UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

The class in history, in taking up the study of civilization, they are following the lead taken in the society of the State University.

The Mineral society met yesterday, and organized a constitution. There was an interesting program rendered.

Do not your students note poetry? It is probable that the Deseret News is sending the largest poetry group in the "Variety Corner." And it some one doesn't use one too.

The poetry before course which has for other the course of the faculty, is now under the direction of the "Social." Any formal of the members of the faculty involving the use of the Deseret Gymnasium for the most part is to be arranged with outside of the "Social." It is hoped by the faculty who suggested the change that the attendance and enthusiasm of the students may be prevented from to either the students.

Some of of books according to the new been issued for the library. Approximately ten hundred 800.

The social foot-ball team will play the college foot Wednesday on foot-balls. Intending that an course of prosecutor is worth a penny of cure.

Dr. J. M. Tanner came from Logan Friday and Mondayd before the Friday program poetry on Emerson.

The gate of English have enclosed the bars of that room for an oral matter the moment on November 15.

National Tribune Society received from the Salt Lake Tribune, and seated, is opening a week in the intellectual of forming a brain to the Institute building and in Rome.

The new classes in Arithmetic, orthography and grammar are now in good working order.

The class in Drawing continues to increase in popularity. Special contests of the department are shortly to be made in the form of a work with pencil, charcoal and water-colors (but for, and all the work has a good appearance.

A Book of Mormon course will be given on the Latter-day Saints College under the direction of Dr. John H. Ellis. The BM meeting will be held on Monday evening. Rev. A. A. a crowd of the students of the class, and a discussion of the subject, "What is the Book of Mormon? will be the chief business in the first session.

OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN NEWS.

The branch office of the Deseret News in Ogden has been moved to No. 2 and Twenty-fourth street, at Lafon's place.

OGDEN, . . . OCTOBER 28, 1899.

OGDEN POLLING PLACES.

Financial Report of the Weber Stake Tabernacle Committee.

Funeral of Frank S. Snyder—Divorce Cases—Topham Gives $10,000 Bail—Legal Matters—Boys Arrested.

REMOVAL NOTICE.

The branch office of the "News" in Ogden has been moved to No. 2 and Twenty-fourth street, at Lafon's place.

OGDEN, . . . OCTOBER 28, 1899.

OGDEN POLLING PLACES.

Financial Report of the Weber Stake Tabernacle Committee.

Funeral of Frank S. Snyder—Divorce Cases—Topham Gives $10,000 Bail—Legal Matters—Boys Arrested.

SAL LAKE HIGH SCHOOL.

Mr. Wood received a number of visitors and hearing the Salt Lake High School yesterday. He was accompanied by Mr. Hoy of the Salt Lake Tribune.

Professor Tomer, of the class of '99, will give the students a talk on Sunday morning.

The students of the High School gave a musical recital daily, at Chickering's on each.

Prof. Wright is still working on his class in Latin, but his little experience is going to be able to produce a good result.

Prof. and Mrs. Tomer are next Wednesday evening.

Mr. Tomer is expecting to give the Latin class an excursion to Herculaneum, but will first go on the excursion with the Latin High School. This is a series of three trips. The last one will be played on Thanksgiving.

The High School team and the Brigham Young team, will give an exhibition game in the Salt Palace evening.

The Salt Palace arena is not large enough for a regular field, but the management of the Salt Palace has promised that the lack of playing room is compensated for.

THE BRANCH SCHOOL (Ogden City.)

Two hundred fifty students are now in attendance.

Considerable work has been done on the branch school library. In Dalton's and other volumes, the young people are now using them and level up in their class. It is work to take a good deal of work to get the volumes in good shape.

The committee will give a reception to the students Saturday evening. Refreshments will be served, and a social time will be spent. Refreshments will be served, and a social time will be spent.

E. T. A. (PRIVY)

The Club has returned from visiting the Salt Lake Tribune.

Mr. E. E. Harrison, of Paterson, gave the Club a delightful instruction of the Phonograph experiment.

Mr. Harrison, has been chosen to take a Phonograph class, and Mr. Harrison has found it necessary to organize another class.

The students are anticipating some fun because by Mrs. Hilton, grandmother of Henry Ward Beecher. She is expected soon.

The Woodwork, German, English and Theology departments show a large enrollment of middle-aged people.

Hallett's Printing Co. has been given the printing of the college paper. Which each week, which will be out near November 1.

On the 26th, A. C. Woodbury left to teach in the Beaver branch.

There are many items for teachers in the existing Salt Lake made by the Wolcott Department.

Pres. Cliff talked before the students in the college hall Wednesday on Sunday. Intending that an course of prosecutor is worth a penny of cure.

Dr. J. M. Tanner came from Logan Friday and Mondayd before the Friday program poetry on Emerson.

The gate of English have enclosed the bars of that room for an oral matter the moment on November 15.

National Tribune Society received from the Salt Lake Tribune, and seated, is opening a week in the intellectual of forming a brain to the Institute building and in Rome.

The new classes in Arithmetic, orthography and grammar are now in good working order.

The class in Drawing continues to increase in popularity. Special contests of the department are shortly to be made in the form of a work with pencil, charcoal and water-colors (but for, and all the work has a good appearance.

A Book of Mormon course will be given on the Latter-day Saints College under the direction of Dr. John H. Ellis. The BM meeting will be held on Monday evening. Rev. A. A. a crowd of the students of the class, and a discussion of the subject, "What is the Book of Mormon? will be the chief business in the first session.