Funeral of Emma S. Brown—The funeral of Mrs. Emma Searle Brown will be held tomorrow from the Sixteenth ward meetinghouse, commencing at 12 o'clock. Mrs. Brown died yesterday at the home of her son, O. J. Brown, 861 Emerald avenue, aged 67 years.

Young Woman Violent—Unable to control Mrs. J. Cotton, a young woman 26 years old, from violence brought on by a sudden attack of insanity, members of the family, who live at 900 Jefferson street, were compelled to call an officer last night to take her into custody. She was placed in a padded cell at the county jail and will be examined as to her mental condition today.

Daughters of Pioneers—Next Wednesday afternoon the Daughters of Utah Pioneers will meet at the Lion house, and an exceptionally interesting program is promised in talks on Pioneer education in Utah by Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells and Mrs. Camilla Cobb. Both speakers are eminently fitted to discuss the subject which itself furnishes some of the most interesting history of early day's in Utah.

Utah Team Defeated—Once more the University of Utah debating team has lost out to the University of Colorado. The contest came off Thursday evening at Boulder, the subject being "Resolved that the commission plan of municipal government is preferable to prevailing systems." The Utah boys, Richard W. Young, Jr., E. H. Burgess and Edward Watson, had the negative side, and the decision went against them after long deliberation on the part of the judges. The U. of U. debaters, with Coach A. Blaine Roberts, arrived home today, to meet an enthusiastic reception from their fellow students.

CONTINUOUS PERFORMER.

Governor Allen Makes His 110th Appearance Before His Honor.

Gov. Allen of ebony hue made his one hundred and tenth appearance in police court this morning. He was simply charged with drunkenness, as on former occasions, but this time the governor did not get off as lightly as heretofore. He admitted he had been under the influence of liquor but declared there were "extended circumstances" connected with his offense.

"It simply happened like this heah," said he. "Erbout 10 days ago a gemmin hit me on the haid wif a billiahdcue an' since that time Ah has had a bad cold. I jist tried fo to cure hit wif quinine and beer an' guess Ah got too much." Allen was given five days in jail.

The case against Charles Williams, charged with the larceny of a kit of carpenter tools, the property of A. F. Wardrop, was dismissed upon motion of the prosecution for the reason there was not a scrap of reasonable evidence against Williams.

TEN DAYS FOR ENTHUSIASM.

Albert Lewis, alias Hy Brown, will have 10 days in the city jail to think over his folly of resisting and fighting a policeman.

Yesterday afternoon the man was arrested by Patrolman Davidson on the charge of drunkenness and while Davidson was escorting the man to jail he turned upon the bluecoat, threw him to the ground and tried to take his club away. Other policemen rushed to Davidson's assistance and Lewis was finally landed in a cell, after being more or less battered up. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to 10 days in jail.

OPPOSITION OF WEST EFFECTIVE

Important Reductions to be Made In Transcontinental Freight Rates.

WILL FILE AMENDED TARIFFS.

Among Westbound Commodities to Share in Reduction Are Wagons, Implements, Wire Fencing, Etc.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Important reductions from the new schedules of transcontinental freight rates, which went into effect Jan. 1, and which have aroused the active opposition of shippers from the Atlantic to the Pacific, have been agreed upon by the railroads and will be made effective as soon as the amended tariff can be filed with the interstate commerce commission. These concessions are, in most cases, a restoration of the old rates in effect before the first of the year and amount to from 3 to 25 per cent on large numbers of the commodities.

The increases made on Jan. 1 and the reductions announced affect both eastbound and westbound rates. Shippers in California and on the coast were more affected than the eastern territory. Some of the principal reductions are of especial interest to Chicago and the central states.

Oil rates were restored to 90 cents per 100 pounds, a reduction of 10 cents. The rates were raised from 78½ to 90 cents within the last year.

ARTICLES AFFECTED.

Included in the westbound commodities on which the old rates were restored are wagons and vehicles, a reduction of 10 cents; agricultural implements, 10 cents; beer, 10 cents; cottonseed oil, 10 cents; wire fencing from Chicago, 20 cents; from east of Chicago, 10 cents; flaxseed, 5 cents; linseed oil, 5 cents; wheel and drag scrapers, 10 cents from Chicago and points west; pig iron, from $13.20 to $10 per ton on account of water competition from Europe; street cars, 15 cents; pipe fittings and connections, 35 cents; radiators, 40 cents.

Among the eastbound rates reduced are those on cocoanut oil, 5 cents; deciduous fruits, 15 cents to Cincinnati and central freight association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 10 cents. The westbound rates on mineral waters were restored to 75 cents, a reduction of 10 ctnts, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced from 90 to 85 cents; machinery from Colorado to California from $1.50 to $1.40; and on hides eastbound, an allowance of 3 cents per 100 for shrinkage in weight was agreed upon.

FREIGHT DISCRIMINATIONS.

Traffic Commissioner Babcock Tabulates Figures Paid by Jobbers.

Traffic Commissioner Babcock of the Commercial club traffic bureau is preparing a comprehensive table showing how Salt Lake is being steadily and effectively discriminated against by comparing the local arbitraries against the corresponding rates obtaining in the territory for which Denver is a wholesale distributing center, and showing also the discrimination against Salt Lake in favor of California jobbing centers. Mr. Babcock thinks this tabulation is particularly pertinent at this time. Mr. Babcock calls attention to certain pertinent facts. For a Salt Lake jobber to reach Grand Junction, Colo., with eastern manufactured goods, costs him $1.33 as compared with $1 for goods shipped via Denver. To ship goods to Modena from Salt Lake, costs $1.18 as compared with $1 for the Los Angeles jobber. To reach Pocatello, the Salt Lake wholesaler pays $1.23 as compared with $1 for the shipments direct from the east. The tabulation will also make plain that the Denver jobber can ship in and then re-ship to tributary territory as far south as Springer, N. M., far cheaper than the Salt Lake jobber can operate to points equally distant.

Under this repressive and strangling system, Mr. Babcock says the Salt Lake wholesaler can easily figure out that it will be impossible for him to successfully compete very long with Denver or the coast cities. He lays stress on the fact that a utilities commission for this state could speedily checkmate the comparatively recent raise of rates out of Salt Lake to southern points, made in the interest of the Los Angeles shipper. In fact, jobbers in Los Angeles and San Francisco are able under the present rate system, to ship goods west from far eastern points to these two cities and then reship to Utah points cheaper than the Salt Lake jobber can ship to this city direct, and then reship to the same Utah points. Mr. Babcock believes this matter should be properly placed before both houses of the legislature.

CANADIAN RAILWAY RATES.

Vancouver, B. C. Feb. 27.—The minister of railways will introduce a government bill at the present session of the Dominion parliament to amend the railway act to give the railway commission authority to regulate freight and passenger rates on the White Pass and Yukon railway.

The proposed legislation will set at rest all doubts that have existed as to the competence of the railway board to adjudicate on matters affecting this railway company on account of its complex organization and international character.

WILL BE NO STRIKE.

Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 27.—All talk of another strike of Canadian Pacific shop men owing to the fact that the schedule established by board of conciliation August 1, 1908, would expire August 1, 1909, was set at rest yesterday by the posting of an official notice in the local shops by the company saying that its schedule would continue in force until April 1, 1910. The men are satisfied.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

W. B. Throckmorton, traveling passenger agent of the Colorado Midland is in Idaho on a business trip.

Kent O. Keyes, commercial agent of the New York Central lines, has returned from a business trip through Idaho.

T. A. Dempsey, superintendent of the dining car service of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, is in the city from Denver.

T. J. Wyche, chief engineer of the eastern division of the Western Pacific, has gone out on the road on an inspection tour.

Sixty Raymond Whitcomb excursionists, who spent the day in Salt Lake yesterday, left last evening for the east over the D. & R. G.

Excursion rates will be in effect over the Salt Lake Route and Denver & Rio Grande from Silver City and intermediate points to enable the people of the southern portion of the state to witness the performance of the Lambardi opera company in this city. Tickets will be sold at reduced rates March 4, good returning March 5, and on March 6, good returning March 7.

Delay In Electrification—While it is understood a favorable report on the electrification of the Saltair road was made by A. H. Baddock, consulting engineer of the Harriman system, actual work on the improvement will not be commenced until next season. Mr. Baddock yesterday held a consultation with General Manager Langford and Joseph Nelson of the Saltair line, after which he left for New York in the afternoon.

WILL NOT SEND BELL.

Old Liberty bell, which rang out the news of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, will not be seen at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition this summer. Its age and the serious split in it are against it so the trip will have to be postponed. In all probability it will never be moved from the tower of the state house at Philadelphia again. The bell cracked while tolling the death of Chief Justice Marshall in 1835 and the split is gradually extending toward the crown, being now 46 inches in length. The bell was cast in England for the old state house and brought to the United States in 1752.

BATTERYMEN AS HOSTS.

A pleasing affair was given in the gun room of the First battery last night in the Armory in this city, the purpose being to secure new members for the organization and to rejoice in the senate's action in voting for the bill which points the way to securing a suitable armory and arsenal in this city for the militiamen. A long table was placed in the gun room amid a setting brilliant in the national colors and other military banners and emblems. Ninety young men sat before the rations provided and did ample justice to the subsistence provided by the commissary of the evening. When recall was sounded it was heard by an enthusiastic body of young men who are looked upon as likely recruits. Speeches were made by Adjt.-Gen. Wedgwood, Col. Plummer, Capt. Webb and others.

YOUTH WRECKS SLOT MACHINE.

Eleven-year-old Kenneth Cantwell was found last evening in an alleyway on west Third South street calmly stuffing his pockets with pennies that had been taken from a wrecked slot machine. The lad was discovered by Patrolman Simpson and the youth admitted that he had stolen the machine with the assistance of a boy named Mahorn, but could not tell exactly where they got the machine.

LET THE SLOGAN BE ONE FOR PURE MILK

Editor Deseret News.

Your issue this evening certainly contained an eye opener—or what aught to be an eye opener to every person within the state. I refer to the statement that one-third of a dairy herd in this city were afflicted with tuberculosis, and that the examiner was powerless in the premises owing to the absence of any state regulation whatsoever.

Can it possibly be that the state is without proper legal inspection and protection in this line? For one I certainly did not even dream that we were not properly safeguarded in this vital matter.

That statement lets the cat out of the bag relative to the rapid spread of this most dread malady—and to think that nothing has been done to check it!

As there probably exists no better conductor for tuberculosis than milk, imagine, if you can, the consequence of one infected dairy? Not only are the customers of that dairy exposed, but as there hardly passes a day when there is not an exchange of milk on the public streets, to say nothing of the transfers in the large dairy establishments, the gravity of the situation is apparent. And then again, when the cow passes the way of all "beef," it is retailed to you over the counter—as if to be sure you get your full and undivided portion of the little parasite.

You read, every once in a while, of a certain officer testing milk for the proper standard, but if he (or some one else) does not look into the bacteriological condition of the milk he is only "skimming" in the poorest way—a sham pure and simple. It would be a thousand times better to have the milk a little "lean" and be assured of its freeness from tuberculosis, than to have it "rich" both ways.

While I am aware that tuberculosis has practically no power over a healthy constitution, I also know that that boon is not always guaranteed humanity; hence we cannot afford to take any risks.

If there is a field worthy the attention of our august lawmaking body, this is certainly one, and I wish the "News" would enter upon an agitation for proper and efficient state dairy regulation and inspection with the determination it entered upon the prohibition question.

Yours for a healthy milk supply, and with appreciation,

C. A. C—N.
