Sleeping Cars, which are luxurious and give you a double berth; between Chicago and Council Bluffs, Leavenworth, or Atchison for Two Dollars and Fifty Cents; and a section for Five Dollars, while all other lines charge between the same points, Three Dollars for a double berth, and Six Dollars for a section.

What will please you most will be the pleasure of enjoying your meals, while passing over the beautiful prairies of Illinois and Iowa, in one of our magnificent Dining and Restaurant Cars that accompany these trains. You get no extra charge for this. A good meal is served in any first-class hotel, for twenty-five cents; or you can order what you like, and pay for it daily by your bill.

A great deal of fuss is made about the superiority of Palace Sleeping Cars, but the fact is that a majority of the people prefer separate apartments for different purposes, and the enormous passenger business of this line warrants it, we are pleased to announce that this Company runs its PALACE SLEEPING CARS for Sleeping purposes, and its PALACE DINING CARS for Eating purposes. One other great feature of our Palace Cars is a SMOKING SALOON where you can enjoy your "Havana" at all hours of the day.

Magnificent Iron Bridges span the Mississippi and Missouri rivers at all points crossed by this line, and transfers are avoided at Council Bluffs, Leavenworth and Atchison, connections being made in Union depots.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

A purely vegetable distillation entirely unlike all other remedies.

IN the preparation of this remarkable remedy every herb, plant, and bark is subjected to distillation, whereby the essential medical principle is obtained in vapor, condensed and bottled. What remains in the still is inert, valueless, and totally unfit for use in an organism so delicate as the nasal passages. Yet all much-praised remedies are insoluble compounds of woody fibre; all tinctures, saturated solutions.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

is a local and constitutional remedy, and is applied to the nasal passages by insufflation, thus allaying inflammation, and pain and at once correcting cleansing, and purifying the secretions. Internally administered it acts upon the cause of catarrh and keeps the skin moist, and neutralizes the acid poison that has found its way into the stomach and thence into the blood. Thus a cure progresses in both directions, and it does not seem possible for human ingenuity to devise a more rational treatment.

SURPRISING CURE.

Gentlemen.—About twelve years ago, while travelling with Father Kemp's Old Folks Concert Troupe as a tenor singer, I took a severe cold and was laid up at Newark, N. J. This cold brought on a severe attack of Catarrh, which I battled with every known remedy for four weeks without avail, and was finally obliged to give up a most desirable position and return home, unable to sing a note. For three years afterwards I was unable to sing at all. The first attack of Catarrh had left my nasal organs and throat so sensitive that the slightest cold would bring on a fresh attack, leaving me prostrated. In this way I continued to suffer. The last attack the summer I was bad, was terrible. I suffered the most excruciating pain in my head, was so hoarse as to be scarcely able to speak, and coughed incessantly. I thought I was going into quick consumption, and I firmly believe that had these symptoms continued without relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When in this distressing condition, I commenced the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, very reluctantly, I confess, as I had tried all the advertised remedies without benefit. The first dose of this wonderful medicine gave me the greatest relief. It is hardly possible for me to describe how my aches, eyes ache, who can scarcely articulate distinctly on account of the choking accumulations in his throat, to realize how much relief I obtained from the first application of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. Under its influence, both internal and external, I rapidly recovered, and I attribute my complete cure since, have been entirely free from Catarrh, for the first time in twelve years.

Respectfully yours, GEO. W. HOLBROOK.

WALTHAM, MASS., Jan. 6, 1879.

PAT'S CRITICISM.

There's a story that's old,
But good if twice told,
Of a doctor of limited skill,
Who cured beast and man,
On "a new-fangled" plan,
With the help of a strangely-made pill.

On his portal of pine
Hung an elegant sign,
Depicting a beautiful hill,
And a lake where a sprite,
With apparent delight,
Was sporting in sweet dishabille.

Pat McCarty one day,
As he sauntered that way,
Stood and gazed at that portal of pine,
When the doctor, with pride
Stepped up to his side,
Saying "Pat, how is that for a sign?"

"There's wan thing," says Pat,
"Ye've lift out o' that
Which, be jabbers, is quite a mistake;
It's trim and it's nate,
But to make it complete
Ye shud have a foine burd on the lake."

"Ah! indeed! pray then, tell,
To make it look well,
What bird do you think it may lack?"
Says Pat, "Of the same
I've forgotten the name,
But the song that he sings is 'Quack, quack!'"

ST. GEORGE STAKE CONFERENCE.

John D. T. McAllister, President of the Stake, presiding.

The proceedings of Conference commenced with a Priesthood meeting at 10 a. m. Friday 13th inst.

At 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. of Saturday the 14th and Sunday the 15th meetings continued.

Elder Erastus Snow of the Twelve Apostles was with us on Saturday and Sunday, and on Saturday morning as well as towards the close of the Sunday afternoon meetings dispensed to us freely of the good word of God relating to our temporal and spiritual duty.

President McAllister, although still somewhat weak in body, enjoyed much liberty, and a goodly flow of the Holy Spirit, in delivering the opening address to the Saints on Saturday morning.

The other speakers in the order in which they addressed the conference were—Bishop Thomas S. Terry, of Hebron, Bishop Geo. H. Crosby, of Leeds, Elder Harrison Burgess of Pine Valley, Elder S. M. Lee, of Panacca, Bishop Robt. Kneil, of Pinto, Bishop Joseph S. Huntsman of Gunlock Ward, Bishop Marius Ensign, of Santa Clara, Elder Miles P. Romney, of St. George, Elder Milo Andrus, of Price Ward, Elder Edward Bunker, Jr., of Bunkerville, and Presidents Thos. J. Jones and Henry Eyring, of the Presidency of the Stake.

Among the themes dwelt upon by the speakers were the following: Our duty to read, study and inwardly digest the word of God as set forth in the Bible, the Book of Mormon and Doctrine and Covenants; also the necessity of our diligently attending public worship, and practically carrying out the counsel of God as set forth in the ministrations of his holy priesthood; the duty of such as have wronged their fellows to make restitution in this life, that the sins of such may go before them to judgment instead of following after; our duty to faithfully make our cash and free-will offerings towards building the Manti Temple; doctrinal sermons on the restoration of the gospel and on the organization of the Church of Christ in this generation; the necessity of encouraging co-operation, the better to prepare ourselves to enter into the Holy United Order; and the organization of a Stake board of trade. These and kindred subjects fully and very profitably occupied the attention of the Saints during conference.

Full statistical ward reports were read, also Sunday School reports, Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations and Relief Societies reports; reports of home missionary labors and of Quorums of High Priests and Elders; also a biennial report of the St. George Builders' Union.

The general authorities of the Church also the Stake authorities were sustained by unanimous vote of the Saints.

We have had an active, good spirited, peaceful time in our conference, and have reason to expect that God's blessings will crown the faithful labors of his servants who dispensed to us the word of life.

JAMES G. BLEAK, Clerk of St. George Stake.

Of Very General Application.

"I war about to observe," said the President of the Lime-Kiln club, "dat sum of de cull'd folks in dis nayburhood am werry much concerned about de President's wato. I h'ar dem talkin' bout it in de shops, an' on de streets, an' las' nite de old man Stover dropped in on me, eyes hangin' out an' knees shakin', an' axed if I'd hearn de news. He was so upset dat he couldn't keep still, spectin' dat de world war on de point of floppin' bottom side up. Now I want to say to all of ye, dat a dozen wetoes won't riz our wages a cent, nor yit make a drap, an' dat our way am to keep right along blackin' stoves and doin first class white-wa-hin'. We can't eat wetoes—we can't wear dem—dey won't keep roofs ober our heads, an' de least you talk 'bout 'em de more silver you'll hev down in your pockets. De President may be a great man, an' one of his wetoes may way a ton, but de president aint gwine inter his wallet to feed an' clothe us. Let de white folks waste deir bref if dey want to, but let de cull'd man keep his mouf shet an' his elbows movin'."—Detroit Free Press.

SHORT AND SHARP.

A little Waterloo Sunday School Miss was asked by her teacher, "What must people do in order to go to heaven?" "Die, I suppose," replied the little one. The teacher didn't question her any further.—Waterloo Observer.

Little Billy was told: "Never ask for anything at the table. Little boys should wait until they are served." The other day, after reflecting seriously for a minute or two, he asked: "Mamma, when little boys starve to death do they go to heaven?"—Paris Paper.

A Scotch minister in one of his parochial visits met a cow-boy, and asked what o'clock it was. "About twelve, sir," was the reply. "Well," replied the minister, "I thought it was more." "It's never any more nooa," said the boy; "it just begins at one again."—[Ex.

Like Oliver Wendell Holmes, we don't dare to be as funny as we can, through fear of circumstances. Only yesterday we received a letter from a young man who had been almost strangled by laughing at our jokes, and we didn't let ourselves out much either, nor was it a good day for exchanges.—Portland Standard.

In a primary school not very long ago, the teacher undertook to convey to her pupils an idea of the use of the hyphen. The wrote on the blackboard, "Bird's-nest," and pointing to the hyphen asked the school, "What is that for?" After a short pause a young son of the Emerald isle popped out, "Plaze, ma'am, for the bird to roost on."

A correspondent wants to know if wearing a hat tends to make a person bald. We believe it does. Women don't wear hats and they are not bald—at least they don't wear them on their heads, and so they are not bald there. Hats destroy hair. A woman's hat is worn on the back of her head, and that is the reason women have to buy so much back hair.—Danbury News.

That little girl must have touched a very tender place in her mother's heart when she said, after she had been punished, "Now, mamma, I wish you'd sing me a nice song." "And what shall I sing?" her mother queried. The child looked through her tears and replied, "Well, mamma, I think 'Rest for the Weary' would be appropriate."
