

"AMERICAN" SLATE FOR SCHOOL BOARD.

Candidates for Election, or Otherwise, Were Named by A. P. U. Patriots.

CHARACTERISTIC SPEECHES.

Critchlow Unburdens Himself of a Few Choice Thanksgiving Sentiments—Ex-Mormon Missionary.

The following candidates for the school board of Salt Lake City were nominated at the American party mass convention in the Grand theater last night:

First Precinct—J. J. Corum.
Second Precinct—B. F. Redman.
Third Precinct—J. D. Hagman.
Fourth Precinct—E. O. Howard for long term and W. Mont Perry for short term.
Fifth Precinct—W. J. Halloran.

As a committee to manage the campaign the following were chosen:

First precinct, George L. Nye and John A. Street; Second precinct, Henry Heath and Louis Bamberg; Third precinct, W. J. Barrette and R. S. Slater; Fourth precinct, Charles D. Rookledge and H. J. Dinniny; Fifth precinct, J. E. Darmer and George A. Shett.

Two speeches were made at the meeting—by A. J. Weber, who presided, and one by E. B. Critchlow, a noted orator of the party. A concluding feature was the introduction of a resolution endorsing the "Mormon" Church of breaking faith with the nation, as per usual at American party gatherings.

Ward City Chairman George L. Nye called the convention to order at eight o'clock, about 200 people were in the building. He introduced as permanent chairman, A. J. Weber. In taking the chair, Mr. Weber said that while he was still a Democrat in national affairs, he considered it wise to join the American party in local affairs. He then turned his attention to the non-partisan ticket, and attempted to discredit it, accusing the Republican and Democratic city chairmen of not representing their parties in deciding upon the move. To him a fusion of "Mormon" and Gentile, Republican and Democrat on the school board was a heinous offense, and would cause trouble without end. He enunciated sound American doctrine in the following:

"It is important to have a school board, the members of which will not be blind tools of any church or the servile slaves of any political party. No man under a school board composed of Americans will be given a position under the board because of his success in the mission field. An opportunity will be given to the people and to the school system to represent American progress and American ideas which will not take a step backward or be content with standing still."

The sentiment is remarkable for its similarity to that actuating the formation of the non-partisan ticket. In its attempt to make personal worth, and not party or religious affiliation the basis of qualification for a place on the school board.

The address of Mr. Critchlow was characteristic, and filled with the bitterness of hate which is always identified with his opposition to things with which he is not in sympathy. He said in part:

"Now, because of long toleration, it is possible for one church and another to use the public school buildings maintained by the taxpayers of the state, for purposes of religious instruction in the doctrines of that church. This is a thing which has not happened in the history of the world, and which no church has organized who are known as religious classes. Any church has the right to do this, but these were organized by the Mormon Church to take advantage of the public school system in the interest of sectional aggrandizement. Only one religion is taught in these classes. The other churches do not hold these meetings, neither are the public schools used for promulgating their doctrines."

"Continued toleration of this abuse has resulted in its steady growth. Two years ago a presidency was appointed to take charge of the school religion classes. Appointed for a purpose, this presidency strengthened its position, and from merely holding services in the public schools, began to proselytize. Teachers under domination of the church were instructed to inform the parents of their pupils that they would be pleased to have the children attend the religious classes held after school hours. The more Mormon teachers in the public schools, the more instructors of religion classes paid by the public."

The anti-non-partisan resolution was as follows:

Whereas, the school board of Salt Lake City has for a considerable time been entirely controlled by sectarians of the "Mormon" Church, with assistance which has seemed always subservient; and

Whereas, the city of Salt Lake cannot in fact, as shown by the canvass of the American party and the admission of high ecclesiastics of the "Mormon" Church, a considerable majority of non-Mormons of many religious beliefs; and

Whereas, the members of no other church has at any time attempted in any degree to control the public schools;

Resolved—First, That we now arrange those members of the dominant Church who have thus violated the pledges to the nation and to the non-Mormon citizens of this city, as title of true American citizens, and we deem the leaders and priests of the Church an especially culpable in permitting the official organ of the Church to be used for the purpose of proselytizing.

Resolved—Second, That we now arrange those members of the dominant Church who have thus violated the pledges to the nation and to the non-Mormon citizens of this city, as title of true American citizens, and we deem the leaders and priests of the Church an especially culpable in permitting the official organ of the Church to be used for the purpose of proselytizing.

Resolved—Third, That we now arrange those members of the dominant Church who have thus violated the pledges to the nation and to the non-Mormon citizens of this city, as title of true American citizens, and we deem the leaders and priests of the Church an especially culpable in permitting the official organ of the Church to be used for the purpose of proselytizing.

Resolved—Fourth, That we now arrange those members of the dominant Church who have thus violated the pledges to the nation and to the non-Mormon citizens of this city, as title of true American citizens, and we deem the leaders and priests of the Church an especially culpable in permitting the official organ of the Church to be used for the purpose of proselytizing.

at past elections for school officers to support sectarian nominees and practically preach to its readers that "Mormons" must control the public schools.

Second—We call attention to the bipartisan force which has just nominated four "Mormons" and two non-Mormons, and ask how such nominations can be reconciled with the pledges of the state to the nation.

Third—To the comparatively small number of members of the dominant Church who believe in keeping faith with the nation and who have in the past opposed by their votes the palpable program to bring our schools under sectarian control, we pledge a tribute of honor for their assertion of manhood and womanhood as against ecclesiastical domination.

Fourth—We call attention to the fact that our nominees are not selected as churchmen, but as true Americans, seeking only to make Salt Lake City schools in fact wholly non-sectarian, and we ask for them the vote of every citizen who believes that sectarianism should not control our schools.

Favored by Both Parties.
Republicans and Democrats alike praise Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases, as no other remedy can compare with it. It is safe and sure. F. T. Slater, merchant, 17 Main St., Gloucester, Mass., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured me of a very bad cough which I had for three months, though other remedies failed to benefit me. I can highly recommend it for coughs and colds." F. J. Hill Drug Co.

Ward Entertainments.

In conformity with the usual custom, the Bishopric and people of the Eleventh ward will, on Friday evening next, give their annual concert for the benefit of the missionaries now in the field from that ward. No charge is made for admission, but those who attend contribute such amount as they feel inclined. Bishop Morris then writes an appropriate "Christmas Greeting" letter to each absent Elder or sister, enclosing $10, mailing it at such date as to insure its reaching its destination about Christmas time. This amount is sent regardless of the sum raised at the entertainment, but usually the money raised is sufficient to meet the requirement. The missionaries now in the field from the Eleventh ward are distributed as follows: Germany, 3; Switzerland, 1; Japan, 3; Samoa, 1; New Zealand, 1; Great Britain, 3; Scandinavia, 1; United States, 1; 14 in all. The concert, which is under the direction of the Returned Missionary society, begins at eight o'clock in the ward assembly hall, corner First South and Eighth East street. Following is the program for the occasion:

The Mutual Improvement societies of the Twenty-first ward are arranging to give a social ball in the ward hall on the evening of Dec. 1, with specially good music.

A dancing party will be given in the Fifth ward amusement hall tonight. The hall has recently been moved to a new floor, and with an enlarged orchestra tonight's social should be highly enjoyable. A general invitation is extended.

CATTLE CASE.
Arguments Heard in Suit Brought by Wells-Fargo Over Warrant.

Arguments on the order to show cause in the case of Wells Fargo & Co. against Henry G. Rand, and Saunders and Haley, were heard by Judge Lewis yesterday. Rand was cited to show cause why he should not be compelled to endorse a warrant in his possession calling for the payment by the United States government of the sum of $85,790 due him on a contract for cattle sold to the Blackfoot agency in Montana.

The bank had furnished Saunders and Haley, for the use of Rand, the sum of $2,500 to carry out the contract, and it filed a complaint in the court asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the warrant, cash it and turn over the amount found to be due to the respective parties to the action. George M. Downey was appointed receiver, and he demanded that Rand endorse the warrant, but the latter refused to do so, and he was cited to show cause why he should not be compelled to endorse the warrant. At the conclusion of the arguments, Judge Lewis took the matter under advisement until Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

ELECTRIC SHOCK KILLS JOS. HESS.

Was Working Inside a Boiler at The Denver & Rio Grande Shops.

DUE TO DEFECTIVE INSULATION.

Lamp he Was Holding Was Not Properly Protected by Non-Conducting Material.

Joseph Hess, aged 25, a helper in the D. & R. G. shops died yesterday afternoon, from the effects of an electric shock while assisting in the repair of a locomotive boiler. He was inside the boiler with Henry Williams, a machinist, and holding an incandescent lamp protected by a wire netting. Through defective insulation the netting became charged, and as Hess completed the circuit by being in the boiler, the latter became heavily charged, and Hess presently became helpless.

Williams managed to crawl out of the boiler with considerable difficulty and after securing help was unable to get the lamp out of Hess' hands, so the circuit was cut. The latter was extricated from the boiler, after Williams had been severely shocked, and medical aid was summoned. Hess, however, died in half an hour, and was removed to Evans' morgue. The unfortunate man leaves a wife and three children.

PIPE LINE SUIT.

J. W. Cahoon Asks That Charles Durand be Restrained from Obstruction.

An injunction suit has been filed in the district court by J. W. Cahoon and Joseph H. Proctor against Charles Durand to restrain defendant from obstructing or interfering with a flowing well and flume which crosses his ground and furnishes water for six storehouses owned by plaintiffs in Murray.

Plaintiffs allege that the pipe line crossed defendant's property long before he acquired a lease upon it, and that on Nov. 21 defendant willfully obstructed the pipes and prevented the water from reaching said buildings causing great damage. The right of way across the property has been used by plaintiffs for 14 years. It is asked that a restraining order be issued to prevent defendant from interfering with the pipe line. A temporary restraining order was issued by the court today.

TYPHOID IN IDAHO.
Half of the Inhabitants of Almo Stricken With the Disease.

Inspector Lynch of the state board of health has returned from the village of Yost in Boxelder county, where he went to investigate epidemic fever conditions. He found that just across the state line in the settlement of Almo, Ida., of the 159 inhabitants, one-half had had typhoid fever, and five per cent of these had died. The trouble is due to an entire neglect of sanitation and ordinary precautions against disease. The inspector gave the necessary directions to the Yost people for recovery, such as substitution of earth closets for the usual outdoor accommodations, the locations of wells beyond the reach of drainage of cesspools and

REV. MORRISSEY DEAD.

Salt Lake Priest Died at Queenstown, Ireland, on Monday.

Rev. William F. Morrissey, for some years an assistant priest in the Salt Lake diocese of the Catholic church, died at Queenstown, Ireland, Monday last, from consumption. Father Morrissey was a native of Waterford, Ireland, where he was educated for the ministry, and ordained in 1877. He shortly thereafter left for Salt Lake, where he was an efficient worker in the church; but Father Morrissey had the seeds of consumption in him, and last August he returned to the old country in hopes of bettering his health. However, his hopes proved unfounded, and he was taken from the steamship in a dying condition, to pass away shortly after landing. The burial occurred at his former home. The deceased was much liked in this city and at Delamar, Nev., where he for a time officiated.

SALT PALACE MORTGAGED.

Decree of Foreclosure Not Put Into Force in Consequence.

The case of Addison Cain against Frederick Heath et al has been settled and dismissed. A decree of foreclosure of a mortgage on the Salt Palace grounds was recently rendered in favor of plaintiff for the sum of about $7,500. A new mortgage for $10,000 was executed by defendants on the property, and with that money the property was redeemed and hence the action has been dismissed.

THE SIMPLE LIFE

By Charles Wagner.

President Roosevelt, introducing the Author to a large audience in the Lafayette Opera House, Washington, had this to say about the book:

"This is the first and will be the only time during my presidency that I shall ever introduce a speaker to an audience, and I am more than glad to do it. In this instance, because if there is one book which I should like to have read as a tract and also, which is not invariably true of tracts, as an interesting tract, by all our people, it is 'The Simple Life,' written by Mr. Wagner. There are other books which he has written, of which we can gain great good, but I know of no other book written in recent years, whether here or abroad, which contains so much that we of America ought to take to our hearts as is contained in 'The Simple Life.'"
