DESERET EVENING NEWS

THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1895

DARING FOOTPADS.

Three Holdups Attempted Near Dike Headquarters Last Night.

Three attempted holdups were reported to the police last night. All three took place on State street, within a few minutes of each other. One of the victims to City reported that he was walking along on State street, between First and Second South streets, in company with a lady, when he was accosted by a footpad who ordered him to hold him up. Another man said he was approached by a man with whom he exchanged a cigarette lighting. Upon Pratt and his man turned north in search of the footpad, who was not far off, when he was accosted by a second, who also demanded a match for a cigarette, and upon being informed that the man was engaged in passing through the first mentioned footpad ordered the two men to hand over their money. The officers immediately started in pursuit, but the two men escaped in passing through the first mentioned and disappeared in the darkness. The footpads did not get any money from the parties held up.

Jackson School Concert.

The concert at the Jackson School on the evening of February 22nd was a very great success in attendance and in the high order of the entertainment. The program was well rendered throughout, and the audience was very appreciative. The proceeds will be used in the purchase of a piano for the school, which is much needed. The teachers and pupils are to be congratulated on the success of the entertainment.

London.

A large number of our citizens who are from the city of London, can enjoy a pleasant view and descriptive lecture of some of the leading places of that city by attending the First Congregational church, this Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The lecture will be illustrated by the stereopticon views.

Second Ward Entertainment.

At the Y. M. M. I. A. an entertainment to be given in the Second Ward meeting house tomorrow (Friday) evening, the following program will be rendered:

[illegible]

Entertainment commences at 8:00 o'clock.

Honors to the Dead.

CASTLE GATE, CARBON CO., UTAH, March 20, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

I thought I would drop a few lines to your paper upon the funeral services of Henry Fredericks, who died in St. Mary's hospital last Saturday, March 16th, 1895. The funeral was conducted by Bishop Wm. T. Lamph on Sunday, the 18th, 1895. It proceeded from the residence of the deceased in the mining town, headed by the Castle Gate cornet band, then the relatives followed by the whole and the little children and next mourners. A long string of mines followed, four abreast. There was the people followed the remains to the graveyard. He was a good husband and father, and well liked by his neighbors in his failing years. The sympathy of this place goes out sympathy to the bereaved wife and children. The workmen have agreed to donate a day's work to the deceased's family to help to support them. The company stopped their mine and all the works around to show respects to one who had met with such a terrible fate.

Bishop Wm. T. Lamph preached the funeral sermon, to which eulogy on the merits of our deceased friend.

The choir was in full attendance.

A Reward Offered.

Chief Varian has received word from the Denver police authorities regarding the capture of the murderer of Detective Moore, of this city, a reward of $100 being offered for them. It is not thought the man will come here, as two of them, James Lanning and James O'Donnell, have served terms in the Utah penitentiary. Detective Moore had the criminals in custody, handcuffed, and on the way to the jail, when O'Donnell got his hand free and drawing pistol shot Moore.

Sun Mining Company.

With a capital stock of $[illegible] and 2,000 shares of the par value of $10 each, the Apex-Alleghany Mining company has filed its articles of incorporation. The company owns the Apex, King Solomon and Alleghany mining claims in Mineral county, this territory, and estimates their value at the time at $[illegible]. The officers are: Le Grand Young, president; Geo. Morrell, vice president; Geo. Dougall, secretary and treasurer. Trustees, with Charles A. Allen, Charles A. Allen Jr. and Orson Bogle, constitute the board of directors.

Story of a Check.

A very sad and pathetic story comes upon the case of Richard Bishop of [illegible] to the Commercial National bank wherein painful charges the bank with having wrongfully a check in the sum of $[illegible] to his own use. It appears that on February [illegible] there were called in the Bishop at the Salt Lake Transfer company [illegible] a check for $[illegible] to A. C. Walker and Walker reported that it was impossible. The check was then given and Bishop signed the back of the check not to cash it in person, but now discovering the entire check was cashed in his name at the bank, Bishop then entered an action against the bank for the sum.

It has been proved that the check was paid to the treasurer of Bishop, and that they were not taken, and in the engagement of the new counsel that the action should have been given to the earlier, instead of the latter.

The commissioner rendered a decision in favor of the plaintiff, and the company will appeal.

Railroads Take Conference.

MESA, ARIZONA,
March 21, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

The forty-ninth quarterly conference of the Maricopa Stake of Zion convened in the Second Ward of Mesa, Saturday and Monday, March 17 and 18, 1895. Although some of the Apostles of higher authorities of the Church were present, yet not necessarily following, the Office Bishop, was, and it was admitted as being one of the best conferences we have ever had. The large hall was filled with a quiet and attentive audience.

During the conference reports were received from the Stake and wards showing all the questions and organizations in the Stake. The reports showed an increase in attendance at meeting meetings and schools, fast meetings, in offerings, a renewed interest in genealogy, and a spirit of and never before equalled among the Saints.

In MAN KIND and religious matters [illegible] and power, especially the Saints, to stand as one over the Lord, and to provide themselves for sacrifices in the work, including the spreading of the kingdom and the spread of truth upon the earth.

A variety of subjects was treated upon by the speakers, the apostles and authorities, mostly of living faith, illustrating, hymns and offerings, seeking to set forward for the advancement of the cause of God, the Word of Wisdom, tithing and obedience to the word, missionary work of today, and the work of our ancestors in order to build the kingdoms of our Saviour. "Unless ye are one ye are not mine."

Brother Carl Johnson, lately returned from the Kentucky missionary field, gave an hour very interesting accounts of his labors and experiences. He said there was no comparison between the feeling in which the Elders are received now and when he arrived in Kentucky shortly after the dedication of the Salt Lake Temple. He had seen the Schismatic of President Wentworth's property in that report. Where one would receive them then, few would feel so serious in receive them now. The United States are opening their ears and investigating the Gospel. The speaker admonished the young men especially to take hold of the work and qualify themselves for their calling.

The two Elders, Chas. Peterson and Frank T. Pomeroy, who are about to start on missions, the former to England and later to the Southern States, were also heard from, each setting out and receiving the sentence of the ninth and priesthood of the Saints in the Stake.

The statistical report showed an increase over last quarter FIFTY souls.

The general Board of the Church and of the Stake were assisted by representatives.

It was a time of meeting, and of great joy, being over the exhibition about of the Tree Depot upon earth, and also the Gold Dust, which the energy of our Father, have been more abundant in its good and glorious blessings.

GEO. FLOWERS, Clerk.

Assistant Clerk.
