THE SUPREME COURT.

After a Short Sitting an Adjournment was Taken Till Friday.

COUNTERFEITER SPRAGUE'S APPEAL.

The Rich Warner Case.—Appointment of U. S. Commissioners.—A Point About the Vacant Judgeship.

The Judges of the Territorial Supreme Court, three in number, namely, Chief Justice Zane and Associate Justices Blackburn and Miner, took their seats on the bench a few minutes after 10 o'clock this morning. The attendance of attorneys was not nearly so large as at the opening of the term yesterday.

Clerk J. P. Busby read the minutes of Monday's session, which were approved and signed.

A FOURTH JUDGE WANTED.

Chief Justice Zane said—I will here state for the information of members of the bar that if the appointment of Judge Hatch is confirmed any time this week the court will set the cases upon the calendar for hearing. If it is not, then the court will adjourn until a later day, which will be named.

At subsequent stage of the session, in reply to a member of the bar, Judge Zane said that public notice would be given of the next sitting.

The only cases set yesterday afternoon were appeals from Judge Anderson's decisions, upon which the present three judges ran a jubilee.

U. S. COMMISSIONERS.

The court appointed W. E. Tourtler a U. S. commissioner for Sevier county, W. R. Camp of Vernal, and W. E. Pidgeon of Bull City, San Juan county.

MOTION TO DISMISS ALLOWED.

In the case of Ensenbrach & Sons vs. John H. Miller, et al., appellants, (from Judge Blackburn's court) the motion to dismiss was allowed.

TO FILE AN ABSTRACT.

In the case of H. M. Hawley vs. Carey Bros. & Co., appellants (also from Judge Blackburn's court), ten days' time was granted in which to file an abstract.

TO FILE A TRANSCRIPT.

Toney vs. Eddy. In this appeal thirty days' time was granted in which to file a transcript.

SPRAGUE, THE ARDENT COUNTERFEITER.

The first appeal on call this morning was that of the United States of America vs. F. D. Sprague, appellant.

Sprague was a member of the Gagnon counterfeiting gang whose coining operations in a little room over the Singer sewing machine office, on State street, about twelve months ago, created such a stir at the time. Gagnon, it will be remembered, was the kingpin of the troupe, and Sprague with three or four others were his confederates at the "mint," and assisted in the circulation of the spurious. He is now undergoing sentence in the penitentiary.

Judge Powers, the appellant's attorney, said he had no printed brief to submit. In fact, the only point which he desired to raise on the appeal was whether or not the U. S. attorney must state the case for the government, for the information of the prisoner and his counsel. In this instance the prosecuting attorney declined to make any opening statement, as was required by the statute, the accused having demanded it.

The point was then submitted and taken under advisement.

THE RICH WARNER MATTER.

Upon application of Attorney Tolbock, five days' time was granted in which to file a brief in the case of M. Hook Warner, administrator, vs. the United States Mutual Accident Association, appellant. (It is an appeal from Judge Anderson's court.)

This was the case in which young Warner came to his death some twelve or fifteen months ago under rather mysterious circumstances. He was found in his bedroom like one alarmed, and it was claimed that he had been shot by a burglar in the absence of the other members of the family. The house was discovered to be in disorder. On the other hand, it was contended by the defendant company that the young man committed suicide and therefore declined to recognize the demand for payment upon his life policy in their office.

The jury, after a long trial, found in favor of the deceased's family, and hence the appeal.

ABOUT A TAX SETTLEMENT.

The case of A. M. Musser vs. George A. Sheets, appellant, was argued by Barlow Ferguson on behalf of the respondent, nothing been published on behalf of the other side (Messrs. Maginn and Dyer, attorneys).

The case arose upon a suit brought by Musser against Sheets to recover back the settlement of taxes on certain property in Second Ward avenue, and involving a sum of $324. A nonsuit in the complaint was overruled, and judgment entered in favor of the plaintiff for $374 and $25.50 costs. From this overruling an appeal was taken.

Taken under advisement.

OYER FOR THE PRISONER.

The siftings made yesterday having been disposed of, their Honors adjourned till ten o'clock next Friday morning, when the County Court matters case will come on for hearing.

OGDEN CITY NEWS.

The Council Meeting.—The "Standard" Stockholders.—The Chamber of Commerce.—Other Items.

(Spoken Standard.)

The new city council held its second regular meeting last evening. The committee on finance recommended that another allowance of $300 per annum be allowed the city treasurer as salary. A communication was read from City Treasurer Brough, making an appeal for this allowance on the grounds that the law respecting the duties of the city treasurer has been changed so that he is now the collector of city and special taxes. The report of the committee was adopted. The report of Mr. Browning, city gatemaster of the Weber canal, was submitted and given to file. He recommended an increase of taxation on the canal as improvements would be needed in the spring. The committee on claims recommended the payment of a batch of bills amounting to $2,[illegible]. Adopted. The annual report of John W. McDonald, chief of police, showing 714 arrests made from February 14, 1892, to January 1, 1893, was read and filed, accepting 97 the police committee. Adopted.

The stockholders' meeting of the Standard Publishing company was held yesterday afternoon. The following were elected to serve as directors for the ensuing year: Adam Patterson, E. M. Allison, Jr., Frank J. Cannon, J. R. Hoare, John Henry Smith, Ben E. Rich, E. W. Wade, Willis Atkinson and John V. Shaffer. The Unanimous vote of the board was rendered in a call for the increase of capitalization from $20,000 to $50,000. A vote of thanks was tendered to President Flygare and Vice President Stephens for their energy as displayed during their administration. Also a vote of thanks was extended to the business manager and secretary for their services. The newly elected directors met and elected Adam Patterson, president; E. M. Allison, Jr., vice-president; John V. Shaffer, secretary; Wm. Glassmann, treasurer. Frank J. Cannon has resigned as business manager and Wm. Glassmann has been elected to that position.

Judge Patton returned Sunday morning from a trip to San Francisco where he went on business connected with the Southern Pacific shops. The Southern Pacific company has changed the plans originally submitted so as to increase the size of some of the buildings. The machine shops will be made 84x251 instead of 84x250 as was first intended. The officials of the road are figuring on the cost of iron beds with a view to constructing engines in this city. The complete plans of the new shops are almost finished and in the course of a few days they will be forwarded to Ogden. Actual work of construction will commence as soon as possible.

The business men of Ogden have become endorsed on the necessity of organization. At least that was the spirit shown at the annual meeting of the Ogden Chamber of Commerce. The board of directors remained at the close of the public meeting for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. W. W. Waters was elected chairman. For the office of President there was presented the name of A. H. Patton, and the secretary was instructed to cast the entire vote of the board for that gentleman. Theodore Robin was elected first vice president and C. H. King second vice president. Jas. Wattenbourn was elected treasurer.

Yesterday D. D. Smith and R. S. Spencer, the cowboys who were captured near the elegant well at some time ago and arrested on several charges, were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Cross on the charge of grand larceny, they having, it is alleged, stolen a calf, the property of a farmer residing at Riverdale. The evidence against the accused was so strong they were both held to await the action of the grand jury in bonds of $500, in default of which they were committed to the county jail.

The funeral of Orson Tout, who met his sad death on a railroad train near Dry Creek, Idaho, on Friday last, was held from the Second Ward meeting house yesterday forenoon. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of the Order of Railway Pitmen and the remains were in the city cemetery. The deceased was 30 years of age on the day of his death and leaves a wife and six children to mourn their untimely loss.

William Corbett, the noted California horseman, is in the city accompanied by his manager, W. F. Saunders, en route to the New York market with thirty-eight head of horses.

Wires have again been resumed on the gas well near the corner of Twenty-ninth street and Pingree avenue. The drills are now down to a depth of over five hundred feet.

Jack O. Dry, the Portland lightweight, sends word to the Utah club that he will come here and fight 145 lbs. man, and wishes a match immediately.

THE CREDIT SYSTEM.

An Organization Effected Last Night Which is Intended to Abolish It.

The newly organized Merchants' Protective Association of this city met at the store of Spencer & Lynch last night and adopted a constitution by which they are to be governed in their work of endeavoring to bring about the abolition of the credit system now so prevalent in this locality.

J. D. Spencer acted as chairman and A. S. Gedlis as secretary.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following named officers were elected:

J. D. Spencer, president; A. Gerard, vice-president; H. P. Bell, secretary; J. W. Judd, attorney; executive committee, J. D. Spencer, Fred Sloan, E. C. Collis, S. H. Hill and H. A. Fyler.

MEMBERSHIP.

The organization commences with the following, who were present and signed the membership roll last evening:

Walker Bros. & Fyler, Spencer & Lynch, Cohen Bros., Salt Lake Hardware company, Schweitzer & Dessoff, Simon Bros., C. R. Savage, Utah Book and Stationery company, D. L. Auer, Co-op Furniture company, Lindsey Bloody & Co., Margolis Bros., H. C. Cline Hardware company, Utah Stove and Hardware company, Joseph Bromgerley, Brown, Ferry & Westcott, Callowes, Hoaxe & Co., Otter Bros., Sears & Liddle company, Browning Bros., F. Auerbach & company, Cutler & Sudgrove company, Johnson-Clark Drug company, Rolfe Grocery company, Cahn Shoe company, Jerome Hirschman, the Dunn-Stone company, Western Shoe and Dry Goods company, M. H. Dooly, Barton Co., Sam H. Hill and Cunningham company.

The new society will meet in the Chamber of Commerce building on the evening of the second Friday in every month. A committee of five was appointed to wait on the merchants and lay before them the benefits of the association for the purpose of getting them to add their names and strength to it. The committee consisted of S. A. Heywood, H. G. Nelson, E. F. Williams, Lorenzo Young, Frank Margetts and — Brown.

THE COUNTY FINANCES.

Sweet Olive Wood, Farmington, Utah.

Olive Wood, an old and highly respected citizen of Farmington, Utah, states: "Nothing affords me such great pleasure as to recommend to my friends Robert's Snow Liniment. Before trying it I had little faith in it, but one trial convinced me it was a highly meritorious article. I recently met with a painful accident and was suffering great pain. My wife applied Snow Liniment freely and the pain was immediately relieved and the inflammation readily subdued. It has no equal as a reliever of pain and inflammation. Beware of all white liniments substituted for Snow Liniment. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. 1xx
